

IN CHANCERY.
In the Matter of ANTHONY LOCKWOOD, Esquire, a Lunatic.
WHEREAS by an order made by His Honor The CHANCELLOR, in this Matter, bearing date the 28th day of August last: It is amongst other things referred to the Honorable SAMUEL DENNY STREET, Esquire, one of the Masters of this Court, to take an account of all the Debts due to and from the Estate of the said Lunatic; and to ascertain the several and respective amounts of such Debts and Credits—Notice is therefore hereby given, that all Persons having any demands against the said Estate, must send in their accounts, duly attested to, to the office of the said SAMUEL DENNY STREET, Esquire, in Fredericton, before the 24th day of November next, or the same will not be allowed: And that the said Master will attend at his said office, in Fredericton, on the 24th, 25th, and 26th days of November next, to examine into and adjust the said accounts; and that all Parties interested, must by themselves or their Agents, attend the said Master, on some or one of those days, to support their accounts, or the same will not be allowed.
S. D. STREET,
 Master in Chancery.
 Dated 28th October, 1823. 41.

Thomas Bowden,
TAKES this method to inform his Friends and the Public, that he has removed his Shop from the lower part of the Town up to his Lot on the corner of King and York Streets, where he continues to carry on the Blacksmith business in its various branches, on the most reasonable terms. Sticks Ironed in the neatest manner, and Horse Shoeing executed according to the best improved method.
 He returns thanks to those who have favoured him heretofore with their custom, and trusts that nothing has been wanting on his part to merit a continuance of their favours.
 N.B.—A liberal discount will be made for prompt payment.
 Fredericton, Nov. 10. 1823.

MR. J. SPAHNN, respectfully informs the Public, that he has taken the shop in Mr. J. R. McPherson's house, Regent Street, lately occupied by Mr. Samuel Kendall, Druggist, &c.—where he intends carrying on the business of cleaning and repairing Clocks and Watches of every description. Having had superior advantages for gaining a thorough knowledge of the Watch and Clock making business, he flatters himself by strict attention and assiduous application, to merit a share of public patronage.
 Fredericton, 4th Nov. 1823.
