

PARIS, FEBRUARY 13.

His Serene Highness the Prince Arch-Chancellor of the Empire [Cambaceres] this day took his seat as President of the Senate; and directed one of the Secretaries to read the following CONCORDAT, which was signed at Fontainebleau the 25th January, between His Majesty the Emperor and King, and Holiness Pius VII.

CONCORDAT.

His Majesty the Emperor and King, and his Holiness, desirous to terminate the differences which have existed between them, and to remove the difficulties which have arisen in several affairs of the Church have agreed to the following articles, to serve as the basis of a definitive arrangement.

Art. 1. His Holiness shall exercise the Pontificate in France and in the kingdom of Italy, in the same manner, and with the same forms as his predecessors.

2. The Ambassadors, Ministers, Charge d'Affairs of power near the Holy Father, and the ambassadors, ministers or charge d'Affairs of the Pope with Foreign Powers, shall enjoy the immunities and privileges which are enjoyed by other members of the Corps Diplomatique.

3. The dominions which were possessed by the Holy Father, and which have not been alienated, shall be exempt from every species of impost; and shall be administered by his agents or charge d'Affairs. Those which have been alienated shall be restored, paying a composition of two millions of francs revenue.

4. Within six months following the usual notification of the nomination by the Emperor of the Arch-bishops and bishops of the Empire and of the kingdom of Italy, the Pope shall ordain them, agreeably to the Concordats, and in virtue of the present indult. Previous information of which shall be given by the Metropolitan Archbishop. If at the expiration of six months, the Pope shall not have given the ordination the Metropolitan shall proceed to the ordination of the bishop named, in the usual manner.

5. The Pope shall nominate, in France or in Italy, to ten bishoprics, as shall ultimately be agreed upon in concert.

6. The six suburbicaine bishoprics are re-established:—They shall be nominated by the Pope. Their remaining effects shall be restored; and they shall take measures respecting those which have been sold. On the death of the bishops of d'Avigne and Rieti, their dioceses shall be united to the six bishoprics, agreeably to an agreement between his Majesty and the Holy Father.

7. In regard to the bishops of the Roman States, absent from their dioceses from circumstances, the Holy Father shall exercise in their favor the privilege he has a right to bestow on them salaries equal to those which they have formerly enjoyed, and they shall be nominated to places as they become vacant in the Empire or in the kingdom of Italy.

8. His Majesty and his Holiness shall concert measures at a suitable time, for the reduction to be made, if necessary, in the bishoprics in Tuscany and the Genoese countries, as also for the bishoprics to be established in Holland and the Hanseatic departments.

9. The Propagande, the Penitencerie, and the Archives shall be established in the place where the Holy Father shall sojourn.

10. His Majesty grants a free pardon to all the Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, Laics, who have incurred censure in consequence of events.

11. The Holy Father agrees to the foregoing dispositions in consequence of the existing state of the Church; and in the confidence which His Majesty inspires him, that he will give powerful protection to the numerous wants of Religion in the times in which we live.

NAPOLÉON. PIUS VII.

Fontainebleau, January 25, 1813.

THE ROYAL GAZETTE.

SAINT JOHN, MONDAY, APRIL 26, 1813.

Arrived, Tuesday, an American schooner, prize to His Majesty's brig Emulous.

Sailed this morning, His Majesty's Brig Nova-Scotia, with Transport Ship Nautilus, and the West-India Fleet, under Convoy for Halifax.

Since our last we have been favored, with a Newburyport Paper of the 13th inst. from which we have copied the following:

ATTACK ON LEWISTOWN.

WATCH-MAN OFFICE, Wilmington, (Del.) 8th April, 1813.

The following important intelligence was received this morning by express from Dover.

Dover, 7th April, 1813.

Dear Sir—The following are copies of two despatches received, the one at 3 o'clock, and the other at 6 o'clock this morning, by the Governor from Col. Davis, commanding at Lewistown. You will no doubt give them immediate publicity. S. H. BLACK.

Head-Quarters, at Lewis, April 6, 1813.

Sir—This evening the Belvidera and two small vessels came close into Lewis, and commenced an attack, by firing several 32 pound shot into the town, which we have picked up; after which a flag was sent, to which the following reply was returned.

Sir—In reply to the renewal of your demand, with the addition for a "supply of water," I have to inform you that neither can be complied with. This, Sir, you must be sensible of; therefore I must insist the attack on the inhabitants of this town is both wanton and cruel.

I have the honor to be, Your most obedient servant, S. H. DAVIS, Col. Commandant.

Head-Quarters, at Lewis, April 6, 1813.

Sir—Since the reply to Com. Beresford's letter, which I communicated to you by express, I received the following about 4 o'clock.

Belvidera, off the village of Lewis, &c.

Sir—No dishonor can be attached in complying with the demand of Sir John Beresford to Lewis, in consideration of his superior force.

I must therefore consider your refusal to supply the squadron with water, and the cattle that the neighborhood affords most cruel upon your part, to its inhabitants. I grieve for the distress, the women and children are reduced to, by your conduct, and earnestly desire they may be instantly removed.

I have the honor &c. to be, Sir, your most obedient servant, R. BYRON, Captain.

N. B. The cattle will be honorably paid for. S. B. DAVIS, Esq. Colonel Commandant.

To which I have returned the following reply verbally—"That Col. Davis is a Gallant man and has already taken care of the ladies."

The attack immediately commenced, and continued till near 10 o'clock. The fire from our battery silenced one of their most dangerous gun boats, against which I directed the fire from our 18 pounder for which I request you will immediately send me a supply of shot and powder. They have not succeeded with their bombs in reaching the town. And the damage from their 32 pounders and canister, cannot be ascertained till day light.

I hope sir, in this affair you will find the honor of the state has not been tarnished.

I have the honor to be, sir, &c. N. B. While writing the above the enemy has recommenced firing.

S. B. DAVIS, Colonel Commandant.

Joseph Haslett.

A letter that accompanied the above despatch says, that the governor had that moment left Dover for Head Quarters, to superintend the movements of the militia, all of whom were determined to sacrifice every thing rather than treasonably submit to the demands of the enemy. The Belvidera lies within less than 2 miles of the town.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 6, MISSION TO RUSSIA.

We can now state with confidence, that Mr. Gallatin is going to Russia! This has been reported two or three days and was not believed; but a gentleman has stated here, that Mr. Gallatin positively told him so yesterday.

Mr. Jonathan Russel has arrived here from Baltimore; he says Mr. Crawford is certainly going to France.

Nothing has been done in furtherance of the LOAN since Mr. Gallatin arrived in this city; and I think it probable that he has mentioned the circumstance of his mission to Russia, in hopes it will aid him in the business.

On the 8th inst. departed this life (after a long and painful conflict which she sustained with truly exemplary and christian fortitude) Mrs. MARGARET DE VEBER, of Burton, wife of GABRIEL DE VEBER, Esq. High Sheriff of the County of Sunbury. Mrs. DE VEBER was the third daughter of the late Doctor Nathaniel Hubbard, of Stamford, in His Majesty's late province of Connecticut—the qualities of her heart and mind were such as to render her loss a severe one to all her family, and it will be sincerely deplored by a numerous circle of friends, to whom the amiable, cheerful and benevolent traits of her character had endeared her throughout life. Her remains were interred on Saturday the 10th inst. in the Church-yard of the parish of Mangerville, and most respectfully attended.

NOTICE FROM LLOYD'S.

It is much to be desired that Masters of Vessels, on their arrival in any port, should report themselves to the Agents for Lloyd's, and give an account from their log-books, of all cruizers or other vessels that they may have seen or spoken with, or any other occurrences that may have happened in the course of their voyage. By this means, intelligence might frequently be communicated to the Committee, valuable to the Subscribers to Lloyd's, gratifying to individuals, and important to the public. At the same time, the Masters would obtain the best information on every subject connected with the interests of their owners; and those who put into any intermediate port would be apprized of the first opportunities of proceeding under convoy to the place of their destination, or have an application for convoy made by the Agent, if no convoy was actually appointed.

SIGNALS.

The importance of giving Vessels in distress upon the Coast the necessary assistance with the least possible delay, is sufficiently obvious; and with this view the following set of Signals has been framed as the medium of communication between Merchant Vessels and the Agents for Lloyd's, by using which, as the case may require, instead of hoisting the usual signal of distress, ships may at once explain their wants, and receive the requisite assistance from the Agents for Lloyd's, to whom these Signals are to be considered as being exclusively addressed. This plan was originally suggested by Mr. J. M. Brackenbury, Agent at Liverpool; submitted to the consideration of the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House, and afterwards laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, who have sanctioned it with their approbation, and have been pleased to direct their Signal Officers at the different stations on the Coast to repeat these Signals, for the more speedy information of the Agents for Lloyd's, who are instructed by the Committee in all cases immediately to send off the articles required.

For an Anchor—A pendant at the fore-top-mast head.

For a cable—A Jack at the main-top-mast head.

For an Anchor and Cable—Both the above signals.

For Hands—Ensign Union down at the fore-top-mast head.

For Hands and Boats—Ensign Union up at the fore-top-mast head.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have requested the Committee to take measures for preventing Masters of Merchant Vessels from using any of the Signals of His Majesty's ships, and declared their determination to institute proceedings against those persons who may in future continue a practice, attended with so much inconvenience to the service, and by which they subject themselves to very serious consequences. Lloyd's, September, 1812.

The last Subscription Assembly will be on Wednesday evening next—By Order of the Managers. St John, April 26, 1813.
