WM. F. ODELL. Fredericton, 18th Nov. 1822.

[DIED] At Kingsclear, on the 25th ultimo, in the 51st year of his age, JAMES BURGESS, a native of Scotland, and we believe the oldest man in the Province.

We are not acquainted with the history of this man, but we are informed he served in the Chevalier PRINCE CHARLES' army, at the celebrated Battle of Culloden, in the year '45.

On Saturday evening last, after a lingering illness, Mr. JOHN MAGEE, a native of Sandon, in Ireland, aged about 34 years.

[MARRIED] On Saturday last, by the Rev. JAMES MILNE, Mr. DANIEL M'PHERSON, to Miss ELIZABETH M'NEIL, both of this Parish.

London dates to the 23d of September, are given in the Halifax papers brought by the mail this morning, received there via Boston.

His Majesty on the 22d of that month, was afflicted with a severe nervous complaint.

The accounts respecting the Turks and Greeks are very contradictory.

The civil war continued to rage in several of the Spanish Provinces.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 1.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival this morning of the fast sailing ship Robert Fulton, Captain Holdridge, in 37 days from Liverpool, our London files to the 22d of September have come to hand. Their contents continue to leave us still in doubt as to the more important relations of continental Europe, although there is no want of intelligence to serve as food for conjecture.

England: The Bank of England has declared a half yearly dividend of five per cent. On the question being, at the meeting of proprietors, put to the Governor, whether the present profits of the Bank justified the dividend, he replied, in substance in the affirmative, although he conceded that, with all other institutions, the business of this Bank had diminished since the peace.

The revenue of the kingdom for the current quarter, it was apprehended, would fall short of the estimates three or four hundred thousands pounds. There was no doubt of its deficiency, as compared with the corresponding quarter of the preceding year.

Of the King, nothing is mentioned; nor do we notice any thing respecting the Ministry, other than a rumour that the office of Secretary of War was to be abolished; that the present incumbent (Lord Palmerston) was to retire on a pension equal to half the emoluments of his office. Lord Melville was spoken of as the successor to Mr. Canning as Governor General of India, and the Duke of Buckingham as the successor of Lord M. at the head of the Admiralty.

The Parliamentary Interest of the Hertford Family was to be revived, not having been exercised by the late possessor of the title. The present Marquis lately succeeded to a revenue of 130,000 pounds sterling, and commands thirteen votes in the House of Commons.

Removal.

The Attorney General's Office, removed to the Corner of King and Church-Street.

ALL Persons having any demands against the Estate of the late Mrs. MARGRET HUSBAND, of the Parish of Fredericton, deceased, are requested to tender the same duly attested to, within three months from this date; and all persons indebted to said Estate, are desired to make immediate payment to Fredericton, 29th July, 1822.

Mr. LUCRIN will please to insert the following, in the hope of an answer:

The character of my first, seems with contradictions: abounding in variety, yet still the same; by nature hot, and by nature cold; pleasant as the balmy nectar of the Gods, yet disgusting as the most loathsome drug; a friend to mankind, yet too often their greatest enemy. My power great and universally acknowledged; and the young and old, rich and poor, equally fall under my dominion; by my force the bravest are laid in the dust, and the most obstinate subdued. I give eloquence to the silent, and animate the most gloomy: I cheer the drooping heart, and afford to disponding misery a passing relief. Though possessed of such endearing qualities, I am capable of the greatest baseness, and fail not secretly to injure those who love me most; and though I have the power to humble Kings, Princes, and Governors, and bring them low, I contribute largely to support Majesty; and am obliged to submit to the most arbitrary Laws.

In the character of my second, I am always the same; attempt to change me, and I cease to be; my worth only varies with the season; and tho' I am at one time scorned and even trod beneath the feet, yet at another I am carefully treasured up, and brought to table as the greatest luxury.

My whole, they say, is sweeter than honey; and has the merit of quelling noise, and relieving the afflicted.
