LATE LOCALS

Battle line steamer Trebia, now on her way to Brow Head for orders from Hopewell Cape will discharge at Glasgow.

Rev. Mr. Squires will preach tomorrow evening in Carmarthen street Methodist church.

Star line steamer Victoria, which ran on the Oromocto wharf yesterday, and was later gotten off, left the latter place at about 7 o'clock this morning in tow of tug Nereid.

As a windup of yesterday's unpleasant weather the city was visited by a heavy electrical storm about midnight last night with a deluge of rain. One terrific clap came about 12.30 o'clock.

Greenwood Cemetery, Sand Cove, now has a resident caretaker, and lot holders or others interested can leave orders with him for any repair work or care of lots. The cemetery is to be quite extensively improved within a short time.

Difficulty was experienced during yesterday's fire on Mill street in getting from the Cook apartments Mrs. Peterson, a sick woman, and five small babies, who were in the care of Mrs. Cook. Great bravery was shown by passers-by who went to Mrs. Cook's aid.

Three-year-old Percy Wetmore, who, with his mother, has been visiting Mrs. John Holden, Millidge Lane, strayed away from the house yesterday morning and was picked up on Main street by Patrolman Finley, who took him back to his mother.

Mrs. E. J. Armstrong entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Presbyterian church yesterday, at her home, Armstrong's Crossing. The day was very pleasantly spent and the twenty odd ladies who returned to the city last evening reported having had a delightful time.

The concert given last night at St. Philip's church will be repeated Tuesday, July 30th. Those who have not heard Miss Demby should not fail to attend. A different repertoire will be given. Special service tomorrow at which Miss Demby will assist in the song service. Service and Baptism in the morning.

OFF FOR THE WEST

Harry Carpenter, formerly in the employ of Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited, leaves this evening to attend his duties in Gainsboro, Sask. Mr. Carpenter, who is a son of Jas. T. Carpenter, the Mill street merchant, left here three years ago and during that time has been very successful in the west. He first went to Arcola and from there he secured the management of a branch store in Kisbey, but has lately accepted a position with a firm in Gainsboro. Mr. Carpenter's many friends in St. John regret to see him depart so soon for the west again, but he carries with him the good wishes of all for a very successful future.

BICYCLE ACT POSTPONED

Owing to the necessary gear for Mr. Armour's bicycle act at Rockwood Park not having arrived, he will be unable to give his performance today. The management at Rockwood very much regret having to disappoint the public and Mr. Armour also is very sorry that a postponement has been found necessary. It is hoped that all will be in readiness for next Saturday. There will be a band this afternoon and fireworks tonight.

Charles R. Ashley

The death occurred at Eastport yesterday of Charles R. Ashley, a former resident of this city. He was a son of the late James and Maria Ashley and was engaged in the shoemaking trade. He was unmarried and leaves one brother, Robert, of New York, and five sisters, Mrs. Silas Hoyt, Exmouth street; Mrs. W. H. Warn, Waterloo street; Mrs. G. H. Barnes and Mrs. S. Bissett of Boston, and Mrs. James White of Long Reach.

Mr. Ashley left St. John about 28 years ago.

L. P. D. TILLEY DINED

L. P. D. Tilley was tendered a complimentary dinner at Scammell's restaurant last evening, by the local members of the Canadian Order of Foresters, to celebrate his appointment as third member of the executive of the C. O. F. and as first member of the order in the maritime provinces to receive the distinction. The D. D. H. C. R., R. W. Wigmore, occupied the chair, having the guest of honor at his right. D. R. Kennedy, district organizer, was in the vice chair. A toast list and excellent programme were carried out.

THE MOTOR BOAT RACE

While there are but three entries for the R. K. Y. C. motor boat race this afternoon the contest promises to be a good one. The boats to start are Idler, S. L. Emerson; Marconi, J. E. Watters, and Dart, F. A. Dykeman. The contest is to start at 3 o'clock. The Idler and Marconi had a close race last year and as the Dart is a speedy craft and is allowed a good margin of time allowance by the two larger boats, the struggle will doubtless be a hard one.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Unknown Lad Struggled in Waters of Indiantown Harbor Yesterday.

A lad whose name could not be learned had a very narrow escape from drowning at Indiantown yesterday afternoon. He was rowing from Moore's Mill to Indiantown when he lost an oar and in attempting to recover it the boat was upset and the young fellow was struggling in the water. The tug James Holly, in command of Captain McNeill was on its way across the river from Indiantown when the accident happened and some of the men on board saw the affair. Orders were immediately given to turn the boat and she went at full speed to the rescue.

Albert Taylor, a foreman in James Holly & Son's employ was on the tug and as the struggling boy was reached Mr. Taylor leaned over the side and pulled him on board. The young fellow was about exhausted and had it not been for the timely action of those on the tugboat it is altogether likely he would have been drowned. He was taken to the wharf at Indiantown and sent home. Those on board the tug did not get his name.

HE ADMITTED HIS GUILT

Chas. McPherson Will Be Disposed of by Judge Ritchie Under Speedy Trials.

In the police court yesterday afternoon, the man giving his name as Charles McDonald, who was arrested for obtaining $30 from Mrs. Margaret Ferguson, under false pretences, pleaded guilty and elected to be tried by Judge Ritchie. He was remanded.

A city constable says he has an execution against the prisoner, under the name of Chas Stewart, issued at the instance of Mrs. E. Cheney, proprietress of the Cheney House, King square, for board. It is also said that a boarding house keeper, named Saunders, of Water street, also has a claim against him as Chas. Stewart, for a board bill.

It is believed that the man is a blacksmith and worked formerly with Mr. Lewis.

TASTED POISON ON HER HUSBAND'S LIPS

Good Night Kiss Gives Wife First Intimation That Husband Has Poisoned Himself.

WASHINGTON, N. J., July 26—When George Hayes, a well-to-do farmer, of Oxford township, had finished supper, Thursday night, he called to his wife to kiss him.

The request was unusual, and Mrs. Hayes was startled, but complied. The contact with her husband's lips left a peculiar taste on hers, and she realized at once something was wrong. Then her husband told her he had taken strychnine with his last gulp of tea. Doctors were summoned as quickly as possible, but Hayes died before they arrived. While awaiting death Hayes said he had no particular reason for wanting to die except that he was tired of living. He was fifty-seven years old. He leaves nine children.
