Hennick, Valentiate named Athletes of the Week

UNB is pleased to announce that Helen Hennick and Adam Valentiate are this week's Valley Graphics/University of New Brunswick Athletes of the Week for the week ending March 3rd.

Hennick is a 4th year wrestler who hails from Oromocto. This weekend at the Canadian Interuniversity Sport Wrestling Championships being held at Lakehead University, Ontario, Helen won a gold medal in the 61kg weight class. Helen defeated Melissa Kindratsky of the University of Calgary by a 3-1 score.

She is a former Gold Medal winner from 1998-99 and a Bronze Medallist in 2000-01also in the 57kg weight class.

This past weekend she was also awarded the "Fair Play Award" out of the 52 women participating in the tournament. Winning her second gold medal makes Helen a two-time Canadian Interuniversity Sport All-Canadian.

Valentiate, who is also a wrestler, is currently in his third year in the BA program. The Rusagonis native also attended the Canadian Interuniversity Sport Wrestling Championships. He suffered his only defeat of the tournament in the Gold Medal match against Mickey Jutras of the University of Saskatchewan who scored 3 points to Adam's 1 point.

He helped lead his team to their highest CIS Championship placing so far with a 6th place finish and a score of 35 points. Adam will also be named a Canadian Interuniversity Sport All-Canadian.

SFU women win CIS title

Clan women complete season undefeated

by Marc Bartschat

Hamilton, ON - In the Championship game at the 2002 CIS Women's Basketball Championship at McMaster University, the #1 seeded Simon Fraser University Clan capped off their second season as a member of the CIS with their first CIS Championship and a perfect 35-0 record. In the gold medal final, the Clan defeated the #2 seeded Laval Rouge et Or 66-51. For Laval it was their best ever finish at the tournament, improving on a fourth place finish in 1976. Since then, Laval had gone winless at the event in fourteen games.

Laval looked strong early as their duo of fourth year guard Isabelle Grenier (Sainte Foy, QC) and second year forward Josée Lalonde (Chateauguay, QC) combined for 12 of their first 16 points putting the Rouge et Or up by seven 16-9 at the 14:15 mark.

Over the next five minutes Simon Fraser went on an 11-0 run putting them up 20-16 with fourth year post Jessica Kaczowka (Regina, SK), a first-team All-Canadian and Nan Copp CIS Outstanding Player of the Year award winner adding nine of the 11 points.

Laval battled back as they regained the lead once more at 23-22 but from there on in it was all SFU as they went on a 15-7 run over the final six minutes of the first half to take a 37-30 lead into the break and began the second half with a 16-7 run over eight minutes, taking their biggest lead of the game by 18 points 55-37.

Kaczowka dominated inside as she tied the championship high for points with 28, going 12-for-18 from the field. She also pulled down 13 rebounds. She ended the tournament first in field goal percentage (30-for-45) with 66.7% and finished second in scoring and rebounding averaging 23.7 points and 9.7 rebounds per contest.

Also contributing at the offensive end for the Clan were Jennifer Van De Walle (Maple Ridge, BC) with 14 points, six rebounds and four steals and first team All-Canadian Teresa Kleindienst (Mission, BC) who added 12 points, six rebounds, seven assists and four steals. Kleindienst ended the tournament averaging 13.7 points, 5.0 rebounds and 6.3 assists and 2.3 steals and was named tournament MVP.

Leading Laval was Lalonde with 17 points and a tournament high 16 rebounds completing the double-double. Also in double figures was Grenier with 13 points on 5-for-12 shooting to go along with five assists.

The Saxon Players of the Game were SFU's Jessica Kaczowka and Laval's Josée Lalonde.

#3 Manitoba make it two in a row after dismantling archrivals #1 Calgary

by Eric Collard
Canadian Interuniversity Sport

In the gold medal game of the 2002 CIS Women's Volleyball Championship held at Université Laval, the University of Manitoba Bisons defeated the top seeded University of Calgary Dinos 3-1 (27-25, 25-19, 22-25, 25-22). The victory concludes the tournament and guarantees Manitoba a second straight CIS Women's Volleyball Championship while Calgary brings home the silver medal.

A final in which battled the defending champions, Manitoba, and the number one seed, Calgary, could only deliver first class entertainment. That's exactly what the fans in the stands of the PEPS Gymnasium were treated to on Saturday afternoon.

All the sets were contested to the very end, making this battle as exciting as it could get. No runaway victories in this medal game.

In set #1, following a 16-16 tie, the Bisons overcame a 16-20 deficit to knot it up again at 23. The Dinos succeeded in saving two game points but Tammy Mahon (Holland, MB) ended the exchanges with a kill.

Tie games were the flavour of the day even in the second set as it persisted again until 15-15, but CIS Player of the Year Kathy Preston (Dauphin, MB) took control of the game and guided a Manitoba drive to give them a 20-16 gain. The rest of the set was but a formality, ending in a 25-19 score.

Another set, another tie game, this time all the way to 16-16. Manitoba made another two comebacks from 7-13 and 10-15 but a service ace by All-Canadian Dino Krista Kinsman (Calgary, AB) and an error by Manitoba's setter Jennifer Dowdall (Winnipeg, MB) gave back the lead to Calgary to the tune of 20-16. The Bisons were not going to give up that easy, reeling off five straight points, the last one coming on a kill by rookie Laura Silversides (Thunder Bay, ON).

With another tie at 22, the Dinos finally got mad and recorded the last three points to close out the set and keep them alive for a chance at a gold medal.

Finally in set #4, another marathon ensued from a 14-14 deadlock. First Calgary held a 17-14 advantage; then came five straight points by the Bisons for an 19-17 edge. The ties did not end there with two more coming at 19-19 and 20-20. Manitoba then showed why they were the defending champions, igniting for three points to bring the score to 23-20 on a Preston kill, a Kinsman error and another kill by Jaclyn Schmidt. Well-decorated Manitoba star Kathy Preston killed two birds with one stone by putting away the game to finish off Calgary and her CIS career in only one hit.

"It's a hard one to swallow. Especially since we're pretty sure we did not play our best volleyball, either today or during the rest of the tournament. God knows, we were never able to truly find our rhythm. I tip my hat to the Bisons though, an extraordinary team whose experience probably made the difference today," said Kevin Boyles, head coach of silver medal team, Calgary.

"This championship is maybe even more special than last year's because it's a lot harder to defend a title than to win a first one. I'm especially happy for my fifth-year players because I've seen fifth-year veterans lose their last game and it breaks my heart. When it comes to the tournament overall, I can hardly believe that we survived such a hard path: Laval in front of their home crowd, as well as the number one and two seeds," said Ken Bentley, Manitoba's bench boss after yet another gold medal for the University of Manitoba volleyball.
