The following Act of Parliament is published by order of His Excellency the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO NONO GEORGH III. REGIS.

An Act to permit the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, for the Time being, to admit Persons into Holy Orders specially for the Colonies. [2d July 1819.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Archbishops and Bishops of this Realm should from Time to Time admit into Holy Orders Persons specially destined for the Cure of Souls in His Majesty's Foreign Possessions, although such Persons may not be provided with the Title required by the Canon of the Church of England, of such as are to be made Ministers: And whereas it will greatly tend to the Advancement of Religion within the same, that due Provision shall be regularly made for a Supply of Persons properly qualified to serve as Parsons, Vicars, Curates, Chaplains; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York, or the Bishop of London, for the Time being, or any Bishop specially authorized and empowered by any or either of them, to admit into the Holy Orders of Deacon or Priest any Person whom he shall upon Examination deem properly qualified specially for the Purpose of taking upon himself the Cure of Souls, or officiating in any Spiritual Capacity in His Majesty's Colonies or Foreign Possessions and residing therein, and that a Declaration of such Purpose and a written Engagement to perform the same under the Hand of such Person, being deposited in the Hands of such Archbishop or Bishop, shall be held to be a sufficient Title with a View to such Ordination; and that in every such Case it shall be distinctly stated in the Letters of Ordination of every Person so admitted to Holy Orders, that he has been ordained for the Cure of Souls in His Majesty's Foreign Possessions.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person so admitted into the Holy Orders of Deacon or Priest, for the Purpose of taking upon himself the Cure of Souls, or officiating in any Spiritual Capacity in His Majesty's Foreign Possessions, shall be capable of having, holding, or enjoying, or of being admitted to any Parsonage, Vicarage, Benefice, or other Ecclesiastical Promotion or Dignity whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of acting as Curate therein, without the previous Consent and Approbation in Writing of the Bishop of the Diocese under his Hand and Seal in which any such Parsonage, Vicarage, Benefice, or other Ecclesiastical Promotion or Dignity shall be locally situated, nor without the like Consent and Approbation of such one of the said Archbishops, or Bishop of London, by whom, or by whose Authority such Person shall have been originally ordained, or in case of the Demise or Translation of such Archbishop or Bishop, of his Successor in the same See: Provided always, that no such Consent and Approbation shall be given by any such Archbishop, or Bishop of London, unless the Party applying for the same shall first produce a Testimony of his good Behaviour during the Time of his Residence Abroad, from the Bishop in whose Diocese he may have officiated, or in case there be no Bishop, from the Governor in Council of the Colony in which he may have been resident, or from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonial Department.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Person who shall have been admitted into Holy Orders by the Bishops of Quebec, Nova-Scotia, or Calcutta, or by any other Bishop or Archbishop than those of England or Ireland, shall be capable of officiating in any Church or Chapel of England or Ireland without special Permission from the Archbishop of the Province in which he proposes to officiate, or of having, holding, or enjoying, or of being admitted to any Parsonage or other Ecclesiastical Preferment in England or Ireland, or of acting as Curate therein, without the Consent and Approbation of the Archbishop of the Province, and also of the Bishop of the Diocese in which any such Parsonage or Ecclesiastical Preferment or Curacy may be situated.

IV. Provided always, That no Person who after the passing of this Act shall have been ordained a Deacon or Priest by a Colonial Bishop, who at the Time of such Ordination did not actually possess an Episcopal Jurisdiction over some Diocese, District, or Place, or was not actually residing within such Division, District, or Place, shall be capable in any Way, or on any Pretence whatever, of at any Time holding any Parsonage or other Ecclesiastical Preferment within His Majesty's Dominions, or of being a Stipendiary Curate or Chaplain, or of officiating at any Place, or in any Manner, as a Minister of the Established Church of England and Ireland.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Admissions, Institutions, and Inductions to Benefices in the Church of England, or Church of Ireland, and all Appointments to act as Curates therein, which shall be made contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall be to all Intents and Purposes null and void: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to make void any Admission, Institution, or Induction to any Benefice, or any Appointment as Curate, which shall have been made previous to the passing of this Act.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect or to repeal any of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury, or the Archbishop of York for the Time being, to consecrate to the Office of a Bishop, Persons being Subjects or Citizens of Countries out of His Majesty's Dominions.

LONDON, SEPT. 22.

We have received German Papers of recent dates, from which we are glad to learn that measures have at length been adopted in some parts of Germany to punish the ring-leaders in the late cruel outrages committed upon the Jews, and to prevent the recurrence of such scenes so disgraceful to the character of the present age. The persecuting spirit however still operates in many places, and there are some of the public prints of Germany that venture to justify it. Some charges of an encroaching disposition in matters of trade are urged against the Jews, but we are not informed of their precise nature, nor how far they were exposed to existing laws. It would however seem, either that to religious prejudices were added commercial jealousies, or that the populace thought it necessary to bring forward some accusation, however indefinite, of present injury, to give some colouring to their acts of violence.

We have received Paris papers of Sunday last. They are principally occupied with detailing the proceedings of the Radical Reformers in England, and noticing the results of the elections in the several departments of France, now engaged in renewing their deputations. We find, that for the most part, the elections terminate in favour
