ARMY OF ST. DOMINGO.

GENERAL STAFF.

Head-Quarters, St. Domingo, 11th Nov. 1808.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

The General in Chief is no more, he fell a victim to his blind confidence. Let us pay to his memory the just tribute of tears and praise we owe to him.—But let not grief enervate our souls: I do not conceal from you your danger, it is worthy of your courage. Preserve the attitude you have taken—Providence and the genius of France hover over us. Let us hope every thing—nothing is impossible to a firm and decided will.

BARQUIER.

(Signed) Brigadier General Barquier is naturally called to succeed General Ferrand, and accordingly he takes the command in chief of the army, and the reins of administration. The present orders of the day shall be read to the troops assembled during the day, in their respective quarters.

BOSTON, JANUARY 6.

FROM EUROPE.

Yesterday arrived at this port, the schooner Jane, Capt. HALL, in 35 days from Oporto. Sailed from that place on the 29th of November. About ten days before his departure intelligence had been received from Corunna, that a great battle had been fought between the Spanish troops and People, contending for the Independence of their Country, and their invaders, the French, in which the former suffered a defeat, with the loss of 30,000. This news had not been officially received at Oporto, but was credited by some. The Portuguese, however, appeared to be in good spirits. The action, it was said, took place near Pampeluna.

If it should prove correct, that a battle, so disastrous for the world, has taken place, it must have been fought early in November—and our next arrival from England will probably furnish the particulars.

Letters from Oporto to the 25th of November, are silent as to the above information.

BONAPARTE was said to be on the Spanish Frontiers with an army of 200,000, and the French army engaged was reported at 150,000.

JANUARY 7.

Since mail, we learn that the Non-Intercourse bill, and bill for enforcing the Embargo, both passed the House of Representatives of Congress, on Friday. The Non-Intercourse bill to take effect on the 1st of June.

NEW-YORK, JANUARY 3.

VERY LATE FROM SPAIN.

By the arrival of the British Brig Henry, from Malaga, the Editors of the New-York Gazette have received Madrid papers to the 8th, and Malaga papers to the 16th of November, from which the subsequent Translations are made. It does not appear, that there has been any material change in the position of the different armies, since our former advices—nor that any general battle had been fought. The Madrid Gazettes are completely filled day after day, with donations from individuals for the use of the army—but one sentiment seems to pervade the breast of every individual Spaniard—all are anxious to evince their determination of losing their all, rather than submit to the tyrant of Europe. Capt. Hanney is the bearer of Dispatches from our charge des affaires, at Malaga, to the Secretary of State.

VIC, IN CATALONIA, OCTOBER 24.

We are endeavoring to concentrate the enemy, and in particular the line at Barcelona, from whence persons of the first respectability assure us, that the general quarters are about to be removed to Sorria, a mile and a half from Barcelona, to confine the French still more, who, it is said, are much divided among themselves.

GERONA, OCTOBER 30.

Last week 3000 men stationed at Rosellon appointed to protect the coast, and go to Bayonne, to reinforce the army of Navarre, with 600 mountaineers, accompanied by some gens d'armes, most of whom were hand-cuffed, on the second day's journey, from Perpignan, mutilated, cursing their regenerator, Bonaparte, attributing to his ambition all their misfortunes, laid down their arms; after killing some of the gens d'armes, liberated themselves.

ARANJUEZ, NOVEMBER 4.

General Palafox, a member of the central government, with the Count Montejo, have gone to Catalonia to review the troops and ground, and proportionate the needful for the defence of the country, and to expel the enemy.

The central government have decreed that each Vivrenati, of which there are five in South America, shall send two Deputies to the General Government. They have also directed that their President Count Florida Blanca shall have in his service the Royal Body Guards.

The Marquis de la Romana has set out from Villacastin and Vittoria to take command of the 9000 men who arrived from the Baltic, and landed at St. Andero, and form part of the army of Gen. Blake.

MADRID, NOVEMBER 1.

The French attacked our line on the Ebro by Logrona, Lodosa, and Lerin; the two first points very feebly.—At the last point General Moncey charged with his whole division, which was resisted by the riflemen from Cadiz, who suffered severely. General Blake dislodged the enemy at Zarzoza, with great loss, and pursued the enemy to Vingarra, by which means the road to Izun is cut off, leaving the French no other means of getting to France but that of Roncesvallos. From the ardor of our troops, we anticipate the most brilliant result. They wish for nothing more than for a general battle. Such is the impetuosity of the troops that their commanders can hardly restrain them.

NOVEMBER 4.—The celebrated Valdes and Count de la Quintanilla, have taken the oath as Deputies to the central government from the kingdom of Leon.

The army of Galicia, on the 26th ult. attacked, and continued on the 27th, dislodging the French from all their posts—and on the 28th, occupied the position of Durango. When the post set off, the French continued retreating, and ours pursuing them. The result will doubtless be glorious to our arms.

HALIFAX, JANUARY 6.

Accounts from Washington to the 25th ult. mention that, the Non-Intercourse having been agreed to by the House of Representatives, a Committee was appointed to draft a Bill for that purpose.—The time when it was to take place was not determined on.

A late English paper says, that at the conference at Erfurt, were present—two Emperors—five Kings, and seventy-one Princes and Princesses.

A letter from St. Croix, dated November 19, says—“In a few weeks Martinique will be added to the number of captured Islands, as well as Guadeloupe, as it is supposed little opposition will be made.—A force of from 8 to 10,000 men will go against them”—Bas. Pap.

A fleet of about 100 sail of merchantmen from Gottenburgh, &c. arrived in England October 30.

A pilot-boat schooner full of men, and under French colors, arrived at Norfolk on the 17th ult. 20 days from the city of St. Domingo.

The French national schooner Calibre, 3 guns, 66 men, and the national schooner Flor de la Mar, were sent into Jamaica November 24.

The schooner Nancy left Barbadoes December 6.—The Master reports, that there were nearly 10,000 troops at that Island, in readiness for the Expedition. Five ships of the line had lately arrived there from England.—Provisions were plenty—and several American vessels had been taken attempting to carry supplies to the French Islands.

The Chellerfield packet, with upwards of 40 passengers on board, sailed from New-York for Falmouth, on the 15th ult.

H. M. ships Melpomene and Diamond, from Vera Cruz for Cadiz, with 5,000,000 dollars on board, were spoken December 4, lat. 30 33.

SAINT JOHN, January 23, 1809.

Her Majesty's Birth-Day was celebrated on Wednesday with the utmost demonstration of joy.—At 12 and 1 o'clock, Salutes were fired by the Royal and City Artillery, interspersed by volleys of small arms from the Troops in Garrison, and Saint John County Regiment of Militia, a large proportion of which were under arms on the occasion.—The remainder of the day was spent with the usual festivity and harmony.

VENTRILOQUISM.

FOR SIX NIGHTS, (positively no longer.)
At the House of Mrs. COCK'S, on WEDNESDAY
25th JANUARY, 1809.

MR. RANNIE,
VENTRILOQUIST.

RESPECTFULLY informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of SAINT JOHN, that he has just arrived, and intends performing Six Evenings in this place. Those Ladies and Gentlemen who are desirous of hearing this singular power of nature, will please to embrace the present opportunity, which no doubt will be the last. Mr. R. also observes, that no other person in Europe or America possesses this inimitable gift of Nature but himself.

He causes the voice of a child to be distinctly heard from under chairs and tables; also from the ceiling, and the pockets of the Ladies and Gentlemen present. He will also cause the noise of a number of Hogs to be heard in different parts of the room. In some manner to explain this extraordinary power and the effect it will have on those who are not in the knowledge of it, Mr. R. states the following fact, which took place at Copenhagen in Denmark:

“Being present at an Inn, where a Gentleman's servant was carrying in his Master's baggage, Mr. R. standing near them, when the noise of a number of Hogs apparently issued from the different Trunks; the Landlord hearing this noise and supposing the trunks contained a number of this species of live stock, stopped the servant and added, that he kept no bed chambers for Pigs, and insisted on the servant carrying them from the house, as they had given great disturbance already: at last the servant finding his Master, who opened the trunks in order to convince the enraged Landlord, found to his great astonishment they contained nothing but clothing. The trunks were no sooner shut than the same noise was heard. By this time several of the neighbours were brought in and the trunks opened several times, but nothing of the Pig kind to be found. Mr. R. seeing the Joke had been carried far enough, explained the secret to the Landlord, who then permitted the Gentleman's trunks to go to his chambers.”

Mr. R. will perform Ventriloquial Powers in all its branches; suffice it to say, Ventriloquism cannot fail to excite the admiration of enlightened characters.—It is not like Poppet Shows or deception which are to be found almost every where.

Doors opened at half past 6 o'Clock; the Performance to commence at 7. and finish at 9.

BOXES 5s.—GALLERY 2s. 6d.

¶ Nights of Performance, Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
