PROVINCIAL VACCINE INSTITUTION—NEW-BRUNSWICK.

AS it appears, that, notwithstanding the anti-variolous properties of the Cow-pox have long since been established beyond all doubt, the practice of Vaccination has frequently been neglected in the Province of New-Brunswick; and that some obstacles have prevented its general use: the formation of a Public Institution, with a view of obviating those difficulties, and averting the calamities which are to be expected from the prevalence of Small-pox, cannot fail to be attended with the most beneficial effects.

In a country where the Small-pox has rarely been known, and where there exist some thousands who have no security against its attacks, the extent of the evil which might result from the casual introduction of this disease, is scarcely calculable; and the hazard to which the community is exposed from this source, owing to the vast concourse of emigrants arriving in the Province, recent occurrences render sufficiently obvious.

A Vaccine Institution is, therefore, now formed under the auspices of His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and the Members of His Majesty's Council, with a Committee at each station, for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of the Institution.

PATRONS OF THE INSTITUTION. His Excellency the Lieut. Governor. The Members of His Majesty's Council. FREDERICTON COMMITTEE. The Hon. J. Odell, Thomas Wetmore, Esq. Rev. J. Somerville. William F. Odell, Esq. ST. JOHN COMMITTEE. His Worship the Mayor. William Blick, Esq. Rev. George Pidgeon. Rev. George Burns, D. D. Alexander Boyle, Esq. Surgeon to His Majesty's Forces, and Secretary to the Institution.

ST. ANDREW'S AND MOOSE ISLAND COMMITTEE. Robert Pagan, Esq. Rev. S. Andrews.

The Commandant of Moose Island. STATIONS OF VACCINATING SURGEONS.

St. John—J. Head, Esq. Surgeon. Day of attendance, Saturday, 12 o'clock. Fredericton & Vicinity—Surgeon Barnard, 98th Regt. William Woodford, Esquire, Surgeon. Day of attendance, Monday, 12 o'clock.

St. Andrews and Moose Island—Assistant Surgeon Bett, 98th Regt. Day of attendance, Wednesday, 12 o'clock.

REGULATIONS.

It is proposed that this Institution shall be attended with no expence to the Public. The Vaccinating Surgeons at each Station will keep a register of the names, age, and residence of those Vaccinated, with the result of each case; and a Quarterly Report will be transmitted by them to the Secretary to the Institution, for the purpose of being laid before the Committees, and published in the Gazette.

Vaccination will be performed gratis, and the days of attendance for this purpose will be once a week, as above mentioned, unless, for general convenience they may be hereafter altered by the Committee, of which public notice shall be given.

No other conditions are required from persons Vaccinated than regular attendance on the days appointed, until the progress and character of the Vaccine pustule be ascertained;—a circumstance of the greatest importance, in order to prevent the introduction of a spurious disease.

Charges of Vaccine Lymph will be furnished to Country Practitioners, free of expence; who are requested only to send lists to the Secretary, of the persons Vaccinated agreeably to the manner above directed.

ALEX. BOYLE, Secretary to the Institution.

LONDON, August 1.

We have inserted in another part of this Paper an extract from some American papers, respecting a part of the Boundary Line of the United States, in which there is evidently an attempt to hold forth misrepresentations on a subject which is perfectly clear to all those who have no interests but those of truth and the preservation of cordiality between this Country and America. In answer to the statements in the American Boston Intelligencer of the 14th June, and other American Papers, we may venture to affirm, that there is no truth in the assertion that the Northern Boundary between the King's Colonies in North America and the United States, "has been considered as established for forty years." It is only necessary to remark that the Treaty between the two Countries took place in 1783 and that Mr. Justice Marshall, in his life of General Washington, published long afterwards, states, that scarcely had the American War terminated, when Great Britain and the United States charged each other with having violated the Treaty of Peace; and that on the construction of it, as to the Boundaries claimed by the U. States there existed great difference of opinion. In confirmation of this fact we can refer confidentially to the published Official Correspondence between the two Countries in 1799 and 1803; and we are only induced to notice this subject, as it were in limine, to caution the Public from giving any credence to this attempt on the part of the Eastern States to create jealousies between the two nations. We are well aware of their inclination to lessen, in the estimation of Americans in general, the advantages which the Union has general, by the late Treaty with this Country but we trust that the American Government will not be swayed by inferior considerations, especially those which must influence the Legislatures of the Eastern States, but that the President will adhere strictly to the late Treaty, which has been established on terms so highly advantageous to the GENERAL INTERESTS of the United States.

AUGUST 10.

The Paris Papers of Wednesday last have been received. The King's health continues to improve, as he has been making excursions in the vicinity of Paris. Count de Rechberg, the new Bavarian Ambassador, has been introduced to his Majesty. A dispatch has been received at Madrid from Morilla, in Venezuela, but it contains nothing new being only of the date of April the 19th. The Spanish Provinces are said to be greatly infested with robbers. The relations of Spain and Russia are said to be of the most friendly description. There is a report of some exchanges of territory between Austria, Bavaria, and Baden. A new promotion of Cardinals is spoken of at Rome, which, it is supposed, will include several French prelates. The Royal Court of Thoulouse have sentenced a man and woman to six months imprisonment for adultery; the former is also to pay a fine of three hundred francs. Great ravages are committed in different parts of France by wolves. On the 16th of June there was a dreadful hail storm in the arondissement of Tonnerre. Monsieur, Madame, and the Duke of Angouleme, have made handsome donations to the sufferers. Eleven pirates have been hanged successively at Constantine; each was hung up three days so that the infliction of punishment lasted 33 days. Private letters afford expectations of the acquittal of M. M. Comte and Dunoyer and add that the vacancies in the French episcopal sees are likely to be filled. Archbishop Talleyrand Perigord, Duke of Rheims, it is mentioned is appointed to the See of Paris.

The system adopted by Mrs. Fry and the association which she has formed for reclaiming and improving the condition of the female prisoners in Newgate, has been emi-
