SUNDAY SCHOOLS.
AS the profanation of the Sabbath has of late years become truly alarming so as to threaten the utter subversion of Religion and subordination, in order if possible to stop so growing an evil, SUNDAY SCHOOLS have been established in many places, particularly in England, the happy effects of which have exceeded the utmost expectations. A similar institution is now begun in this City, but as a considerable expence in Book, Fuel, &c. will be necessary to support it (though the Teachers gratuitously attend them)—The well known liberality of the Public is therefore thus appealed to, and Subscriptions will be received by JOHN GARRISON, Esquire, and Mr. JOHN FERGUSON.
Saint John, 23d October, 1809.
