Caution against Fraud!

BE it known to all Persons in this Province or any other Province wheresoever, that I have been intimated and shown to me by JOSEPH GAYNOR, in Mr. SAMUEL GROSVENOR's shop, a Note, amounting to one hundred and five pounds, written and endorsed by one ROBERT AUSTIN a Quarter-Master-Serjeant in the late 98th, or Prince of Wales Tipperary Regiment, dated 10 October last, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two: Now I protest and disavow the above Note to be neither lawful or negotiable, as I owe the man nothing by any note, bond, contract or agreement whatever, either in money, goods, chattel, &c. &c.—but on the contrary, I could have detained him last Fall, had he not arranged matters with me in Fredericton; as I empowered and made him my lawful Agent on his going home with the Regiment, to receive different sums of money due by the Officers to me, amounting to two hundred and thirty-three pounds, sixteen shillings, and five pence farthing; and I have never received from the said ROBERT AUSTIN, as my Agent, any of the said sum of money now justly due to me: And I further notify the Public, not to give any value or remuneration for the said Note, as I will not be accountable for the same: And I certify this to be a correct statement of the above publication.
