 FREDERICTON, 10th August, 1811.
 His HONOR the PRESIDENT having yesterday informed His MAJESTY'S Council, that he had received a letter from Sir GEORGE PREVOST, requiring him to hasten to Halifax to assume the command of that District, and that, on his arrival there, arrangements were to be made respecting General BALFOUR's removal to this Province; the Council this day presented to His HONOR the following Address.

To the Honorable Major-General HUNTER, President and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.
The humble Address of His MAJESTY'S Council of the Province of New-Brunswick.

SIR,
 When His MAJESTY, three years ago, was pleased to appoint your HONOR to be our President, it was a subject of joyful gratulation throughout the Province: for the Civil Administration was then committed, by His MAJESTY'S express nomination, to one who, in his Military command, had already merited the grateful acknowledgments of a loyal People, expressed by the unanimous voice of their Representatives in General Assembly. Nor on this nomination have we experienced the smallest variance of sentiment. The confident anticipation, with which we then relied on your zeal for the honor of His MAJESTY'S Service and for the safety and prosperity of this Province, has been most completely justified; and we have long indulged the hope that, since the return of General CARLETON was no more to be expected, some adequate mark of His MAJESTY'S favor to him might ere now have prepared the way for appointing you to be his Successor in this Government.

It is therefore with deep regret and concern that we have received the information of your immediate removal, especially at a time when so much may possibly be hazarded by any diminution of that zeal and confidence with which you have inspired our Provincial Militia. And we trust it will not be thought improper for His MAJESTY'S Council, on this occasion, to express a hope, that some arrangement may speedily be made to secure the Province from the mischiefs of an unsettled and precarious Government. To our situation, in this respect, we request you to solicit the favorable attention of His MAJESTY'S Ministers.

While we lament our own loss, we sincerely hope that, to yourself, this removal may prove a prosperous event; and in this hope we request you to accept the warmest assurances of our unfeigned esteem and affectionate regard. When you leave this Province, the best wishes of every heart will attend you.

To this Address His HONOR was pleased to return the following Answer.

GENTLEMEN,
 For this very kind and obliging Address, I beg you to accept of my sincerest thanks. It has been my ardent ambition to fulfil the duties of the station which I have held in this Province; but I am fully sensible how much I am indebted to your zealous aid and disinterested advice for whatever success may have attended my administration. This testimony, so well merited, I shall, on all proper occasions, be happy to make in behalf of His MAJESTY'S Council of New-Brunswick; nor shall I neglect any fair opportunity of soliciting the favorable attention of His MAJESTY'S Ministers to the future prosperity of a Colony so dutiful and loyal.

To the Honorable MARTIN HUNTER, Esquire, Major-General, Commanding His MAJESTY'S Forces in the Province of New-Brunswick, and President of the same.

A number of the Magistrates and principal inhabitants of the County of York, beg leave to approach your HONOR with an Address, which would have been rendered more Official, had not your sudden departure prevented; fully persuaded that in expressions of respect and esteem for your HONOR, we speak not only the language of our absent brethren, but of every respectable Member of the community.

In times of peculiar interest and anxiety, we have reflected with much confidence and satisfaction, that we were under the immediate command of an Officer of distinguished Military talents, and established zeal for His MAJESTY'S Service; and we trust that thus commanded in case of emergency the Militia of this Province would have given unequivocal proofs of that Loyalty which is their pride and characteristic.

In the administration of the Civil Government, we have witnessed instances of your exertions upon all occasions where the interest of the Province required them; we have also seen the salutary effects of those honorable and steady principles which have influenced the public conduct of your HONOR.

Under these impressions we feel it a duty which we owe to this society, to express in the warmest language of affection and respect, our sincere regret at your departure; while at the same time we cherish the hope that this removal may terminate essentially to your advantage, by placing you in a situation more extensive and useful.

Other sentiments press upon our minds when we contemplate the examples which you have offered to our view in private life, where you have blended a liberal and cheerful hospitality, with a rigid and careful performance of every christian duty; nor can we close this Address to your HONOR without indulging an expression of admiration, while we take a retrospective view of the many and delicate instances of benevolence and kindness which have flowed from the bountiful hand of the pious and amiable Mrs. HUNTER, whose general complacency and goodness have secured her the esteem of the whole community; we can only add our best wishes for the health of yourself and family, and that every blessing may attend you.

 Fredericton, the seat of Government of the Province of New-Brunswick, the 10th day of August, 1811.

To which His HONOR was pleased to return the following answer.

GENTLEMEN,
 I sincerely thank you for the expressions of esteem and regard contained in this Address, and in particular for the tribute of respect which you have paid to Mrs. HUNTER.

During my residence here I have witnessed many proofs of that dutiful attachment to His MAJESTY, and zeal for his service, by which the inhabitants of the Province in general have been so long distinguished.—The Militia in this, and in every County, have appeared ambitious to merit my approbation and confidence; and at this critical time it would have been my wish to remain in a situation where upon emergency, I doubt not I should have found them every way worthy of the expectation I had formed of their future conduct.

The time which I have spent among you, Gentlemen, will always be remembered by me with pleasure, and I shall at all times be happy if I can in any way contribute to the welfare and prosperity of this Province.

To His Honor Major-General MARTIN HUNTER, President of His MAJESTY'S Council, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c.
May it please your Honor,

WE, His MAJESTY'S faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, assembled in Common Council, beg leave to approach your HONOR with sentiments of the highest respect, and most perfect esteem.

If we may be permitted to express our opinion relating to public measures, we assure you, Sir, that we are fully persuaded the Province at large will ever feel greatly indebted to your HONOR, for the benefits derived from your very able, just and impartial administration of the Government; and we are confident your HONOR will carry with you, the most sincere respect and esteem of all its inhabitants, without a single exception. We cannot refrain from expressing to your HONOR how deeply impressed our minds are with the loss which the Province sustains by your HONOR'S removal: But while we lament the loss to ourselves, we beg leave to congratulate your HONOR upon the occasion, as we view it an advancement in Rank, and to a place of higher trust and confidence.

We beg your HONOR will accept our ardent wishes for your happiness; and that you may long continue to possess the confidence of our most Gracious Sovereign to which, we humbly conceive, you are so justly entitled. In testimony of these presents we have caused
 L. S. the Common Seal to be affixed.
WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Mayor.
 By order of the Common Council,
C. I. PETERS, c. c.

To which Address His HONOR was pleased to make the following reply:—

GENTLEMEN,
 This testimony of your esteem and regard, and of your favorable opinion of my administration of this Government, affords me a very sincere satisfaction and merits my particular thanks.

I shall ever retain a grateful remembrance of the kind and respectful attentions which I have experienced in New-Brunswick, and I shall be happy to have it at any time in my power to render acceptable Service to the worthy and respectable Corporation of this loyal City.

Reading, Writing and Arithmetic.

MR. BERNARD KIERNAN
