Casualties—On Sunday last, as Mr. Samuel Scott, of Musquash, was conveying one of his Sons to this City, in order to put him to school, he unfortunately fell from the horse on which he rode and broke his arm, upon which Mr. Scott returned to Musquash—When within about 6 miles of home he was met by a messenger, who was sent to inform him that his eldest Son, about nine years of age, had been drowned but a little while previous.—What adds to this distressing narrative, is, that Mr. Scott buried his wife only the Sunday previous.
