

Pittsfield, (M) May 31.
Worthy the attention of Farmers.
DEW—“An experiment,” says Mr. Lavington, “has been made to ascertain the difference between dew water and rain water—by putting an equal quantity of each in different vessels and setting them in the sun to dry away; the result was, that the sediment or settlings of the dew water, were in greater quantity, blacker and richer, than that of the rain water.”
 Dew is therefore fertilizing; and this is the reason why lands will be so greatly benefitted, by being repeatedly ploughed when the dew is on them.

London, Dec. 28.—An elopement has recently taken place, which has involved in deep distress in several noble and highly honourable families. The lady is young, and beautiful, the mother of several children, and wife of a distinguished officer. The gallant is old enough to be her grandfather; a married man, high in the peerage, and of large fortune.

London, January 30.—It appears by the daily Bulletins, that the Prince Regent recovers very slowly from his gouty attack, and is still inconvenienced by some of the usual consequences of that painful disorder.

On Sunday a Cabinet Council was held at the Foreign Office. Another Cabinet was held yesterday, at two o'clock, at the same place, which was attended by all the Cabinet Ministers in London, for the purpose of arranging the Regent's Speech, to be submitted to the Prince in Council, this day at Brighton.

The post occupied at Paris by the National Guard and the troops of the line, have been considerably augmented during the two last days.

Gen. Belair has been arrested, and conducted to the Abbaye.

Generals Drouot, Debelle, and Cambronne, who are soon to be put on their trials, have been for some days in close confinement.

General Pire, who is comprised in the first list of the Ordinance of the 24th of July, was arrested in Paris on Monday.

Cassel, Jan. 20.—The differences between Austria and Bavaria appears to be very serious.

Extract from a Charleston Paper.
 Arrived ship Clearborn, from Canton, Capt. Benjamin, who informs that a report, which was credited, had just been received, that Bonaparte who had for some time past been amusing himself and suit with fireworks, air Balloons, &c. and on a remarkable fine day in the beginning of January, he said he would step in and ascend himself; when to the astonishment of the beholders the Balloon departed to a great height, and gradually took its course to the Southward till it became imperceptible and had not been since heard of.—Whether this unaccountable man has taken his flight to Heaven, or descended into the bosom of the deep, human nature is at a loss to conjecture, but the Southern part of the United States, think he will be heard of in the South of France.
