

enna of the 15th, coming from a good source, announce that the Sovereigns are now agreed upon the great questions of Poland and Saxony. Russia restores to Prussia a part of Poland containing 1,500,000 inhabitants, & exchanges another part for some of the Austrian possessions in Poland. By means of these arrangements, the king of Saxony recovers his dominions. If these accounts are confirmed, it may be hoped, the business of the Congress will now advance rapidly.

HAMBURG, DEC. 28.—The accounts from Vienna of the 16th inst. which have been brought here by a cruiser, are by no means consoling to the friends of humanity. Discord increased daily. Lord Castlereagh has protested in an energetic note, against the cession of Saxony to Prussia. Prince Metternich has also delivered in a long note fraught with reasoning and detail, in which it is proved that Saxony should be preserved—Russia and Prussia oppose the views of the other Powers, both with regard to Saxony and Poland; that we feel very anxious to know how the Congress at Vienna will terminate.

NEW-YORK, FEB. 13.

CHARLESTON COURIER EXTRA, FEB. 2, 1815.
Extract of a letter dated Ferdinandina, January 20.

"I wrote you this morning—since then there has been an arrival from Maranzas, (Caha) which brings intelligence that Gen. Mina had entered Madrid at the head of 140,000 men—That Ferdinand had abandoned it and proceeded to Badajoz, and shut himself up.—Charles the 1Vth, had sworn to the New Constitution in favor of the People. There is no doubt of its prevailing."

FEBRUARY 16.

POSTSCRIPT.

We are indebted to Mr. Richard Ward, who arrived last evening from New-York, for the Gazette and Mercantile Advertiser of that city of Monday. From them we obtain the following important articles relative to the Treaty of Peace.

We find it stated in addition, that permission to send goods to this country had been refused by the British Government, as it had been determined to wait until the ratification of the treaty by our government was known. The Amelia cargoes, seized in England, have been restored.

NEW-YORK, Feb. 13.—Mr. Baker the bearer of the ratified Treaty, landed yesterday at Gravesend, and reached town last evening.

The Globe, a London paper, of Dec. 27, contains Lord Bathurst's note to the Lord Mayor, dated Dec. 26, announcing the signing of the Treaty of Peace between Great-Britain and the United States, in which he says, "That hostilities will cease as soon as it shall have been ratified by the President of the United States, as well as by the Prince Regent."

The second edition of the Globe, says,— "The Treaty of Ghent was this day ratified by the Prince Regent in Council at Carleton House."

The Globe adds, that the following is understood to be the substance of the Treaty:

1. All discussion of our maritime rights waved on both sides.
2. Mr. Madison does not insist on giving up the prizes captured in retaliation of the Berlin and Milan Decrees.
3. We leave our Indian Allies as we found them in 1812.
4. We give up all our conquests, particularly the Province of Maine. We are, however, permitted to retain the Islands of Passamaquoddy Bay, which were ours by the treaty of 1793 [1783.]
5. Commissioners to be appointed on both sides whether there shall be any and what safe and practicable communication between Quebec and Upper-Canada, together with all other questions of Territory.
6. We are to be allowed the exclusive enjoyment of the right of fishing on our own coasts at Newfoundland, and of trading to our own settlements in the East-Indies.

"In this description of the Treaty, (observes the Globe) we read the humiliation of ministers in every line."

Extract of a note to Messrs. Lang & Turner, from a gentleman who had conversed with the bearer of the Treaty.

"Peace was concluded on the 24th Dec. and ratified on the 28th, by the Prince Regent—the terms highly honourable to America. Affairs remain as they were before the war. Not an inch of territory ceded. The negotiations flagged until the great victory of Macdonough, which gave a spur to the Ministers of England. I may add that the destruction of Washington was a happy event for this country. It united the whole continent in expressing their abhorrence of such savage warfare; and a Paris paper goes so far as to say, each of their capitals had in turn been in possession of an enemy, but all therein was respected; and Paris was not burnt because England had not the sole command.

The negotiation had nearly been broken off by the British insisting upon holding possession of the Islands in the Penobscot, until the point should be settled by arbitration.—This was finally agreed to.

Great-Britain says she will debar us from the privilege of drying our fish on their territory, which if acted upon will draw from us the prevention of their trade to the Mississippi.

SAINT JOHN, THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1815.

We have accounts from Bermuda to the 15th inst. brought by the brig Ida, Capt. SIMONDS.—The loss of the British in the affair of New-Orleans, from thence, is stated at from 1100 to 1300, in killed, wounded and prisoners.—We also learn, that the Statira frigate had arrived at Bermuda from the Mississippi, for the purpose of procuring reinforcements; and that another attack against the forces under General JACKSON was expected shortly to take place.

The "Boston Repertory" of Feb. 14, says—"The news of Peace between this Country and Great-Britain, has been received here with every demonstration of joy. By order of the Selectmen, the bells were rung through the day. All the mercantile streets and wharves were profusely ornamented with flags; all business was suspended, and nothing was heard but rejoicing and acclamation.

In the evening, the Exchange Coffee-House, all the Printing offices, and many other buildings in Congress-street, and many houses in different parts of the town, were splendidly illuminated.

The day was one of more general and enthusiastic rejoicing than has before occurred within the memory of the inhabitants of the town."

Similar rejoicings have taken place in New-York and many other towns, in celebrating the happy tidings of the return of Peace; and almost all kinds of stock has already been raised 10 or 12 per cent.

A letter from a Gentleman of the first respectability at Moose-Island, to the Editors of this Gazette, bearing date the 27th February, 1815, contains the following PROCLAMATION.

DESPATCHES having been received by Major-General GOSSELIN, Commanding at Castine, from Brigadier-General MILLER, commanding at Boston, enclosing a copy of a letter from the Secretary at War of the United States, intimating that a Treaty of Peace had been concluded between Great-Britain and the United States; that a copy of this Treaty had been examined by the President; that he had no doubt of its being ratified, and instructing the Brigadier-General that hostilities might cease.

The Major-General Commanding therefore, hereby directs a Cessation of Hostilities to take place between the Troops of his Britannic Majesty under his command, and those of the United States.

Given under my hand at Castine, this 23d day of February, 1815.
(Signed) G. GOSSELIN, Maj. Gen. Com.

CAPTURE of the UNITED STATES FRIGATE PRESIDENT.

All the particulars of this transaction, will be found under the Bermuda head, in the preceding columns.
