

according to the latest intelligence from St. Helena, was so ill, that his dissolution might be expected. This is not the fact.—Letters from St. Helena were received on Friday to the 31st of March, and at that time the Ex-Emperor was certainly indisposed, but not to such a degree as to cause the slightest apprehensions for his life.

MAY 29.

The Royal Assent was yesterday given to the Timber Duty Bill—the nature of which has been fully stated before. A small preference is still given to Colonial Timber, about 20s. per load, after deducting the difference of long freight.

THE CORONATION. Her Majesty has been officially informed, that no Ladies will be present at the ceremony of the Coronation. This, and the declaration of the Marquis of Londonderry, make it sufficiently clear, that the presence of her Majesty will be dispensed with on that solemn occasion.

FREDERICTON, (N. B.)

17TH JULY, 1821.

(P.S. to the Gazette.)

The following Circuits are appointed by the Supreme Court:

The English Mail that reached this place yesterday, arrived at Halifax from Falmouth in 20 days—London dates to the 16th ultimo.

On the 21st of May a vote of £100,000 was agreed to in the House of Commons, towards the expense of the Coronation.

We publish this day a Royal Proclamation, bearing date the 5th day of June 1821, which fixes the Coronation for the 19th July inst.

THOMAS HATTON, a Soldier of the 74th Regt. died on Friday evening last, on his return from work. An Inquest was taken the day following, before WILLIAM TAYLOR, Esq. Coroner for the County of York, and a verdict returned—Died of Apoplexy.

We learn from Miramichi, that the fire which raged in the Forest of that place about three weeks since, communicated to the property of Mr. THOMAS SMITH, and consumed the dwelling House, Barn, several small out-houses, and his Mills on Sabbies River, with 80,000 feet of boards, a number of saw logs, &c.—The whole amount of loss is estimated at about £1800. We understand that he had £1200 of the above insured.

COMMUNICATED.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR 1820, lately received from Europe, contains highly interesting details as to the indefatigable exertions of that respectable body of Christians, in the promotion of Christian Knowledge.—The Society employs in Ireland, eleven Missionaries, (who use the Irish language); in Gibraltar, one, and in France, five; in western Africa, four; in southern Africa, seven, with an Assistant, a Hottentot convert;—in Bombay, two; on the Peninsula of Hindostan, four, and in the island of Ceylon, fourteen, with three Assistants, persons of highly respectable connexions, country born, but converted under the Ministry of the Missionaries; in New South Wales, four; Van diemens Land, one; in New-Zealand, two, and in the Friendly Islands, one;—in the West India Colonies, forty-four; in Canada, ten; in Nova Scotia and New-Branswick, nineteen; and in Newfoundland, twelve;—making a total of 141 Missionaries and three Assistants. The number of Members in the Societies under the care of these Missionaries appears to be 27,452. Upon most of the stations occupied by the Missionaries, are schools connected with the Missions, and in Ceylon alone the Mission-Schools contain 4008 children, many of whom are females.

In Ceylon there are three printing presses connected with the Mission, and which in connexion with the Government Printing press under the superintendence of the Missionaries in Colombo, are employed in issuing for the use of the Schools various elementary works, the Liturgy of the Church of England translated by the Brethern of the Mission into the low country Portuguese, the Tamol and Cingalese, and the Cingalese and Sanscrit Bible for the Colombo Bible Society, for general distribution.

The net receipts of the Society in Subscriptions, donations and legacies, from June 24, 1819 to Dec. 21, 1820, amounted to £30,803 : 3 : 4, and the disbursements to £34,993 : 11 : 5.

LONDON, JUNE 11.

The following Proclamation was issued this morning:—

BY THE KING.

A Proclamation appointing a day for the solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by our Royal Proclamation bearing date the 6th day of May 1820, we did amongst other things publish and declare our royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of our Royal Coronation upon Tuesday the 1st of August then next ensuing, at our palace at Westminster: and whereas by our Royal Proclamation bearing date 12th July, we thought fit to adjourn the said solemnity until our royal will and pleasure should be further signified thereon. And whereas, we have resolved; by the favour and blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the said solemnity upon the 19th July at our said Palace at Westminster, we do by this our Royal Proclamation give notice and publish our resolution thereon; and we do hereby give strict charge and command to all our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons of whatever rank or quality they be, who either upon our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Coronation, do give their attendance at the said solemnity on the said 19th day of July, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth and answerable to the dignities and places which every one then respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail as they will answer the contrary at their peril, unless by special reasons, by ourselves under our sign manual to be allowed we shall dispense with any of their services or attendance. Given at our Court the 5th day of June 1821, second year of our reign.
