THE GAZETTE.

BY HIS HONOR
MAJOR GENERAL
GEORGE STRACEY SMYTH,
President, and Commander in Chief of the
L. S. Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c.
G. S. SMYTH.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by Act of Parliament passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Power is given to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of this Province, with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, to allow the importation of certain enumerated articles from the United States of America into this Province, for the purpose of re-exporting the same: I have therefore thought fit with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, to publish this Proclamation, hereby authorising and empowering British Subjects, for the space of six months from the date hereof, to import and bring into this Province from the United States of America, in British built Ships or Vessels, owned and navigated according to Law; Scantling, Planks, Staves, Heading-Boards, Shingles, Hoops or Squared Timber of any sort; Horses, Neat-Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, or Live Stock of any sort; Bread, Biscuit, Flour, Peas, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Rice, Oats, Barley, or Grain of any sort; and British Subjects during the same period, are hereby authorised and empowered to Export in British Ships, owned and navigated as aforesaid, all or any of the said hereinafter enumerated articles, to any other of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations.

GIVEN under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton the eighteenth day of December, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Honor's Command,

Wm. F. ODELL.

Extract from the Act for the organization and regulation of the Militia of this Province.---Passed the 7th March, 1816.

V. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of inspecting and improving the Militia in martial exercise, the Commander-in-Chief may at such convenient season of the year as he may judge fit, interfering as little as possible with seed time and Harvest, order out and keep each Battalion together, or in divisions within their respective Districts, one day in each year: Provided always, That no person shall be required to travel more than thirty miles from his usual place of residence to attend the training of the Battalion or the division thereof to which he may belong.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Battalion except those above fifty years of age shall be called out and rendezvous by Companies two days in every year, interfering as little as possible with seed time and Harvest for the purpose of disciplining and improving in martial exercises, the times and places of such rendezvous to be appointed by the Commanding Officer of the Battalion, and arranged on different days, or in such manner that the Field and Staff Officers may have an opportunity of attending the several Companies in order to introduce uniformity in the manoeuvres and discipline of the Battalion, and the Commanding Officer of any Battalion may assemble any two or more of the Companies together as he may judge expedient: Provided, That no Company shall be obliged to go more than twelve miles from the usual place of rendezvous of such Company.

VII. And be it further enacted, That notice of the times and places appointed for assembling the Militia by Battalions or divisions thereof, or by Companies as aforesaid, shall be given in writing by the Captains or Officers commanding Companies, who shall cause such notice to be posted up by a Non-commissioned Officer ten days before the respective times of meeting, in some of the most public and conspicuous places within the several Companies, which notification shall be deemed a sufficient warning: Provided, That notice to the inspecting Officer shall in all cases be deemed sufficient without such notice in writing.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Non-Commissioned Officer and Private, who shall neglect to appear at any Battalion or Company muster agreeable to the provisions of this Act, shall be liable to a fine of ten shillings, for each and every day that he shall so neglect to appear, and every non-commissioned officer and Private, who after having appeared at any Battalion or Company muster, shall at any time during the said days herein before required of him to attend, be absent from his Battalion or Company without leave from his Commanding Officer, shall for each and every time that he shall be so absent without leave, be liable to a fine of ten shillings.

Provided always, That no excuse shall be admitted for non-attendance except sickness or lameness of the Individual to prevent his attendance or extreme illness, of some part of his Family, or detention by unforeseen and unavoidable circumstances, to be manifest by legal proof given on the part of the delinquent: and, Provided also, that Persons other than substitutes who shall have been embodied and on actual service for the space of twenty days, and also persons who shall have procured substitutes to perform such actual service, shall not be required to attend any such Battalion or Company muster, during the same year in which such actual service shall have been performed.

The other parts of this Law are similar to the former Law.
