

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 23.

ANOTHER NATION EXTINGUISHED.

LONDON, September 18.—Napoleon's Conservative Senate in Paris have decreed, that Prussia shall be annexed to the French Empire; and the event has been proclaimed at Berlin. Poor Frederick William is gone on a water-drinking excursion into Germany; and his numerous family are to become pensioners on the Corsican's bounty. What a world and age we live in! The French custom-house officers have ordered that all the ships in the Hanseatic ports shall be provided with the flags and insignia of France.

WAR OPERATIONS.

The Montpelier paper of Nov. 19, states the following:—"A letter from a gentleman at Plattsburgh, received in town yesterday, mentions that all the militia had left there for Sharsee, to encamp in the woods, where fuel was plenty. The regular troops were about to march for the French Mills. Many of the Militia and regulars were sick, and numbers dying daily."

The Burlington paper, of same date, gives the following additional news of military operations:

"General Dearborn arrived at Plattsburgh, N. Y. on Sunday last from Greenbush.

"The army of Plattsburgh had marching orders read on Saturday the 14th inst. and on Monday following the camp was broken up.

"The drafted militia under Gen. Ormes, have left Swanton for Champlain, (a township in Clinton county, N. Y. and joins the British Province) where they are to join the army from Plattsburgh.

"The last accounts from Gen. Harrison, says he was at the head of 10,000 men at Franklinton, Ohio.

"Gen. Winchester, at Fort Defiance, will form the left wing of the army. With this formidable force there can be but little doubt as to the successful result of the present campaign."

THE BORDER WAR.

CAMP, BUFFALO, (N. Y. end of lake Erie.) Oct. 26. We are making preparations for another descent on Canada, though there is an armistice existing on the river between the lakes. We have nearly 2000 men, and depend upon it, we shall be in Canada by the middle of November.

LATEST FROM THE LAKES.

Our little fleet on the lakes, consisting of the brig Oneida and 7 schooners under the command of Com. Chauncy, went into Kingston Bay on the British side, on the 8th inst. and after a severe cannonade from the Fort, returned to Sacket's harbour, with two prizes—Capt. Brock, of the 49th regiment, (nephew of the late Gen. Brock) was taken prisoner in one of the prizes. Com. Chauncy returned again to Kingston the next day.

LATEST FROM ST. DOMINGO.

Capt. Lyon, of the Spanish brig Baylen, who arrived at New-York from St. Domingo, informs us, that a few days before he sailed, there was a severe battle between the armies of Petion and Christophe, in which the latter was defeated with considerable loss. He also stated, that a day or two after the battle, Christophe was killed in a quarrel with one of his aids.

Presidential Electoral Votes.

Intelligence has been received of the election of Electors in eleven States, who will give 89 votes for Mr. Clinton and 64 for Mr. Madison. Orleans will have no vote. There are then 6 States to be heard from, viz. S. Carolina, N. Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio. From the latter state, we have pretty positive assurances that the votes have been given to the Clintonian Candidates; and from North Carolina, the hope of its giving a decided preference to the Peace Candidates, brightens every hour. Should these two States, have fulfilled the expectations of the Friends of Peace, Commerce and National Independence, the votes will stand thus:—

CLINTON 112—MADISON 102.

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in New-York, dated Washington, November 16.

"As yet it is a dead calm at this place; but it is probably the calm which precedes a hurricane. When the Presidential election has fairly gone by, or is so far over as not to be in danger of being influenced by what is done here, the flame will again burst forth, which I fear is to light our country to intestine commotions and feuds, and to foreign disasters. The angry passions by being pent up, gather new and more destructive force, and I think we are soon again to hear of hemp and tar, and of the necessity of their application to every person who dare disapprove of the war."
