There will be a meeting of council at 7.30 p. m.

In the case of Ingram vs. Brown, in the circuit court yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ingram, the plaintiff, was examined, and at the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, E. R. Chapman, counsel for the defendant, moved for a non-suit, on the ground that the plaintiff had not proved a documentary title by possession to any part of the land in dispute. Judge Tuck stated, however, that he could leave the question of the title to the jury. This morning, E. R. Chapman opened for the defence.

A BURGLARY LAST NIGHT

Wholesale Fruit Store of Thos. Potts & Co. Entered and $5 Stolen.

The wholesale store of Thos. Potts & Co., on North Market street, was entered by a clever thief or thieves last night and between four and five dollars in cash was taken from the till.

The store was closed as usual at five o'clock and the padlock was placed upon the door. Usually the cash is placed in the safe over night, but last night between four and five dollars was left in the till.

This morning, Walter Potts opened the store at seven o'clock. On entering the office he found that the till had been pried open, the lock having been broken and the money, which consisted of a $2 bill and the rest in silver, was taken. Three five cent pieces were scattered on the floor. The screw driver by which the till was forced was lying on the desk in the office. The screw driver is the same kind as that sold by the Arnold department store and it is now in the possession of Detective Killen, who is working on the case.

There are two doors leading to the store the front and the back door. The rear one is always secured by a large bar and it was not disturbed, consequently the thief or thieves must have gotten in by the front door by means of a key.

There was nothing else disturbed in the store, which contains a large stock of fruit.

WILL BUILD HOT HOUSES

P. E. Campbell to Erect Largest and Finest in the Province in Rothesay.

What will probably be the finest and best equipped hot houses in the province are to be erected at Rothesay in the near future by P. E. Campbell, who has recently purchased a large piece of ground for the purpose from L. J. Ahman. The new structures will front on what is known as the Hampton road, and the situation, which was carefully selected by Mr. Campbell is simply ideal.

A representative of this paper called on Mr. Campbell at his store, Germain street, and asked him about his new venture.

Mr. Campbell said: "We propose to remove a portion of the Fern Brae greenhouse plants from Bloomfield station to Rothesay. We have not received the plans as yet, and therefore cannot say anything definite as to the size, etc., of the houses, which are to be plain, substantial structures of hard pine, and fitted throughout with the most modern and approved appliances, special attention being given to heating and ventilating apparatus. Only the houses used for cut flowers will be removed, while the vegetables and garden plants will be grown as usual at Bloomfield. The cut-flower houses were not only too far from the city, but we have very poor railway accommodation."

Mr. Campbell's new venture will greatly facilitate his business, which for the past few years has been growing rapidly.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE

Miss Emma Linton, of Bayswater, is visiting friends in the city.

Frank Elkin, son of E. C. Elkin, returned to Wolfville this morning, where he will resume his studies at Acadia University.

Jack Bustin, son of W. H. Bustin of the Lansdowne House left for Wolfville, N. S. this morning via steamer Yarmouth where he will continue his studies at the Wolfville Academy.

Rev. J. F. Carson, of St. George, who has been in the city for the past week, returned home this morning.

Miss Kitty Sears is quite ill at her home.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS

In connection with the usual monthly exchange of pulpits of the United Baptist church, the following appointments are arranged for Sunday: Germain street, Rev. A. J. Prosser; Leinster street, Rev. D. Hutchinson; Brussels street, Rev. F. S. Bamford; Waterloo street, Rev. F. E. Bishop; Tabernacle, Rev. R. W. Ferguson; Main street, Rev. A. B. Cohoe; Victoria street, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse; Ludlow street, West, Rev. Dr. G. O. Gates; Charlotte street, West, Rev. W. A. Taylor; Fairville, Rev. D. Long.

EDWARD M. ELLIS COMING

Edward M. Ellis will open in St. John on Monday night, Jan. 22, in the new play by Edith Ellis Baker (never before produced in the Dominion) entitled "The Man and the Maid." Mr. Ellis brings with him a company, carefully selected, direct from New York. His stay here will only be for two weeks. Changing the bill twice a week, the play to follow the above will be a laughable, high-class comedy, "A Strenuous Time." He is under the direct management of Dr. E. C. Ellis, also well known here.

DIVIDENDS

In another column will be found the semi-annual dividend notice of the B. C. Permanent Loan and Savings Company, showing that a dividend at the rate of nine per cent. per annum upon class "A" permanent stock has been declared for the past half-year.

A TRUE YOUNG MAN

The last of the present series of sermons to young men will be preached by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson on Sunday evening, subject: The Portrait of a True Young Man. The music will be furnished by a choir of about thirty male voices.

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Miss Helen Davies took place this afternoon from her parent's residence, Spring St.

Rev. Canon Richardson conducted a burial service and interment was in Fernhill.

NOTICE

The store of W. A. Wetmore—"The young men's man"—154 Mill street, will be closed every evening, except Saturdays, during January and February.

Registrar Jones reports 10 marriages for the present week. Also 23 births, 13 boys, 10 girls.

EMMERSON'S FRIENDS NOW HAVE SUN AND STAR

Pronounced Local Liberals Will Be On The Directorate---- Onlooker is Singularly Misinformed on the Subject.

Onlooker in the New Freeman this morning has the following statement about the sale of the Sun and the Star:—

"Negotiations in connection with the sale of the Sun newspaper property to a syndicate of Liberals took rather a strange turn this week. It was announced in these columns last week that the representative of the Liberal syndicate had informed Mr. Thorne that the paper would be purchased by the Liberals within the time agreed on and at the figure that had been discussed during the negotiations. At the last moment it was found that some prominent Liberals considered the purchase price—something in the vicinity of $100,000—too high, and besides that there was a misunderstanding with respect to the building. It was understood by the prospective purchasers that the building was included in the amount named, but it was found that the building did not belong to the Sun Publishing Company, but to W. H. Thorne and another gentleman, and that in order to secure it several thousand dollars more would have to be paid. This led to a breaking off of the negotiations between Mr. Thorne and the Liberal syndicate, each side agreeing that the other was not at all to blame for the misunderstanding. Then the unexpected occurred once more. B. F. Pearson, of Halifax, the proprietor of the Chronicle of that city, took up the negotiations on his own behalf and purchased a controlling interest in the Sun newspaper property as a personal business investment. The writer understands that it is Mr. Pearson's intention to make the Sun a progressive newspaper, especially interested in the welfare of the lower provinces and, for the present, at least, independent in politics. Under Mr. Pearson's ownership the Halifax Chronicle has been a splendid business investment and it is his hope to make the Sun property at least as great a success financially. The Sun will be published under its present name. No radical changes will be made in any of the departments of the paper in the immediate present. Editor Scott has been invited to continue in the editorship of the Sun. Those who know him best say that he will resign his position at no distant future. If that should happen it would not surprise the writer if Editor Crandall of the Star were given temporary editorial management over both the Sun and Star newspapers."

For once, Onlooker is so singularly misinformed that the public is wondering what has happened to his customarily astute intellect. The Sun and Star will, it is true, be largely controlled in future by a Halifax man, and perhaps as a business speculation. But the following list of prospective directors does not smack very strongly of independence in politics:

Mr. Thomas McAvity.
Mr. C. J. Milligan.
Mr. W. G. Scovil.
Mr. J. C. Friel (Dorchester).

As the Times stated some days ago, these papers are controlled by friends of Hon. Mr. Emmerson.

A FORWARD MOVEMENT

New Lighting System in Brussels Street Church---Meetings for Men.

The congregation of Brussels street Baptist church may indeed feel proud of the handsome interior of their enifice, for on Sunday evening the church will be lighted by over seventy incandescent lights, which have just been installed. The church has in the past been lighted by gas, which was anything but satisfactory. Now, however, electric incandescent lights have been put in, that will prove a wonderful improvement over the old system, and the Brussels street edifice will rank among the best lighted church buildings in the city.

Two massive electrioliers of a very handsome design, with twenty-five lamps in each, have been placed in the centre of the church, and smaller brackets around under the gallery and in the choir loft, as well as a reading lamp for the pulpit.

The installation of the new lighting system has been made possible through the efforts of the ladies of the church, who have raised in various ways the necessary funds to carry out the improvements.

Now that the pastor, Rev. A. B. Cohoe, has been induced to remain in charge of the church, the work will be carried on in an energetic manner.

Rev. Mr. Cohoe has fitted up one of the committee rooms in the rear of the church for a study, and has regular hours for working there, during which time he has extended an invitation to members of the congregation and others to call and see him whenever they are so inclined.

On Friday evening next week a social meeting for men will be held in the vestry of the church, to which all men are invited. The evening will be devoted to music, readings and a short address or two. The idea of the affair is simply that men may meet and spend an enjoyable evening, and judging by the efforts of the committee who are arranging the programme the gathering will be a great success. It will inaugurate a regular series of meetings for men, to which any man will be welcome.

JERRY MURPHY ON THE BOARDS

Come One, Come All to Juhilee Hall---Be Sure to Go to Jerry Show.

Tickets are now on sale in many of the leading stores in the city for a concert that will be held in the Jubilee Hall on Tuesday night next.

The performance is being put on by Jerry Murphy, a well known amateur actor, under the name of the Murphy Stock Co. Several well-known talented youths will take part. The Honorable Mr. Murphy has for some time been the guest of the city in the King street East hotel, and since his release has been rehearsing his company in the sensational drama, entitled "Clifford's Boarding House, or Behind the Bars with Jerry," which play will also be staged Tuesday evening.

The police say that they will be present to keep the audience quiet, as it has been hinted to them that the city merchants have sold a quantity of stale eggs recently.

WINTER PORT NOTES

C. P. R. steamship Monmouth, Captain Potter, sailed at 2.30 p. m. today for London with a large general cargo.

Donaldson liner Alcides will leave port tonight at 11 o'clock for Glasgow direct with a full cargo, including a large amount of grain.

Allan line steamer Pretorian will sail tomorrow morning for Liverpool via Halifax.

Henry Crawford has secured a portable mill and will cut the lumber off a piece of woodland back of Douglas Lake.

Rev. W. W. Rainnie will conduct the services in St. Stephen's church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. to-morrow.

It has been suggested by citizens that a section of the street railway be constructed from the corner of King street along Germain, Wellington Row, Carleton and Coburg to Cliff, down Cliff to Waterloo, and down Richmond to a junction with the Brussels street line.

ENTERTAINED TO A SUPPER

There was a pleasant gathering at 16 Charles St. last evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rogers gave a supper to the choir of St. Mary's Church. Rev. Dr. Raymond the pastor in a happy speech thanked the host and hostess (on behalf of himself and the choir) for their kindness. He also alluded to the long and faithful work of Mr. Rogers, their choir instructor, and stated that never in his long pastorate had he felt the spirit of peace and good will to such a large degree as at the past Christmas season.

He therefore felt that both choir and instructor were prompted by an unselfish desire to serve their Lord and master in that branch of the church's work. Mr. Rogers responded briefly stating that it gave them very much pleasure to entertain their pastor and the choir. The balance of the evening was spent in games and music.

One thousand shares of Gold King mining stock were sold at Chubb's Corner today at noon by Auctioneer Lantalum for 32 cents per share.
