FRANCKLIN MANOR.

TO be sold by private Contract several very valuable FARMS on the tract of land known by the name of FRANCKLIN MANOR, lying on both sides of the River Hebert, in the County of Cumberland, seven miles from Amherst Court House. The tract contains above thirteen hundred acres of rich marsh land, great part of which is under good dyke, and many thousand acres of excellent upland, portions of which, in the vicinity of the Farm Houses, are cleared and cultivated. The upland lies very conveniently to the marsh, and will be divided in such a manner as to suit the purchasers of Farms.

The River Hebert is navigable for large ships; and there may be got upon the Manor many thousand tons of large and valuable timber. There is an extensive bed of very good Coal that runs through one part of the Manor, which may be worked with great ease, and at a trifling expence, vessels being loaded with it in Chignecto or Cumberland Bay with great convenience, as the Coals are thrown at once from the bank into the vessel. There is an almost inexhaustible quarry of Freestone, of which great numbers of excellent grindstones have been made, and sold to great advantage. There are also several valuable Mill streams on the land; and a good Road that runs through it to Partridge Island, from which there is a regular Ferry to Windsor.

For further particulars apply to Mr. RICHARD BLAIR, at Francklin Manor.
N. B. The terms of payment will be made easy.
Cumberland, 16th September, 1812. 24

More Great and Glorious News!

From HALIFAX, OCTOBER 5.

Arrived, Saturday, the Swiftsure, packet, Captain Furse, from Falmouth, 33 days—Passengers, Sir Eger-ton Leigh, Bart. Mr. G. M. Haliburton, and Mr. Benson, and family.

This morning, H. M. S. Statira, Capt. Stackpole, and Æolus, Capt. Lord Townshend, from a cruise;—and H. M. B. Recruit, Capt. Senhouse, from Bermuda, 14 days—Passengers, Commissioners Woodhouse, &c.

The Swiftsure sailed from Falmouth on the 31st August, and brought London papers to the evening of the 29th—from which we have made a variety of interesting extracts.

From the LONDON GAZETTES of the 22d and 25th AUGUST.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, AUGUST 22.

A letter from Vice Admiral Sir James Saumarez, commanding in the Baltic, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. encloses the following:

Riga, 5th August, 1812.

SIR,—I have infinite satisfaction in acquainting you, that a messenger is arrived from Gen. Count Wittgenstein, stating, that a severe action was fought between his corps, and that under Marshal Oudinot, on the 30th and 31st ult. in the neighborhood of Polosgh or Poloch.

It appears that Oudinot had crossed the Duna, and was marching with a view, it is supposed, of coming round upon Riga, and cutting off the communication with St. Petersburg, when Count Wittgenstein commenced a most spirited attack, and obliged him to recross the river, with the loss of 3000 prisoners and some cannon.

The fighting had been very sharp, and the Count was pursuing the enemy when the courier came away.

The loss of the killed and wounded is not mentioned on either side, except that Gen. Kulnieu of the Russian Hussars is killed, and Count Wittgenstein slightly wounded.

An official report of this action will probably be published in the course of this evening, and I shall forward it to you to-morrow by a vessel going to Hano.

We have no accounts from the main Army since that of the 29th ult. which mentioned Prince Bagration having driven the enemy across the river.

T. B. MARTIN, Rear-Admiral.

Sir J. Saumarez, Bart. &c. &c. &c.

P. S. I have this instant received the enclosed from General Essen, confirming what I have stated respecting this affair.

T. B. M.

(TRANSLATION.)

Riga, 24th July, (5th August) 1812.

SIR,

I hasten to communicate to your Excellency the intelligence I have just received from General Count Wittgenstein. He informs me, that on the 18th and 19th instant, (30th and 31st July,) he gained a complete victory over Marshal Oudinot. The battle took place between Shebesch and Polotzk. Three thousand prisoners, two cannons, and a quantity of baggage and ammunition, are unequivocal proofs of his victory.—The Count writes, that he is in pursuit of the enemy, and that his advanced posts are hourly sending in fresh prisoners.

Being desirous of transmitting as soon as possible this agreeable intelligence to General Suchtelen, I request your Excellency will forward the inclosed to him by the earliest conveyance.—In case you should not at this moment have any vessel disposable, Colonel Balabin will move Admiral Schesthenkaff to supply one.

I have the honor to be, with high consideration, your Excellency's most obedient, humble servant,
ESSEN, Governor of Riga.

To Rear Admiral Martin.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

DOWNING-STREET, AUGUST 23.

A despatch of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at the Earl Bathurst's Office, from General the Marquis of Wellington, K. B. dated Cuella, 4th August, 1812:—

The French army of the centre, after having passed through the Guadarrama pass, and after its head had arrived at the Venta de San Raphael, returned to Segovia, where Joseph Bonaparte arrived on the 27th July, at night. The object of this movement was apparently to divert the allied troops from the pursuit of the army of Portugal, and to enable the latter to maintain themselves upon the Douro; in which, however, the enemy did not succeed. Their rear-guard remained in some strength on the left of the Douro, during the 28th and 29th; but the light and first divisions, and the cavalry, having crossed the Eresma and Cega ivers on the latter day, the enemy's rear-guard retired during the night across the Douro, and thence followed the movements of the main body towards Villa Vanez, abandoning Valladolid, leaving there seventeen pieces of cannon, a large quantity of shot and shells, and other stores, and the hospital, with about 800 sick and wounded.

The General in Chief Macquinez took 300 prisoners in the neighbourhood of Valladolid on the 30th; our advanced-guard crossed the Douro, and our parties entered Valladolid on the same day; and I had the satisfaction of being received by the people in that city with the same enthusiastic joy as I had been in all other parts of the country.

The army of Portugal having thus crossed and quitted the Douro, it was necessary to attend to the movements of the army of the centre, and to prevent a junction between the two upon the Upper Douro, which, it was reported was intended.

While, therefore, the advanced-guard and left continued the pursuit of the army of Portugal, I moved the right along the Cega to Cuella, where I arrived on the 1st instant.

Joseph Bonaparte retired from Segovia on the morning of the 1st, and marched through the Guadarrama; and he left at Segovia an advanced guard principally of cavalry, under General Espert, having destroyed the cannon and ammunition which were in the castle, having carried off the church plate and other valuable property, and having levied a considerable contribution on the inhabitants of the town.

I have not heard whether a detachment which I sent to Segovia yesterday, under Brigadier-General D'Urban, had entered the town.

The enemy have continued to increase their force in Estremadura.

I enclose Lieutenant-General Sir Rowland Hill's report of a very handsome affair with the enemy's cavalry, on the 24th July, by the division under the command of Lieutenant-General Sir William Erskine.

I have received no farther accounts of the operations under Sir Home Popham.

P. S. I have just heard that the French troops under General Espert have withdrawn from Segovia by San Ildesonso.

AUGUST 28.

A Council of the Cabinet Ministers sat for a long time yesterday afternoon, at the Secretary of State's Office for Foreign Affairs, in Downing-Street.

The Lords of the Admiralty have, on the petition of the ship-owners of North and South-Shields, ordered a convoy for Pictou, in North America, and for the general protection of the ships in the trade to the British Colonies.

AUGUST 29.

There has been no arrival from the Peninsula since our last, but a letter has been received from Capt. Malcolm of the Rhin frigate, cruising off the coast of Spain, which contains the following Postscript.—

"More glorious news from Lord Wellington."

The letter is dated the 14th inst. and this Postscript has been considered as a confirmation of the report brought by the Stag from Corunna to Jersey. Under this impression, the letter has been shewn to Marquis Wellesley. We think it sufficient to justify some good hopes, but not to be received, as a confirmation of the Jersey intelligence; for Capt. Malcolm, cruising off the Spanish coast, and not remaining in a harbor, may receive news of an old date, and the success he alludes to may be already known in England. We must, however, again say, that we read his Postscript with some hope.

—O—

By the mail from Gottenburg, the following letter has been received from Stockholm. The closing statement, as to the discontent of the Poles, is important.

STOCKHOLM, AUGUST 14.

"Dear Friend—The expedition which was to sail about this time, has been suddenly delayed by the intervention of the King of Denmark, whose personal feelings against the English Government, joined to the influence of Alquier, have caused no little trouble to Bernstorff, who has represented the sufferings of the people, and the total stagnation of their trade.—Thus matters stand.—Let us hope that Frederick the 6th will see his true interest, and that the abilities of Mr. Thornton will bring matters to a happy issue. As our Crown Prince is invested with full powers, he will not be amused by the Court of Copenhagen, and orders for completing the expedition are executing with additional vigour.

"According to information (authentic, though secret) the Poles are very dissatisfied, Prince P. has not forgot that in the Prussian war he was promised the
