GREAT AND GLORIOUS NEWS.

QUEBEC, August 27.

MONTREAL HERALD EXTRA,

Sunday 2 o'Clock, P. M. August 23, 1812.

By extracts of official despatches received from Col. PROCTOR, and dated Malden, 11th Aug we are put in possession of the gratifying intelligence of the complete Defeat of the enemy in two engagements, thirty miles in the interior of his country. By this bold movement of our brave band of heroes, the American army has lost in killed and wounded from 2 to 300 men, his convey of provisions captured, and the despatches from Gov. Hull to the Secretary of War intercepted. Col. Proctor speaks of the valor and enthusiasm of all concerned as truly heroic. In the intercepted despatches is described the deplorable condition of Gov. Hull's army, whose safety, he states, will depend on the immediate and determined exertions in his favor, by the American troops on this frontier; so look out my countrymen, henceforth denounce every deserter from his post, as a coward, and a traitor, and let us rejoice in the belief that the time is fast approaching, when we shall be furnished with an opportunity of emulating the heroic deeds of our brave brethren in arms at Amherstberg.

Both Militia, and Indians were crowding to the British Standard to march against the unnatural foe, and as Major General Brock with four hundred brave fellows arrived at Malden, the day after the despatch came away, we might confidently expect our next accounts will announce the entire expulsion of Americans from our happy Soil.

List of Killed and Wounded.—41st three Rank and File Killed: Do. one Captain, one Subaltern, two Sergeants, thirteen rank and file wounded. Militia, one rank and file killed, two rank and file wounded. Indians, Tecumseth, Prophets Brother, slightly wounded 1 Interpreter, and seven killed and wounded.

N. B. The Wyndots, and all the other Indian Tribes, had joined the British to a man.

MORE GLORIOUS.

Herald Office, half past three, Tuesday, August 25.

MR. NELSON,

We have not time to publish an Extra, but an express has just arrived from General Brock, with advices, that on the 15th inst. General Hull surrendered, with 2,500 men, 25 pieces of cannon, and all his stores, to the British arms, without the loss of a man on our side. This is all that has transpired, as the despatches are just gone off to His Excellency, who is at present at the Camp. We congratulate you on this truly glorious news in great haste, and we are very sincerely,
Your most obedient Servants,
The Editors of the Herald.

A more happy commencement of a war than is announced above, has rarely occurred. It is glorious for His Majesty's arms, not destructive of human life, and conducive to peace, the sole object of a war, purely defensive on our part. It is not, however, to be supposed that this one, though signal disaster, will entirely disconcert the views of conquest which the men who rule in the United States have long entertained.—They will not readily, under this disgrace, retire into private life, and leave the affairs of the United States to be conducted by better men. We all see, however, what may be done by judgment, zeal, and activity; and should the army now collected on our own frontiers set a foot on our territory, let us not be surprised by our friends in Upper Canada, and we may be sure of a like glorious result.

We find that the intelligence contained in the Montreal Herald extra, of Sunday last, was originally published at Fort George, Niagara, on the 17th instant.

MONTREAL, August 24.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman of Fort George, to a Gentleman in this City, dated 17th August, 1812.

By accounts received last night, dated Amherstburg, 11th inst. from Colonel Proctor, we are in possession of the most gratifying intelligence from that quarter. The main facts are stated in the [following] enclosed account which was printed here for the information of the Public.—In addition to what appears there, ten boats have been taken from them, on board of which was two wounded men of the 41st, who, poor fellows, were retaken. I consider Hull's situation, and indeed he himself thinks it, most perilous, for Col. Proctor writes a postscript that the Militia, and Indians were flocking in, to go against the unnatural foe, the General has 400 picked men who landed on the 14th. Norton the Indian Chief, had reached with 150 from the Grand River, and it is pretty certain the Indians from Mackinac are near at hand.

"The American officers, prisoners here, state their having 5500 men in Kentucky ready to march, but, I suspect the Kentucky gentlemen will find enough to do in the Indiana Territory. Hull in his despatches complains bitterly of the tardiness of our Enemy's operations on this frontier."

"From what I have seen the enemy are little military in appearance. The disposition of our Militia is good."

P. S.—The Officers wounded are Captain Muir, and Lieut. Sutherland, of the 41st, the latter dangerously in three places.

CONFIRMATION.

HEAD-QUARTERS, SAINT JOHN'S,

25th August, 1812.

GENERAL ORDER.

His EXCELLENCY the Commander of the Forces, has the highest gratification of announcing to the Troops in the British North American Provinces, the surrender of Detroit, on the 16th instant, with 2,500 Americans, prisoners of war, and 25 pieces of ordnance, without the sacrifice of a drop of British blood. This achievement was accomplished by a force not exceeding Regulars and Militia 700 men, and about 400 Indians, led on by Major General Brock, who represents himself as having been most ably supported by Colonel Proctor, and by every officer and non-commissioned officer and private under his command.

A Royal Salute to be fired at Twelve, (one o'Clock at Quebec) on the receipt of this Order.

(Signed) EDWARD BAYNES,

Adjutant-General.
