

serve the British interest and proceed on his mission—Montreal, February 2. Henry says he has learned the cypher, though not completely. A letter from Vermont says, the people there considered the embargo unnecessary, oppressive and unconstitutional; talk of making Vermont an ally.

A letter from Windsor, dated Feb. 18, says half of Vermont will not join in any opposition to government and there is no man fit to take the lead in case of civil commotion.

A letter from Amherst, N. H. Feb. 23, says he chuses to send by private conveyance whenever practicable, because democratic Post-Masters will all break a seal as quick as their word, and there is no trusting them; the administration love popularity, and will do any thing, however mean or unjust, to maintain it; scolds about democracy.

Boston, March 5.—A large party here attached to France. The embargo he thinks will be taken off, and a non-intercourse succeed.—Speculations on the subject.

March 17.—Thinks a northern confederacy quite feasible—an alliance the consequence; but the leading federalists do not entertain an idea of withdrawing it if it could be avoided. The common people love the constitution, though they suffer just now by it, though they hate the embargo, and would not repudiate the constitution, though they suffer just now by it, or under the administration of it. The distinguished federalists will do nothing for a separation; they have great integrity of intention.

March 9th and 18th.—Unimportant speculations should a non-intercourse take place. Not necessary for Great-Britain to make concessions.

March 29th.—New-Hampshire has elected a Federal Governor—Connecticut needs no change, [a laugh] —of no consequence who is governor of Rhode-Island, as he is merely the President of the Council. The administration wish a war with England, but can do nothing without the aid of the Northern States, the bone and muscle of the whole union.

April 13.—The Northern States will do nothing for us towards separation. April 26.—Speculations on Erskine's arrangement. May 5.—Madison will not be supported by his party if he conducts honorably towards England. May 13.—Opinion resulting from the New-York election.

Here Henry leaves Boston and goes to Montreal, being told by Ryland (Craig's secretary) that he is no longer wanted there. At Montreal he gives more opinions and advice. In one of Ryland's letters to Henry, he says—"I am feally out of spirits at the idea of Old England truckling to such a debased and accursed government as that of the United States."

It appears Henry could not obtain pay for the vast services he rendered; and we have, dated June 18th, 1811, his memorial to Lord Liverpool, complaining and begging an office: Lord Liverpool's Secretary replied, that Gov. Craig said nothing about his being recompensed in England. Other letters passed till Nov.
1811, but Henry gets no office. HINC LACHRYME, and hence his patriotism towards this country, and his exposure of the whole to our government.

When the reading was finished, (which lasted about an hour and a half) a motion was made to print the message and documents.

Mr. Pitkin had no objection to the printing, but they were calculated to cast an unjust odium on a part of the country. Nobody, that he had any knowledge of, ever heard of the man before, or of any such project. The letters were a libel on the government, on federalists, on democrats, on every body but himself, and himself he had proved a traitor. He would not consent to take a character from such a man.

Mr. Bibb thought an enquiry ought to be instituted; though he had no belief that the federalists had ever thought of joining the British for any such purposes—He would refer the documents to the committee of Foreign Relations.

Mr. Widgery said, among other remarks—The old gunner knows by its fluttering when he has wounded a pigeon—all coincides with my knowledge of some men and proceedings about that time. I would enquire—Are we to SHER ourselves up from enquiry—I believe as much in the truth of them documents, Mr. Speaker, as that you are in that chair.

Mr. Gholson said, if any evidence, it was highly honorable to the Eastern section of the union, for he says not one could be found to meddle in the project—But it demonstrates a scheme to dismember the union.

Mr. Quincy was thankful, if there is now or ever has been an idea in Great-Britain that there is a British party in America, that the contrary is proved.

Mr. Wright was of opinion that the publication would be calculated to disgust the Northern section of the union. He had no belief of the federal party's having ever entertained a wish to join the British. He would refer them to the committee of Foreign Relations.

Mr. Troup. They are important as they prove by this acknowledged traitor and spy that such a plan has been agitated. A short time since the British Minister here denied that Sir James Craig induced the Indians to acts of hostility. Yet we see what Sir James can do.

Mr. Seybert moved to print 5000 copies, Mr. Rhea having before moved for a 1000.

Mr. Randolph would print them; it would be impossible to keep them from the public, and if their printing should not be authorised, mutilated parts would go to the world like the mutilated accounts of the proceedings of Congress—if worthy of communication to the house they were worthy being acted upon.
He would refer them to the committee of Foreign Relations, with power to send for persons, papers and effects. He would decide at once, and not omit till another day lest the man should run away. Though branded as a traitor and spy by all parts of the house, perhaps some valuable testimony may be gained from him.

Mr. Fisk said he knew Henry.—He would not abscond—He was an Englishman by birth, but had long resided in this country; married in Philadelphia; was an officer in John Adam's army.—Knew not that he was more dishonorable than Jackson in Copenhagen—What did Erskine declare about the same time; declarations are now made in Parliament how much the interest of both countries is united. Not a new project, this of separation—openly talked about before; would refer the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Quincy.) to two numbers in the Boston Centinel in April, 1795, advising a separation, if the British treaty should not be adopted.

The debate continued till 4 o'clock, when it was unanimously voted to print the documents, and unanimously voted to refer them to the committee of foreign relations. On the motion for printing 5000 the vote was not quite unanimous.

The Committee of Foreign Relations were all together, immediately after the house rose. Probably they will make enquiry of Mr. Monroe, and perhaps send immediately for Henry.

The motive of the President for paying any attention to such a communication from such a man you may conjecture without much witchcraft.—The correspondence will make you laugh.

Mr. Lloyd, in senate offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for the names of all concerned, as many names are scratched out.

* Mr. Fisk is mistaken. We have authority to say that Mr. Henry is an Irishman.—Gazette.

THE ROYAL GAZETTE.

SAINT JOHN, MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1812.

Since our last, we have received Boston papers to the 16th inst.—They contain London dates to the 18th January, at which time no visible change had taken place in the King's health.—The Orders in Council still continued.—Parliament had passed a vote of thanks to Lord Minto and Sir Samuel Auchmuty, for their spirited exertions in the East.—They also state, that Lisbon Gazettes to the 21st January, inclusive, has been received.—They contain Lord Wellington's official account of the commencement of the siege of CUIDAD RODRIGO—The siege took place on the 8th January, at which time, several attacks were made on the out-works, with such spirit and success, that the General expressed his opinion that the place would soon fall;—this has been verified, as will appear by the letter we publish this day, dated Lisbon, January 24.

The papers give accounts of several successful skirmishes by the troops under General HILL.

Arrived, on Thursday, schooner Sarah, John Bor-las, master, from Jamaica, with Rum, to B. Gilbert and Son.—The Sarah was boarded off Cape Antonio, on the 12th ult. by a French privateer carrying 1 gun and 45 men, and (as it appears by a certificate given Capt. Borlas) is called Le Felix erase, of Bayonne, Robert Debray, commander. After plundering the Sarah of both her cables and anchors, 2 puncheons of Rum, all her provisions and small stores, and having stove a quarter cask of Wine, they suffered her to proceed, when Capt. B. went into the Havana to refit.

On the 10th inst. Capt. B. was boarded off Charle-ton by the Indian and Rattler sloops of war. On St.
George's Bank fell in with the American ship Ceres, Capt. Rogers, from New-Orleans bound to Liverpool, having sprung a leak on the 15th inst.—she intended making the first port to repair.
