NEW-YORK, MARCH 5.

The regular trading ship Hercules, arrived at this port yesterday, in 42 days from Liverpool. By this arrival the Editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received from their Correspondent, London papers and Lloyd's Lists to the 19th January inclusive.

We have looked the papers carefully through; but have been able to find nothing of much importance. We have made a few selections of the most interesting items.

From the complexion of the Papers, we should judge that tranquillity is pretty generally restored. A few meetings have been held since our last advices, both by the friends of the Queen and the loyalists, but the proceedings are quite languid in comparison to what they were a few months since.

Parliament was to re-assemble on the 22d of Jan. and it will depend upon what further measures are proposed by the Ministry, in relation to the affairs of the Queen whether the Public mind will again be seriously agitated upon this subject. The next arrivals will probably furnish us with matter of more interest than the present.

A London paper of the 18th of Jan. says: That after a long discussion in the Cabinet Council, the Earl of Liverpool and Lord Castlereagh set off together to Brighton to lay the results before His Majesty. The matter probably alludes to the course which they desire to pursue on the meeting of the two Houses, and upon which they are to take the King's pleasure. The rumour in the Political circles is, that the Speech from the Throne is to be extremely moderate; that a proposition is to be submitted to the Commons to fix the Queen's establishment at £50,000 a year, the sum offered at St. Omer's, and that Ministers are to stand or fall on the question of the restoration of Her Majesty's name to the Liturgy. Upon this point they calculate on a majority of seventy, which, in the House of Commons, is less than a majority of nine in the House of Lords.

It would seem from the purchase by the Queen of Marlborough House, that she has determined not to leave the Kingdom, whatever measures may be fixed upon by the Ministers.

Fresh rumours are set afloat every few days, of changes about to take place in the Ministry, but they are all probably without foundation. It is likely true that Ministers tendered their resignations immediately after the failure of the Bill of Pains and Penalties; but were prevailed on by the King to remain. It is now said, that should the arrangement which they mean to propose for the Queen, on the meeting of Parliament, not meet the support of a decided majority of the House of Commons, they are determined to remain no longer in office.

Considerable attention is directed to the affairs of the Continent, and the anticipated liberations of the Congress at Laybach. Lord Gordon will represent the British government at that Congress.

The inland trade of the British Island is said to be increasing.

London, Jan. 6.

Mr. Canning leaves town this morning for Paris. He has written a long letter to Mr. Bolton, of Liverpool, in which he fully explains his motive for resigning his office. He states that in the month of June last he tendered his resignation, but that the King requested him to withhold it; and that in consequence of his differing in opinion with his colleagues on the subject of the Bill of Pains and Penalties, he left England for some time. On his return finding that his colleagues had not abandoned the prosecution against the Queen, and always differing with them in opinion on this subject alone, he had, after taking their advice, offered again his resignation; that the King had accepted of it, and had complimented him on his conduct.

Jan. 12.

The Hon. C. B. Bathurst, entered this day on his duty as President of the Board of Control, in the place of Mr. Canning.

Jan. 17.

We regret to hear that Lord Londonderry is dying. In case of his death, Lord Castlereagh must go out of Parliament, as no Irish Peer can sit for any Irish borough or County.

The English Mail for January arrived this morning, but does not furnish so late dates as were received via the United States.

An answer to the Question proposed in the Royal Gazette of 20th March.

The Digits are 135; to which if there be added three times 132 = 396 they will be inverted, and the number will be 531. If 135 be divided by 5, the quotient will be 27; which is nine times the middle Digit; and the letters of the Alphabet corresponding to these Digits, are ACE. But why these letters should be said to exhibit a "solitary elf," I confess myself at a loss to understand. It being generally accompanied with numbers of its kindred, and hav-account due them for expenses incurred in support of poor Soldiers, Sailors, and Emigrants, within that Parish, for the said year.

To the Overseers of the Poor in the Parish of Fredericton, for the year 1820, the sum of £190 15, being the amount of their account for expenses actually incurred by them in support of transient Poor, distressed Emigrants, and disbanded Soldiers.

To the Overseers of the Poor for the City of St. John, the sum of £356 11 7½, to reimburse them for expenses incurred in the support of poor Soldiers and Emigrants, within the said City, for the year 1820.

To the Overseers of the Poor in the Parish of St. Andrews, the sum of £113 1 9, to remunerate them for money expended by them for the maintenance of poor Emigrants in that Parish.

To the Overseers of the Poor for the Parish of Portland, for the year 1820, the sum of £300 2 4½, for expenses actually incurred in support of disbanded Soldiers, Widows of Soldiers, distressed Emigrants, and Black Refugees.

To James Huson, the sum of £11 10, for breaking the road from Musquash to Le Proc river, from January to March 1820.

To Thomas Wyer, jun. late Supervisor, the sum of £13 13, to defray the expense of repairing the Diglegutash river, injured by the severe weather early in the last month.

To His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, the sum of £500, to be applied towards the reparation of such bridges and parts of the great roads of communication throughout the Province, as may require the same during the present year.

To the Justices of the Peace for the County of Westmorland, the sum of £500, towards building a Court-House and Gaol in that County.

To the Assistant Adjutant General of the Militia Forces, the sum of £50, to remunerate him for the duties of his office, for the year 1820.

To Commissioners to be appointed by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, a sum not exceeding £100 per annum, for the purpose of hiring for three years, a suitable situation in the City of Saint John, or in its vicinity, for the accommodation of the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, when he may have occasion to visit that City.

On the question whether the above resolution should be sustained, the Committee divided, as follows:—Yea, 14, Nays, 30.

To the Secretary of the Province, the sum of £49, for issuing 196 Warrants, at 5s. each, between the 16th day of February 1820, and the 7th day of February 1821.

To George K. Lugin, the sum of £80, for printing the daily Journals of the present Session.
