JOHN L. VENNER,

 Also.—A few Bales CANVAS, DUCK, and White COTTONS; and an Assortment of LINEN Goods consisting of SHEETING, DOWLAS, PLATILLAS, CHECKS, BED TICKS, &c. All which will be sold on his usual liberal terms.
 Z. WHEELER informs the Public that from the probability which existed this Spring, of the Embargo continuing in the United States, Mr. VENNER had consigned him from LONDON, in the Triumvirate and Venus, a large quantity of TEAS—but the intercourse with that Country, from whence this Province is chiefly supplied with the article, having again opened, Mr. WHEELER finds he shall be under the necessity of keeping his Stock on hand a great length of time, or selling it as low as it can be smuggled. He has determined to adopt the latter plan, and pledges himself to sell Bohea and Souchong Teas as cheap as those which may be brought from the States, although some loss will doubtless be sustained by doing so.—He therefore presumes all purchasers of Teas will give him a preference, as they will thus secure to themselves the real advantages of a superior quality in the article, which is acknowledged in favor of the Teas from England; and of keeping and transporting them about the Country without risk or the use of clandestine means.
