LONDON, MAY 5.

Late last night we received the Paris papers of Wednesday, which are chiefly filled with the details of baptismal ceremony of the Duke de Bordeaux, which took place at the cathedral of Notre Dame on the preceding day. The King went in great pomp from the Thuilleries, having in the carriage with him all the members of his immediate house, except the child who was the principal actor, and who, with the ladies in attendance on him, occupied the carriage next to that of his Majesty. The streets were lined with troops; and crowded as was the church with spectators, the members of the legislative body and of the municipal corps attended. The Clergy harranged to the King, and were answered by him; the Royal cortege was met and followed by loud applauses, and the day closed with magnificent fire works. While the Palace gardens and public offices were brilliantly illuminated.

A letter of the 31st of March from Constantinople says—"The Government, by the command of the Grand Seigneur, are inflicting the most rigorous and summary punishment upon all the Greeks who have any connexion with the insurgents in Wallachia and Moldavia. The individuals on whom this vengeance has already been exercised are three Bishops, one of whom, the Bishop of Ephesus, expired on the rack, obstinately refusing to make any confession. From the expiring agonies of the other two, some very important secrets have been elicited which will throw considerable light upon the proceeding of the traitors. Two individuals of slight importance, acknowledged spies, have this morning been strangled."

THE LORDS' REPORT ON FOREIGN TRADE.

We have this day published the Lords' report upon the means of improving our foreign trade with the eastern hemisphere. The evidence on which it is founded extends to 300 pages: the report itself appears to us to be drawn up with clearness and good sense, and may, we trust, co-operate with the understood inclinations of Government towards the repeal of those injurious and preposterous laws by which the British merchant has alone been excluded from a valuable trade with an immense portion of the Globe which is accessible to, and has long been enjoyed by the American and every other enterprising nation. It gives us satisfaction to add, that a bill for "extending the private trade carried on by British subjects between India and foreign states" had been prepared for introduction to Parliament by Ministers, and postponed "only on account of the enquiries depending in Parliament connected with Asiatic commerce." The vast convenience and rapidly growing

Sir Francis Burdett left his apartments in the King's Bench at an early hour yesterday morning, and arrived at his own house to breakfast, in a private carriage attended by a single friend. The worthy baronet, we are happy to learn, has experienced no injury to his health from his confinement.—Evening paper.

By advices from Patras of the 5th ult. the Turks were bombarding it, and between 300 and 400 houses were then destroyed.

A vessel, the Earl of Buckinghamshire, sailed yesterday se'nnight from Greenock for Quebec, with 600 emigrants, and these mostly of respectable appearance.

The ancient abbey of PARACLETE founded by ETHOSIA and ABELARD, is advertised for sale.

Extract of a letter from Brossau, in Transylvania, on the frontiers of Wallachia, April 12.

We learn from Bucharest that Prince Ypsilanti has made his entry into that city, preceded by Theodore Wiadimireske and the principal boyards, who went to meet him at some distance from the city. This entrance was a real triumph.

The inhabitants of Wallachia rejoice at the union which seems to be forming between the different chiefs and especially at the union of the forces of Theodore to those of Prince Ypsilanti. The first result of this union has been the creation of a Council of Government, as well for the civil administration as for the supplying of the army, which is stated to amount to 60,000, and which is encamped on the banks of the Danube, one day's march from Bucharest.

Arrived at Spithead, after a passage of 21 days from the Island of Madeira the Athol and Niemen frigates.—These ships sailed from Portsmouth on the 21st of March last, on a cruise of observation off that island, where they remained a fortnight; and having left every thing quiet there, they have returned. The Deputies to the Cortes at Lisbon, Drs. Garcia and Mauricio, and Senor Pedro Jean Monis, were sworn on the 14th ult. and were expected to sail in a Portuguese corvette which was lying at Madeira to take them over on Monday the 16th ultimo.

MAY 11. NEWFOUNDLAND.

The petition lately presented to Parliament by Lord Holland, from the inhabitants of Newfoundland was alluded to in the house last night by the Earl of Darley; who declared that it contained statements of "most atrocious acts of injustice and oppression for which it appeared no redress could be obtained from the tribunals of the Colony." Earl Bathurst said that a similar petition had been presented to his Majesty about two months ago, and was now under consideration. Alluding to the complaint of the improper infliction of corporal punishment, his Lordship stated that an order had been transmitted to Newfoundland about two months ago for the abolition of that description of punishment.

The Hecla and Fury discovery ships and the Nautilus transport, sailed from the Nore on Tuesday morning, with a fine breeze from the S. S. W. The best wishes of their own countrymen, and of the friends of science every where, attend them.

MAY 14.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant will leave Dublin on Saturday next the (13 instant) for England, where his Excellency proposes to remain about a month. During his Excellency's absence the vice-regal powers will be delegated to Lords Justices. His Grace the Archbishop of Armagh, the Lord Chancellor, and the Commander of the Forces, will be appointed Lords Justices.—Dublin Patriot.

MAY 16.

CORONATION.

We lately noticed a report current in the west end of the town, that the Queen had sent a letter to the Earl of Liverpool, desiring to know the names of the ladies appointed to attend her Majesty at the ceremony of the ensuing coronation; to which her Majesty has received no answer. We are now able to state, that whatever application has been made by her Majesty has been sanctioned by legal advice, and that her Majesty has already received an official answer, which, although not satisfactory, has not altered her determination.

"Brader House, May 15.

"Her Majesty has been pleased to dismiss from her service, M. CARLO FORRI, in consequence of her having no further need of his services, as she is now settled in England.

"Her Majesty has also given a power of attorney to JOSEPH MARIETTI to sell her property in Italy.

THE KING'S VISIT TO IRELAND.

—We understand from authority that the principal obstacle to his Majesty's visiting this country, is the disinclinations of ministers to sanction the expense of a coronation and the cost of the meditated excursion in the same year. If ministers should press his Majesty to a choice, we fear much our chance of his presence this year rests on very slender grounds. A report prevailed on Monday evening that Sir Benjamin Bloomfield had arrived in town to superintend the arrangements for his Majesty's visit to the country. This statement was, however, premature.—Faulkner's Dublin Journal.

FOREIGN TRADE.—The late report of the Committee on Foreign Trade has already produced activity in some of the Swedish ports. From Gottenburgh we learn, by the last mail, the arrival of 25 English vessels there, for loading timber—a speculation attributed to the diminution which has been recommended of the duties on that article.

The Lisbon Mail of 10 day brings no news, for though extracts from the journals will be found in the papers of this evening, the mail of yesterday brought accounts of a week later date.

The following is a quotation of a letter from Gibraltar, dated 15th April:—

"Mr. Douglas, our Consul for the empire of Morocco, went in H. M. hired schooner Pacifico, two days ago, to Tangiers, and was received most graciously by the Prime Minister of the reigning Emperor. Several valuable presents were sent by him to the British Government, and he is expected to secure for us considerable commercial advantages. Muley Said, the brother of Muley Ibrahim, has been proclaimed Emperor, after the death of the latter, in Tetuan, but he retreated on the advance of his uncle the Emperor Regnant, and has taken a direction towards Fez, which place should he reach in safety, we may look to a continuance of the present cruel warfare. A Sardinian boat which left this place about three weeks since for Rabbat, with 50,000 dollars of Danish tribute money, and 20 brass field pieces, with their equipments from the British Government, and many other things of value, is to day reported to have perished off the bay of Rabbat."

We have this day received some authentic information from Constantinople respecting the Greek insurrection. We now learn by private communications, dated the end of March, that although the tranquillity of the capital had not been disturbed, yet the Turkish Government, apprehending that the spirit of revolution might induce the Greeks in Constantinople to declare for Prince Ypsilanti, had issued orders that every Greek should immediately surrender up all the arms which might be in his possession. The Turkish fleet, which had been speedily equipped, was not to put to sea to cruise for Greek vessels of war, unless the Emperor of Russia should have supported the army under Prince Ypsilanti. As it was ascertained that the Emperor had no such intention, the Turkish squadron was to remain in port, unless the insurrection should assume a more formidable appearance.

BARBADOS.

DIED.—On Friday morning, Feb. 9. Mr. JAMES MACOMB, a native of New-York, aged about 23.—The circumstances attending the melancholy fate of this young man, are truly distressing, and will, perhaps, live in the recollection of every one acquainted with the cause which led to his dissolution. He had been some time employed in the Globe Office as a foreman, which situation he exercised with temperance and discretion: he however was not long suffered to enjoy his occupation uninterrupted; for he was soon selected as a proper object upon which a party spirit might glut its vengeance against the proprietor. The circumstance too, of his being a relation of the Editor, gave a double zest to their appetites, and for the most trifling offence he was carried before that Court, of whose injustice we have
