MR. BEAN finds, notwithstanding his repeated remonstrance, that people continue to lay Timber along side of the Piles which support the Bridge in front of the Store now occupied by Messrs. WILLIAM PAGAN, & Co. which has already materially injured them, and threatens to carry away the Piles and bring down the Bridge if not the Store. Mr. BEAN therefore requests, that no Timber in future may be put there, as he will be under the disagreeable necessity of entering prosecutions against any person who may thus endanger his property, for all damage that may be sustained.
