NATIONAL MONUMENT
TO THE
Memory of Her Royal Highness
THE LATE
PRINCESS CHARLOTTE OF WALES
AND SAXE-COBURG.

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of YORK

Having graciously condescended to allow Mr. MATTHEW WYATT to name her the Patroness of his plan for raising a Cenotaph to the Memory of the late beloved and lamented Princess, public Subscriptions are solicited for this desired object.

The generous spirit of the British public, which has ever shewn itself ready at the call of patriotism in the hour of victory to perpetuate the memory of the brave, is now called upon in the hour of mourning, by the voice of affection and disappointed hope, to perpetuate that of exalted virtue and departed worth.

To make the offering as general as the feeling of sorrow is sincere, no sum exceeding One Guinea will be received from any one Subscriber; whilst the smallest sum, as a tribute of respect, will be accepted.

The Cenotaph will be erected on some public spot, and should sufficient funds be raised, the Temple which is to contain the Monumental Group, will be constructed so that it may be appropriated to the purposes of Divine Worship, and constituted a Free Church; thus making it, in style, magnitude, as well as utility, commensurate with the sum subscribed.
