The Gazette.

The following Act passed by the Legislature of the Province of New-Brunswick, in the month of March 1820, is confirmed, finally enacted and ratified, by an order of The King in Council, dated at the Court at Carlton House the 9th day of June 1821.

AN ACT to alter, and in addition to an Act, intituled an Act for establishing a tender in all payments to be made in this Province.

WHEREAS the passing of the milled Doubloon at the current rate of Four Pounds, although conducive of great benefit, has a tendency while the same is not made a legal tender, and while the Spanish Dollar and other Silver Specie are kept at the present current rates, to diminish the circulating quantity of all other Specie in the Province, and is found to be highly inconvenient—

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That the milled Doubloon, or Four Pistolet Piece of Spain, shall pass current and be received and paid for Four Pounds each, and the aliquot parts thereof at a proportionate value, and the Spanish milled Dollars shall pass current and be received and paid for Five Shillings and Fourpence each, and the aliquot parts of said Dollar shall pass current and be received and paid in the like proportion, and the French Five Franc Pieces shall pass current and be received and paid for Five Shillings each

II. And be it further enacted, That the herein before mentioned Gold and Silver Coins shall be deemed and considered as a legal tender at the rates aforesaid, in all payments of money to be made in this Province, and shall be so adjudged in all Courts of Justice in the same. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to make any Doubloon or part of a Doubloon that may be plugged, a lawful tender, or any Doubloon weighing less than seventeen pennyweights eight grains, or any aliquot part of a Doubloon deficient of proportionate weight, a lawful tender in any case whatever, except at a deduction of twopence farthing for every grain so deficient.

III. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Act made and passed in the twenty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a tender in all payments to be made in this Province," as relates to the Spanish milled Dollars being made current at Five Shillings, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not be in force until His Majesty's Royal approbation be thereunto had and declared.

KINGSTON, U. C. Aug. 26.

We learn from a gentleman who arrived here last evening in the steam boat Charlotte, that M'Garry, Harrington, Kelly, and Masters, the four men condemned at the Cornwall assizes for the murder of John B. Sibert, of Williamsburgh, were executed on Monday last pursuant to their sentence.--- M'Garry appeared first on the platform. On coming forward he gazed round on the spectators, and turning up his eyes surveyed with the utmost coolness and apparent indifference the apparatus of death, and then looked back into the Court-Room to see if his accomplices were following him. After they were all brought on the scaffold and pinioned, M'Garry and Kelly confessed their guilt, declaring at the same time that Masters and Harrington were innocent of the murder, and were only participators with them in the plunder of the property. M'Garry with a kick threw his shoes off the scaffold from his feet, questioned the executioner whether he had ever performed such an office before, and being answered in the negative, desired to give him "plenty of rope." All the criminals being Roman Catholics, were attended to the place of execution by the Right Revd. Bishop MacDonnell, of Glengary, who had solemnly admonished them to make a public confession of their guilt, and to exhort others to take warning by their fate. M'Garry concluded his short address to the bystanders with saying, "that he had already confessed his sins to his Maker and had not come there to make a stage player of himself." In a few moments the drop fell, and the four unhappy men were launched into eternity. After hanging about three quarters of an hour, the bodies were cut down and delivered to the Surgeons for dissection.--- Chronicle.
