Fredericton Tops Heap With Good Lead Over Reds

Wookstock Lost Both Labor Day Games to Pets Putting up Extremes of Baseball---Marathons and Houlton Broke Even in St. John---Fredericton Came Back Strong on Saturday Beating Greeks 7 to 1---Woodstock Here Today

Fredericton	37	25	.597
Houlton	30	24	.556
St. John	29	37	.439
Woodstock	22	32	.407

Fredericton trimmed Woodstock in both Labor Day games here yesterday and incidentally the fans were treated to the extremes of baseball. The joke-game of the morning was won 18 to 4. Dorsey a phenomenon from a semi-professional team of Lynn, Mass, started to pitch for the Colts and was sent to right field after allowing a hit and forcing a run with three bases on balls. In the outfield he was about as useful as he was in the box. Black finished the game on the mound and was found for twenty-five hits. Lynch who pitched for Fredericton had Woodstaick's measure at all stages. The game was such a joke that it was a wonder the crowd in the afternoon was so large.

The afternoon game was everything the morning game was not. Both teams played fast ball and the game went into the tenth inning when Fredericton won 2 to 1 with two out. Frank Harrington pitched two innings allowing three hits. He then retired on account of illness and Hale finished the game pitching good ball. Hanley for Woodstock also pitched in good style. Both teams fielded in snappy fashion Ramsey and "Red" Wildes being particularly prominent. Bob Conley in both games batted for 1.000.

MORNING GAME.

In the first game Black was easy for the Pets and was batted all over the lot and the game became nothing more than a joke. Four bases on balls and two singles resulted in four runs for Fredericton in the first inning. A like number came in the second on two two-base hits and a single. For three innings Woodstock tightened up and Fredericton did no scoring although getting men on second and third in the fifth inning.

In the sixth two runs came in when Harrington and Bob Conley each had three-base hits and Larry Conley singled. In the seventh a two-bagger, a three-bagger four singles and a base on balls drove in four more runs. The agony ended in the eighth with four more resulting from two two-base hits, three singles and a base on balls.

Woodstock's part of the performance was brief. The Colts scored one in the second inning, Perley hitting safely, stealing second, reaching third on a base on balls to Callahan, and scoring when Fitzgerald dropped Bob Conley's throw to catch the runner. The other three Woodstock runs came in the eighth when the Colts found Lynch for two singles and a two-bagger. Duffy distinguished himself by stealing home in this inning.

AFTERNOON GAME

In the second game Woodstock's lone tally was made in the fifth inning. Black hit safely and advanced on Williams' sacrifice. Nelson struck out but Conley hit for two bases and Black scored. Lamourey flied out at first. Duff tried to score on a put out but was caught at the plate. The Fredericton team then tightened up. In each of the fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth and ninth innings only three men batted, and in the third and seventh only four. In the tenth with the score 1 to 1, Hale pulled out of a hole, and Woodstock lost their last chance. Lamourey went to bat first and flied out to Wildes. Callahan hit safely. Hall gave Duff the only pass handed out during the game. Doherty advanced both with a sacrifice. Hanley came to bat with a man on second and third and two out. Hale struck him out and got the glad hand from the crowd.

Fredericton tied the scote in the first inning, Bob Conley scoring. Bob hit a two bagger, reached third on Perley's poor throw, and stole home. In every inning but the ninth, the Pets got men on bases but Woodstock prevented a score by some pretty snappy work. As in the previous game, Fredericton took big chances in base running, and had men caught at the plate time after time. Ganley got to third in the third inning but died there. Murray reached third in the fourth, but Woodstock pulled off a double play in which he was caught at the plate. In the fifth the Pets filled the bases, but Hoyt retired the side with a double play. Ramsey died on second in the seventh. In the eighth Hoyt and Murray both were put out trying to score. in the tenth Hanley started things by passing Bob Conley, Larry Conley sacrificed and Holt drew a base on balls. Johnny Murray went out on an infield fly. Nelson had a passed ball and Conley scored winning the game.

PETS WON SATURDAY

Fredericton won 7 to 1 at St. John Saturday afternoon batting out a victory. Apart from the heavy hitting of Fredericton the remarkable features of the game were the temporary disappearance from the Fredericton line-up of Bob Ganley and the permanent disappearance of Steve White from the Marathon line-up. Ganley was back in the game on Labor Day. Concerning Steve White the Telegraph has the following:

"At Saturday's baseball game between Fredericton and St. John, Steve White, a Marathon pitcher, assaulted David Donald, the manager of the Greeks, and was dismissed from the team, so it was announced. There was some question about White being taken out of the box in the first inning when Fredericton scored three runs, being sent in to run for another batter, and this led up to the assault. There is talk of action being taken against the pitcher."
