TUESDAY, 16th OCTOBER, 1821.

[Number 33.]

The Gazette.

The following Act passed by the Legislature of the Province of New-Brunswick, in the month of March 1820, is confirmed, finally enacted and ratified, by an order of The KING in Council, dated at the Court at Carlton House the 9th day of June 1821.

AN ACT to alter, and in addition to an Act, intituled an Act for establishing a tender in all payments to be made in this Province.

WHEREAS the passing of the milled Doubloon at the current rate of Four Pounds, although conducive of great benefit, has a tendency while the same is not made a legal tender, and while the Spanish Dollar and other Silver Specie are kept at the present current rates, to diminish the circulating quantity of all other Specie in the Province, and is found to be highly inconvenient—

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That the milled Doubloon, or Four Pistole Piece of Spain, shall pass current and be received and paid for Four Pounds each, and the aliquot parts thereof at a proportionate value, and the Spanish milled Dollars shall pass current and be received and paid for Five Shillings and Fourpence each, and the aliquot parts of said Dollar shall pass current and be received and paid in the like proportion, and the French Five Franc Pieces shall pass current and be received and paid for Five Shillings each.

II. And be it further enacted, That the herein before mentioned Gold and Silver Coins shall be deemed and considered as a legal tender at the rates aforesaid, in all payments of money to be made in this Province, and shall be so adjudged in all Courts of Justice in the same. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to make any Doubloon or part of a Doubloon that may be plugged, a lawful tender, or any Doubloon weighing less than seventeen pennyweights eight grains, or any aliquot part of a Doubloon deficient of proportionate weight, a lawful tender in any case whatever, except at a deduction of twopence farthing for every grain so deficient.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Act made and passed in the twenty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a tender in all payments to be made in this Province," as relates to the Spanish milled Dollars being made current at Five Shillings, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not be in force until His Majesty's Royal approbation be thereunto had and declared.

LONDON, AUGUST 17.

An unusual degree of sensation was produced yesterday, in the City, by the report of very interesting and satisfactory news from Constantinople. We have used every exertion to ascertain the grounds of the report ; but we must candidly acknowledge that our researches leaves us still in doubt as to its accuracy. Several of the principal Merchants trading to the Turkish Capital seem disposed to credit the news, but none of them possess any positive confirmation of it ; and, for our own part, we confess it appears to us rather premature. Such as it is, however, we give it, without vouching for its authenticity.

The rumour was, that an Express had reached town, bringing advices from Constantinople to the 17th of July, at which time a full and confidential communication had been made to the Sublime Porte by the Emperor of Russia. It was stated, that the Emperor had discovered the existence of a secret understanding between Count Capo d'Istria, (who is a Greek by birth,) and Baron Strogonoff, the Russian Envoy at Constantinople ; that the former had conceived certain plans for the independence of Greece, which the latter had engaged to forward without authority to that effect from his Sovereign, and that this was the real secret of that violence evinced by Baron Strogonoff, in the early part of his negotiations with the Porte. The story went on to say, that both Capo d'Istria and Strogonoff had fallen into disgrace, and that the Emperor Alexander had communicated information of all these circumstances to the Grand Seigneur, who, on his part had immediately dispatched a Courier to St. Petersburg with assurances of his anxious desire to do every thing in his power to maintain a good understanding with that Court. Selim is said to have pledged himself that the property of all the Franks throughout his Empire, whether Russians, English, or of any other origin, should meet with perfect protection ; and also to have declared, that though at the breaking out of the Insurrection the rage of the Turkish Inhabitants could not be suppressed, yet measures had effectually been taken since, to prevent the recurrence of similar disorders.

AUGUST 18.

We have received the Royal Gazette of Sierra Leone to the 26th of May. Sunday, the 18th, an American armed schooner, which had been expected for some time, arrived in the harbour of Freetown. She had been purposely built for co-operating in the glorious work of annihilating the Slave Trade, by pursuing more effectually such slave-dealers as escaped the American corvettes by running close to the shore, and going into small rivers where the water did not allow the corvettes to approach them. Shortly after this vessel (which is commanded by a Lieutenant of the American navy) came to anchor, she saluted Fort Thornton with 14 guns, and her salute was returned by an equal number.

Brussels papers to the 15th instant have come to hand. The Duke of Wellington arrived in the city on the 10th, and set out again on the above date to inspect the fortifications of Namur and Charleroy. His Grace has already visited Tournay, Quzenarde, and Ghent.
