ST. JOHN, MAY 26.

Auxiliary Bible Society of New-Brunswick.
ON Thursday last a very numerous and respectable Meeting was held in Mr. CODY'S large room for the purpose of forming an AUXILIARY BIBLE SOCIETY. The Meeting was opened by Dr. BURNS, who stated the principles and object of the proposed Institution, and submitted the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted as the Rules and Regulations of the Society.

1. That the object and constitution of the British and Foreign BIBLE SOCIETY, have the cordial approbation of this Meeting.

2. That a Society be formed, to be called "the Auxiliary Bible Society of New-Brunswick," for the purpose of co-operating with the British and Foreign BIBLE SOCIETY, in promoting the distribution of the Holy Scriptures both at home and abroad.

3. That, conformably to the principles of the Parent Institution, the Bibles and Testaments to be circulated by this Society, shall be without Note or Comment, and those in the Languages of the United Kingdom, of the authorised version only.

4. That all persons subscribing Ten Shillings or upwards per annum; or Five Pounds or upwards at one time, shall be members of this Society.

5. That the business of this Society shall be conducted by a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretary, and a Committee consisting of Twelve other Members of various religious denominations; and that Five Members of this Committee constitute a quorum.

6. That every Clergyman, or other Minister, who is a Member of the Society, shall be entitled to attend and vote at the Meetings of the Committee.

7. That the Committee shall meet once every Quarter, or oftener, on some day to be fixed by themselves.

8. That the Committee divide this City into Districts, and appoint two or more of their Members for each District, who may associate with themselves any Subscribers, for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions and donations from the inhabitants thereof; and that they establish proper Agents and Correspondents in different parts within the limits of this Auxiliary Society.

9. That the whole of the Subscriptions and Donations received by the Society shall be from time to time remitted, after deducting incidental expences, to the Parent Institution, in consideration of the advantages held out to Auxiliary Societies, viz. "That the Committees of such Societies shall be entitled to receive Bibles and Testaments estimated at prime cost to the amount of half the entire sum remitted to the Parent Institution if their local necessities shall require such a supply: and further that the Members of Auxiliary Societies, shall be entitled to the privilege of purchasing from the Depository of such Auxiliary Societies, Bibles and Testaments on the same conditions as the Members of the Parent Institution."

10. That for the purpose of giving full effect to the benevolent design of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in their Grant of the Scriptures for distribution among the poor, the Committee shall make it their business to inquire what families or individuals residing within their several Districts, are in want of Bibles or Testaments and unable to procure them; and that it shall be the duty of the Committee to furnish them therewith at prime cost, reduced prices, or gratis according to their circumstances.

11. That, for the still further promoting of the circulation of the Scriptures, it is expedient to encourage the formation of Branch Societies of such Districts within the sphere of this Auxiliary Society, as may not be sufficiently populous to form Auxiliary Societies of their own; such Branch Societies, and the individual Members thereof, to be entitled to the same privileges from the Auxiliary Society, as it and its individual Members enjoy from the Parent Institution.

12. That such persons as may not find it convenient to become Members of the Auxiliary Society or any one of its Branches, shall, upon forming themselves into Bible Associations be entitled to purchase at the Depository of this Society, under the direction of the Committee, copies of the Scriptures, at prime cost, for gratuitous distribution, or sale at prime cost or reduced prices among their poorer neighbours.

13. That all Clergymen and other Ministers within the sphere of this Society, making Collections in their respective Congregations in behalf of the Institution, shall be entitled, on remitting such Collections to the Treasurer of this Society, to receive Bibles and Testaments to an amount, not exceeding one half of the said respective Collections, estimated at prime cost, as shall be found to be needed by the poor in the vicinity: such return of Bibles and Testaments to be claimed within one year from the remittance of the Collection. It is recommended in this and in all other cases to prefer the supplying the poor by Sale at a low price, rather than by gratis distribution.

14. That a General Meeting of the Society be held annually at Saint John, on a day to be fixed on by the Committee and duly intimated, when the Accounts shall be presented, the proceedings of the past year stated, a new Committee appointed, and a Report agreed upon to be published, under the direction of the Committee.

15. That in the formation of the new Committee, the Treasurer, Secretary, and such three fourths of the other Members as have most frequently attended the Committee, shall be re-eligible for the ensuing year.

It was moved by STEPHEN HUMBERT, Esq. and seconded by Mr. CHARLES SIMONDS, that a copy of these Rules and Regulations, signed by the Chairman, be transmitted to Lord TRIGNMOUTH, President of the British and Foreign Bible Society. Several Gentlemen delivered their sentiments on the occasion, and the greatest unanimity and harmony prevailed. The following persons were elected Office-bearers of the Society.
