

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, JULY 28, 1812.

Copy of a letter from Lieutenant Thomas Warrant, commanding His Majesty's schooner Sealark, addressed to Admiral Sir Robert Calder, Bart. and transmitted by the latter to J. W. Croker, Esq. His Majesty's schooner Sealark, July 23, 1812.

SIR,
I have the honor to inform you, that on the 21st inst. when cruising off the Start, in the execution of your orders, at eight A. M. a signal was made from the signal station, of an enemy being in the S. E. quarter; after running for three hours in that direction, I discovered a large lugger under English colours, chasing and firing at two large merchant ships steering up Channel, which I believe were West Indianmen. On the lugger discovering the Sealark to be a cruiser, she altered her course to starboard, and made all possible sail: but finding the schooner gaining on her, she shortened sail, hoisted English colours, and cleared for action, and wore repeatedly to endeavour to get to windward of the schooner; but fearing she might escape if she had so done, I was determined to lay her on board, which I accomplished between her fore and main-chains, when an action commenced, which lasted one hour and thirty minutes, during which time a most severe fire was kept up with great guns and musketry, the enemy using hand grenades, &c.; when perceiving that she had taken fire, I then directed Mr. James Beavor, the Acting Master, to board her, which he did in the most spirited manner, and carried her. She proves to be the Ville de Caen, Capt. Cocket, of 16 guns and 75 men, belonging to Saint Malo's; had sailed from the Isle of Bas the day before, had taken nothing, and is the same vessel which had beaten off the Sandwich lugger some time since.—I am sorry, Sir, to acquaint you, that our loss, has been very severe, having had 7 men killed (amongst whom was my Clerk,) and myself and 21 wounded, several of them dangerously. The enemy's loss, as I can collect, has been 15 killed, who, with the Captain, were found on deck when taken possession of, and 16 wounded, most of them severely. I beg particularly to recommend to your notice the steady, brave, and good conduct of Mr. Beavor, the Acting Master, with the Pilot, and ever other petty officer, seamen, and marine engaged in this arduous and unequal contest. I enclose a return of the killed and wounded.

I have the honor to be, &c.
THOS. WARRANT, Lieut. and Com.
