

The first floor of the SUB contains the largest single lounge area of the building. Here students may relax by enjoying television, music, a game of billiards, or a comfortable haircut. They may take advantage of the shops located here, or drop in for a lively debate if the SRC happens to be in session. Various SRC offices and conference rooms, as well as the STU and TC press offices, are located in the side wing.

