

POETRY.

From the Dedham Gazette.

EVENING.

How sweet, as evening's pensive hours, To watch the day declining...

'Tis then that contemplation soars Above earth's fleeting visions, And calmly views those peaceful shores...

DEATH.

SEEST thou yon eypress wildly wave, In mournful gloom o'er beauty's grave?

See'st thou those flowers that wildly bloom, And shed their sweets on beauty's tomb?

See'st thou yon rising mound of earth? Approach, and soon will cease thy mirth.

Tread softly on the hallowed ground; Some friendly spirits hover round...
