The House resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, on a bill, "for the preservation of the Red and Fallow Deer in this Province." The chairman of the committee reported the bill agreed to, which was ordered to be engrossed.

An engrossed bill, "to authorise the Justices of the Peace for the City and County of Saint John, to levy a further assessment on the inhabitants of the said City, for the purpose of building and finishing a Poor-House in the said City—was read and sent to the Council for their concurrence.

Mr. Allen, from the Committee appointed to inquire what steps have been taken towards the recovery of the sums voted in 1817, to relieve the necessities of the Poor, in the several Counties in this Province, and to report thereon by bill or otherwise—reported that the committee had attended to that duty, and had directed him to report, as follows:

The Committee beg leave to report, that from the best information they could collect, no part of the money appears to have been recovered, nor any of the notes cancelled, in the year 1820; and that there still remains due to the Province from the different Counties, £5023. And your Committee have further instructed me to report, as their opinion, that the best and only mode of ascertaining who are indigent persons, would be to raise a Committee, consisting of a Member from each County, to examine all the securities taken by the Commissioners,
