TO THE PUBLIC.
THE SUBSCRIBER begs leave to inform the PUBLIC, that she has now the sole conduct and management of this Paper, aided only by the exertions of her Son.—Under these circumstances she ventures to throw herself on their protection, with a grateful sense of their past kindness. And while she assures them that no pains shall be spared on her part to render the Paper worthy of a continuance of their support, she cherishes a hope that she may still be favored with that indulgent encouragement which cannot fail to animate her exertions in their service, and which it is ever grateful to generous Patrons to bestow.—As their smiles will in this instance tend to relieve the necessities of the Widow, and to foster the industry of the fatherless, she feels a just confidence that these considerations will not lessen her claim to the public favor.
