

The American privateer America on the 20th Dec. and ordered to the U. States.—About 15 days since she lost her foremast and bowsprit. On Sunday the 19th ult. the Cossack fell in with her, and brought her into this port. For nearly a month, the only subsistence of the crew of the Thistle was figs and wine.

Thursday, H. M. B. Charybdis, Capt. Clephane, from New-London. Yesterday, brig William, Fullerton, St. Thomas, 29 days. This morning, H. M. S. Pomone, Capt. Lamley, Bermuda, 7 days. Also, Ship Rebecca, Pritchard, Bermuda, 10 days—sailed in company with ship Elizabeth, for this place.

The Pomone left at Bermuda, H. M. Ships Tonnant, Surprise, Armide, Leonidas, Iphigenie, Caster, Hebrus, Jasseur, Dotterell, Pandora and Saracen. The brig Francis and Lucy, Creighton, from hence, has arrived at Trinidad. The schooner Eliza, Stenwick, for New-Brunswick, cleared out at Grenada the 11th ult.

The Walsingham, packet, with the January mail, from Falmouth, arrived at Barbados on the 12th ult. She sailed on the 12th January, the same day the Lady Wellington did for this place.—We fear some accident has happened to the latter.

We understand that Rear-Admiral GRIFITH, will shortly leave this place for Bermuda, and that immediately on his arrival there, Sir ALEXANDER COCHRANE, will sail, in H. M. S. Tonnant, for England.

We have been favored with a Bermuda paper of the 16th inst. brought by the Pomone, from which we have made the following extracts:

BERMUDA, March 16.
Entered, British ships Rambler, Sisk, from Cork; Elizabeth, M'Dougal; Princess Royal, Weir; Onyx, Walker; Essex, Ford; Margaret, Allen; George, Pickthall; Hope, Martin; Loyal Sam, Graham; Henry, Hepburn; Fame, Parent; Friends, Howell; Alexander, Clark; Rebecca, —; Planet, Mitchell; Comet, Gillies; Alcyon, Simpson; brigs—Fairfield, Elias; James, Ross; James, —; American schrs.—Maris, Geer, N. York; Franklin, Ward, Baltimore; Tackahoo, —, Wilmington; Torpedo, —, Baltimore.

Cleared, British schrs. Ann, Bredford, Barbados; Tyro, Hinson, Turk's Island; Swedish brig Phoenix, Whittier; brig Retriever, Hutchinson, Liverpool; schooner Industry, do.
Arrived, several prizes.

We feel it due to ourselves to notice a paragraph which has appeared in the National Intelligencer, stating, that having published an incorrect statement of the capture of the President, we had afterwards made an apology.

This assertion we take the earliest opportunity of contradicting; the publication alluded to in the Intelligencer, was issued under an erroneous impression, that the account we gave of the concealment of the men on board the President, was incorrect, and we hastened to recall an aspersion which we were induced to believe was unfounded. Subsequently we have ascertained, that the original statement was correct; and we do not hesitate unequivocally to declare, upon the best authority, that sixty-eight men were concealed on board the President, and from other information we have obtained, are convinced the act was authorized by Commodore Decatur.

A piece of Plate having been voted Capt. Hope, and a Goblet to the officers of the Endymion, by the inhabitants of St. George, the following address was transmitted him by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Capt. H. HOPE,

Sir,
In behalf of the Magistrates, Merchants, and many of the Inhabitants of St. George, we beg leave to address you.—We have seen, Sir, the ship you command, and her prize, the United States' Frigate President, captured after an arduous chase and hard fought action of two hours and an half; and to have seen them in their present state, is to be convinced of the gallantry and good conduct of yourself and ship's company.

It has proved too, what we never doubted, that an American frigate of the largest class, is no match for a British ship like the Endymion.

This address is not meant to convey any extraordinary gratulation.—You have done no more than we were prepared to expect, but indeed with much less loss than was to be apprehended; for we all know that the spirit of America emanates from the spirit of England. Permit us to add, that your modesty after victory, and your delicate treatment of a conquered enemy, have been no less conspicuous than your valour.

Accept from us, as a proof of our esteem of your conduct during and after the action, a piece of Plate—which, while it commemorates your victory, bears with it our desire of peace with America.

To the officers of the Endymion's Gun-Room, we beg, through you, to present a Goblet as a mark of our esteem for their gallantry on this occasion, and to be attached to any ship which may hereafter bear the gallant name of Endymion.

ANSWER.
H. M. S. ENDYMION,
Bermuda, March 7, 1815.

SIR,
I have received the very flattering Address from the Magistrates, Merchants, and many of the Inhabitants of St. George, communicating their distinguished approbation of my conduct, and the Endymion's Officers and Ship's Company in the late action.

In accepting this handsome mark of your esteem, if any thing could add to my satisfaction, it is the high opinion entertained by so respectable a Committee. In the name of the Officers, I beg to express how deeply they feel the effect of this mark of your approbation, and in both instances it will ever be proudly preserved.

I am, Sir, your most obedient humble servant,
H. HOPE.

Hon. Edward Goodrich,
Chairman of the Committee of Merchants, Saint George.
