the application of Malcolm Wilmot, of the Parish of Moncton, in the County of Westmorland, Esquire, to me duly made pursuant to the directions of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided; I have directed all the Estate as well real as personal, of Thomas Dawson, late of the Parish of Killborough, in the said County of Westmorland, Farmer, (which said Thomas Dawson, hath departed from this Province, with intent and design, to defraud the said Malcolm Wilmot, and the other Creditors of the said Thomas Dawson, if any there be, of their just dues, or else to avoid being arrested by the ordinary process of law, as is alleged against him,) to be seized and attached, and that unless the said Thomas Dawson, do return and discharge his debts, within three months from the publication hereof, all the Estate as well real as personal of the said Thomas Dawson, within this Province, will be sold for the payment and satisfaction of the creditors of the said Thomas Dawson.

Dated this fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

ADDRESSES

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
We your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Liverpool, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our firm fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's person and Government, and of our grateful sense of the invaluable blessings which these nations have so long enjoyed under the auspicious sway of your Majesty's Royal House.

At a period when every passing event is eagerly seized upon and converted to the purposes and passions of party; when the sacred name of liberty is prostituted to the designs of faction; and when a spirit of impiety and sedition, urged into bold and active daring by a press unexampled for licentiousness, is endeavoring to subvert both the Altar and the Throne, we consider that we should be equally wanting to our feelings and our duty, were we not to assure your Majesty of our firm determination to defend the sanctity of the one, and the dignity of the other from the attacks of those who, under the specious pretext of promoting the peoples interests, are by their principles and practice most industrious in subverting them.

We have beheld with anxiety and abhor-rence the repeated attempts which have been made to lessen the respect and affection which are due to your Majesty's Person, to vilify and degrade the Nobles; to traduce the Commons House of Parliament; to ridicule our Religious Establishment, and to bring into contempt the authority of our Courts of Justice, in which our laws are confessed-ly administered with a purity, impartiality, patience and mercy not only unknown to any other country, but to any other period of our own annals.

Convinced of the evil tendency of such insidious and unconstitutional proceedings, it shall, Sir, be our unremitting endeavor to counteract their influence; and confident that the true interests of the people can never be consulted by a sacrifice of those sa-lutory principles of sound morality which have ever been your highest boast, and of sober and rational freedom which have ever constituted our greatest happiness, we will contribute our utmost exertions to uphold the Constitution in Church and State, to support the legal power which it has placed in your Majesty's hands, and to manifest the truth of our present professions by strenuously inculcating in our several stations sentiments of unshaken loyalty to the Throne of dutiful obedience to the laws, and of patriotic devotion to the best interests of our country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Capital Burgesses and Burgesses of the Corporate town of Wis-bech, and the Magistrates, Clergy, Gentimen and Yeomanry of the said Town and Neighbourhood, feel it our imperious duty, at a crisis when infidelity, sedition and disloyalty are so indefatigably and fearlessly disseminated around us, to approach the Throne with the assurance of our devoted affection and fidelity to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of unalterable attachment to our excellent and unrivalled Constitution.

We, Sir, are among those of our fellow subjects, who love and revere the Monarchy of our ancestors as the best safeguard of our national rights and privileges; the turbulence of the factious and the clamours of the seditious serve only to strengthen and enlarge our public affections, teach us the more earnestly to look to the Throne for our protection; and convince us, that on your Majesty's security and the due dignity of the Crown, our religion, our laws, and our liberties, are the most effectually and most permanently established.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,
WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark-upon-Trent, in the County of Nottingham, desire to approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The period is yet recent when, on congratulating your Majesty upon your accession to the Throne, we took occasion to express to your Majesty our unfeigned regard for the illustrious House of Brunswick, and our determination to support the Constitution under which we have the happiness to live.

But, Sir, in the circumstances of these eventful times, when disaffection and impi-ety, in wicked alliance, are actively employed in loosening the ties of allegiance to our Sovereign, and in bringing into contempt the truths of religion; when we reflect, that the best rights and interests of your Majesty's subjects are intimately and inseparably interwoven with the sacred truths of Christianity and the rights of the Crown; and that in this country the Throne and the Altar, the palace and the cottage, must stand together or perish in one undistinguished ruin, we see abundant reason for renewing the pledge of our duty and allegiance to your Majesty, and our firm determination to rally round the Throne and to support the Laws and Constitution, over which may it long be the happiness of your Majesty to preside, in full possession of the affections of a free and loyal people.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness, beg leave to approach your Throne with the expression of our warmest attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the glorious Constitution which we have the happiness to live under; and at the same time to declare our utter abhorrence and detestation of all attempts of factious and disaffected persons, (assisted by a seditious and blasphemous press,) who, under the false pretence of patriotism and reform, assiduously endeavour to mislead the ignorant and unwary, to sap the foundations of religion and loyalty, and to reduce this happy country to a state of disorder and anarchy.

But we have the utmost satisfaction in being able to assure your Majesty, that in this part of your Majesty's dominions there exists no spirit of disaffection of irreligion or immorality; nor have any attempts been made, so far as we have been able to learn, either by the circulation of books and writings or otherwise, to shake the loyalty or to corrupt the manners of the people.

Grateful for the deliverance which, a few years since, we, together with the rest of Europe, experienced by the wisdom and vigour of your Majesty's Government, and for the inestimable blessings we continue to enjoy under it; we beg leave to offer to your Majesty the assurance of our firm determination to support, to the utmost of our power and ability, the established institutions in the Church and State against all designs of the disaffected.

That your Majesty may long reign the guardian of your people's liberties and rights, and defend them alike from foreign aggression and domestic abuse, is the sincere prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Inverness.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the General Meeting of the County Inverness, held at Inverness, this 4th day of January 1821, who voted and agreed to the above Address unanimously.

HOUSE OF COMMONS, FEB. 11.

PROVISION FOR THE QUEEN.

Lord Castlereagh moved, That the House go into Committee of Supply on a Resolution offered by him, that there be granted to her Majesty a sum not exceeding £50,000 a year, for her life. This proposition was agreed to without a division.

Previous to going into Committee, Mr.
Brougham rose, and said, he had been commanded by her Majesty to make the following communication to the House:—

"CAROLINE R.—The Queen having learned that the House of Commons has appointed this day for taking into consideration the part of the King's most gracious speech which relates to her, deems it necessary to declare, that she is duly sensible of of his Majesty's condescension in recommending an arrangement respecting her to the attention of Parliament. She is aware that this recommendation must be understood as referring to a provision for the support of her estate and dignity; and from what has
