DECEMBER 21.

The Public are cautioned against a notorious Swindler, who has been endeavoring to get gold in exchange for base half and quarter dollars, in this City, within the last few

The following letter from a gentleman in Halifax has been politely handed us for publication: - it completely unravels the mysterious conduct of that sleeping stranger and most notorious imposter, Mary-Ann Mussenden, whose singular case we gave an account of in our paper of the 30th ult. which together, will serve as a caution against the many frauds practised on the credulous to excue charity and commisseration:

" Hulifax, Dec. 10, 1819. " I observe by the Saint John papers, Mary Messenden has been paying you a visit. She is quite an imposter --- s e exhi-Lued her tricks in the Baptist Meeting-Liou e at this place ; -- numbers went to see the sleeping lady, but upon a medical gentionian proposing that her head should be shaved, she suddenly awoke, in defence of her auburn locks."

The prescription proposed in the foregoing has been attended to here, but she is now dumb -- Quere, What must be done to cure her of that ?

On the evening of Friday the 14th inst. J. C. F. BREMNER, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest on board the brig Friends of this port, on view of the body of Colin Campbeil, belonging to said vessel, who was accidema ty killed by the wad of a gun, fired (as is customary) upon the loading of the ves-The accident is much deploted by all on board the vessel, and it is expected that it may prove a general caution.
