

fish troops, after a short conflict, attended with some loss. It is added, that the proprietor of the village, rendered desperate by the oppression heaped on him by Aga Meer, and the appearance of a British force, had burnt no less than six or seven towns, previous to his being attacked. Lady Hastings had suffered from severe indisposition, but was recovered. The Governor General was at Barrackpore.

At the close of the last Session of Parliament, Mr. Wilnot moved an Address to his Majesty, that he would be graciously pleased to send out a Commission to inquire into the administration of the Criminal Law in the Leeward Islands. Henry Maddock, of Lincoln's Inn, and Fortunatus Dwaris, of the Middle Temple, Esqrs. are, it is said, to be the Commissioners for this highly important purpose.

Accounts have been received this morning from Hull, of a very distressing nature with regard to the Greenland Whale Fishery, stating that 7 ships were totally lost—14 remained in the ice, and not expected to get off—and 11 were missing. The account also adds, that the Fish they had caught averaged about 124 tons, which last year was 10,000.

Mr. CANNING has already had several interviews with the Earl of LIVERPOOL.

[Extract of a Letter from the Agent to Lloyd's at Hull, dated Sept. 11.]

"The Brunswick, Blyth, has just arrived from Davis Straits with about 50 tons of oil, and brings a very bad account of the Fishery; seven ships were lost, several were beset, and the rest do not average more than 4 fish each; she left the ice on the 16th ult. and reports that most of the ships are coming home, the ice being so heavy that they had no chance of getting through to the westward."
