His Excellency the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR has received the following Order in Council, and publishes the same by direction of the Right Honourable Earl BATHURST, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies.

By Command of His Excellency,
H. H. CARMICHAEL,
Dep. Sec.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 27th May, 1818, Present His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six months after the commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, the Importation into Ports specially appointed by His Majesty, within the Provinces of Nova-Scotia and New-Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the Re-exportation thereof from such Ports," it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the Subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into and export from such Ports within the Province of Nova-Scotia or New-Brunswick as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the Subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the Port of Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, and the Port of Saint John, in New-Brunswick, any Scantling, Planks, Staves, Heading-boards, Shingles, Hoops, Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, or live Stock of any sort, Bread, Biscuit, Flour, Pease, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Rice, Oats, Barley or Grain of any sort, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Fruits, Seeds, and Tobacco: Provided that such articles shall in all cases where the same shall be imported in Foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong: And that it shall be lawful, in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said Ports, any of the said articles, either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, That it shall and may be lawful in any British built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the Subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the Ports of Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, and Saint John, in New-Brunswick, any Gypsum, Grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said Provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever which shall have been legally imported into the said Provinces: Provided, that none of the said articles shall be exported from the Ports above named, to any Foreign Country or Place, in any Foreign vessel, unless such Foreign vessel shall belong to the Country to which the said articles shall be exported: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. (Signed) JAS. BULLER.

FREE PORT ACT.

[MAY 8, 1818.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the 47th year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting until the 25th day of March, 1809, and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament, the importation of certain enumerated Articles into the British Colonies on the Continent of North America, from the United States of America, and the exportation of other enumerated Articles from the same Colonies to the said States," which said Act was continued and extended by an Act, passed in the 49th year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to authorise His Majesty to permit, until the 25th day of March, 1812, any Goods and Commodities to be imported into and exported from Nova-Scotia and New-Brunswick, in any ship or vessel whatsoever," which last mentioned Act was continued by an Act, passed in the 52d year of His Majesty's reign, sundry Articles were allowed to be imported into and exported from, certain Ports in His Majesty's Colonies of Nova-Scotia and New-Brunswick, from and to certain foreign ports, which Acts have now expired:—And whereas, great advantage resulted to the said Colonies, from the facilities given to the Trade therefore by the said Acts; And whereas, it is expedient to grant similar facilities at the present time;—Be it therefore Enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful in any BRITISH built ship or vessels, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the Subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into such Ports as shall be specially appointed for that purpose by His Majesty, within the Province of Nova-Scotia or New-Brunswick, the following Articles, viz. Scantlings, Planks, Staves, Heading-boards, Shingles, Hoops, Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, or Live Stock of any sort; Bread, Biscuit, Flour, Peas, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Rice, Oats, Barley, or Grain of any sort; Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Fruits, Seeds and Tobacco.

II. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and be it further enacted, That none of the aforesaid Articles shall be imported into the said Ports, so to be specially appointed, in foreign vessels, unless the said Articles shall be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to re-export any of the said Articles either to the United Kingdom, or to any other of His Majesty's possessions, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful in any British ship or vessel, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sov. or State in amity with his Majesty, to export from the said Ports, so to be appointed for that purpose, Gypsum, Grindstones, or other produce or manufacture of the said Provinces, and also, any produce or manufacture of the U. Kingdom, or of His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in the West-Indies, or any Goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said Provinces, any thing in any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. PROVIDED always, and be it further enacted, that none of the aforesaid Articles shall be exported from the said ports, so to be appointed, to any Foreign country or place in any Foreign vessel, unless such Foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to make such rules and regulations for the Importation and Exportation of Goods and Commodities as aforesaid, at the said ports, with such penalties and forfeitures for the breach thereof, as shall seem fit and necessary to his Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during the space of three years from and after the passing of the same; and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.
