LONDON, Oct. 2.

The health of her Royal Highness the Duchess of Clarence is very much improved since her arrival at Dover Castle. They intend continuing their residence at this place for some weeks longer. Her Royal Highness did not suffer, as was reported, by her late indisposition, so as to remove the hopes, that at no distant period she may give an heir to the British Throne.

OCTOBER 6.

A serious quarrel is said to have arisen out of the Carlsbad conferences between the King of Bavaria and the Elector of Hesse; the former having obtained at Carlsbad the cession of Hanau, and the latter declaring that he will not give up a single village of his territory. It is added, that in consequence of this difference, troops were marching on both sides.

OCTOBER 8.

The most interesting article of foreign news is the result of the conferences at Carlsbad, which has been published in the shape of a series of propositions by the Austrian minister; all these propositions have been adopted by the assembled ministers of the German States.

The election of the Lord Mayor has terminated in a way which illustrates in a very striking manner the diversity of feeling between the members of the Livery and the persons who composed the late Common Halls. Alderman Bridges, who, from the beginning to the end of the election, would not be suffered to address a single sentence to the assembly in Guildhall, was on Wednesday returned by a majority of 1033 over his competitor Alderman Wood.

The Wardmote of the Household of Cheap has been the first assembly to reject the violent resolutions against the magistrates and yeomanry of Manchester, which have been so industriously offered to all the public meetings that could be collected throughout the empire. It is not necessary to assign any auxiliary motive for so plain a duty as this refusal. But it is worthy of observation that this is the first assembly which has tolerated a defence of the Manchester gentlemen. This example has been followed by Westminster. The parish of St. Martin in the Fields has avowed, in a public declaration, its abhorrence of the violence and clamour used to overturn the constitution, and to annihilate the cheering hopes held out by our pure religion to the humble believer. Other parishes will no doubt follow this patriotic example.

The assemblies of the Reformers follow each other in a rapid succession, and take care to report their important proceedings with a prolix minuteness which bids defiance to the limits of a weekly paper; but this like most other inconveniences creates its own remedy; and as the meetings grow frequent, they become monotonous, their interest grows stale, and their reports tedious.

The Committee of 200 are again at work.—We have learnt that they are privately circulating the following hand-bill.—SMITHFIELD THIRD MEETING.

"A most important meeting of the Reformers in the Metropolis will be held in Smithfield on or before Wednesday the 20th instant, of which further notice will be given.

"Unless the friends of Freedom in all parts of the kingdom advance in the cause, their former labours will have been vain.

"They must decide their own fate!!"

but still let them give one imposing evidence throughout Great Britain of their desire and determination to obtain, by peace and good order, a redress of their grievances, and a Reform of Parliament.

"Let them make one more appeal to the Prince.

"A. THISTLEWOOD, Sec'y." Oct. 7, 1819.

By the death of Nicholas Smith, Esq. the valuable appointment of Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery estimated at ten thousand a-year, devolves to the Lord Chancellor; this will be the second if not the third opportunity his Lordship has had of disposing of this office.

HALIFAX, Nov. 29.

Provincial Secretary's Office, Halifax, Nov. 29. 1819.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent having been graciously pleased, in the Name of His Majesty, to appoint His Excellency Lieutenant-General the Earl of DALHOUSIE, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, late Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, to be Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over all His Majesty's Provinces, in North America. His Excellency's Commission was this day publicly read in the Presence of His Majesty's Council, and the Officers of the Army and Navy, assembled in the Council Chamber; the State Oaths, and Oaths appointed by the several Acts of Parliament to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Provinces, and the Oaths of Office, were then administered to His Excellency, who also subscribed the Declaration.

RUPERT D. GEORGE, Secretary.

To His Excellency Lieutenant-General the Right Honorable GEORGE, Earl of DALHOUSIE, Baron Dalhousie of Dalhousie Castle, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Hon. Military Order of the Bath, Capt. General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majesty's Provinces of Lower Canada, Upper Canada, Nova-Scotia, New-Brunswick, and the Islands of Prince Edward and Cape Breton, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency,

HIS MAJESTY'S COUNCIL beg leave to offer you their cordial congratulations upon your Appointment to the exalted and important Trust of Governor-General of His Majesty's North American Dominions.

The ability, impartiality, and integrity, which Your Lordship has evinced in the Administration of the Government of NOVA-SCOTIA, enables us to appreciate the favour which His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has bestowed upon His Majesty's Subjects in North-America, by committing the Charge of their Rights and Interests to your Lordship.

THE unwearied pains which Your Lordship has taken to make yourself acquainted with the state of this Province; the exertions you have made to understand and to advance its best interests; the attention which you have afforded to the applications of all classes of His Majesty's subjects, under your Government, and the readiness with which you have endeavoured to relieve their wants, are certain indications of the benefits which our Fellow Subjects in the Canadas will derive from Your Lordship's immediate superintendance and command.

While we rejoice at every mark of the Royal Favor which is conferred upon a Nobleman so justly entitled to our warmest affections; we lament, that this event will remove Your Lordship from NOVA-SCOTIA, and deprive us of a Governor, under whose Administration we have lived in harmony and happiness. We will not, however, permit our personal feelings to diminish the warmth of our congratulations upon this occasion; and we beg leave to assure Your Lordship, that we shall ever rejoice at any event that may extend your power of doing good, or contribute to your welfare and happiness; and that, wherever
