The Gazette.

By His Excellency Major General Sir HOWARD DOUGLAS, Bart. (L.S.) Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c. HOWARD DOUGLAS.

A Proclamation.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province, stands prorogued to Wednesday the first day of September next, I have thought fit further to prorogue the said General Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued to the first Wednesday in December next ensuing.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Fredericton, the twenty eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty four, and in the fifth year of His Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
WM. F. ODELL.

HEAD QUARTERS, FREDERICTON,

MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief has had great satisfaction and gratification in reviewing the Company of Artillery, the three Battalions of Infantry, and the Sea Fencibles, of the Militia of St. John.

His Excellency did not expect nor desire to witness the performance of any complicated manoeuvres; he has seen a few useful and simple movements well executed; and he has had the pleasure of reviewing a large and fine proportion of the Population of this part of the Province.

His Excellency was much pleased with the Artillery Company under the command of Capt. Waterbury, who performed their firings and movements with celerity and precision, and have proved themselves deserving of all the encouragement His Excellency can shew them. The three Battalions of Infantry under the respective command of Captains B. L. Peters, Major Simonds, and Captain Cross, made a very fine appearance, and His Excellency was surprised and much gratified at the admirable manner in which they moved and formed, considering the very few hours devoted annually to drill. The Rifle Companies under the command of Captains Robinson and Wedderburn, are of the very first description, and with any assemblage of Troops would be remarked, as well for their complete style of equipment as for their training. The three Companies of Sea Fencibles under the command of Captains Eagles, Crookshanks, and Leavitt, are very deserving of sharing in all the approbation which His Excellency has already bestowed on the Companies of Artillery.

The whole were ably commanded by Major Drury of the 1st Battalion, and to him, his Battalion, and to all the Officers and Troops present, His Excellency desires to express his approbation.

By Command,
GEO. SHORE,
Adj. Gen. M. F.

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, has been pleased to make the following promotions, &c. 21st September, 1824:—

ST. JOHN, Sept. 14.

On Friday morning, a Deputation of the Session or Corporation of Saint Andrews Church in this City, consisting of the Minister and the two Senior Elders, waited on His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, with the following Address:—

To His Excellency Major-General Sir HOWARD DOUGLAS, Bart. C. B. F. R. S. &c. &c. &c. Lieutenant-Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick.

May it please your Excellency—
WE, the Minister and Elders of the Church of Scotland, in the City of Saint John, incorporated by an Act of our Provincial Legislature, and representing a large and important part of the community, beg leave to approach your Excellency with the tribute of our sincere congratulations on your safe arrival in the Province, and the auspicious circumstances in which you have commenced the administration of its Government.

In humbly soliciting that a share of your Excellency's favourable regards may be extended to the infant Church over which we immediately preside, as well as to similar Institutions in connection with the same Parent Church as by Law established, in whatever quarter of the Province they may have been founded, or may yet arise, we are emboldened not only by the past experience we have had of countenance and encouragement from the local Authorities, but also by the fact which we are persuaded has not escaped your Excellency's observation, that His Majesty's Government is now regarding with more marked attention than ever, the claims of the Scottish National Church in the remote Dependencies of the Empire.

And we trust that while in making this appeal, we shall not be found liable to the charge of trespassing on any of those sacred obligations under which your Excellency is pledged to act as the Representative of our Gracious Sovereign, in this part of His Dominions, your own feelings of respect for the Ecclesiastical Constitution of your Native Country, will second the wishes which we thus presume to express.

That the favourable impression made on the public mind by your Excellency's first appearance among us may be strengthened and perpetuated, and that your administration may be long, successful, and happy, is the sincere and fervent prayer of those who now address you.

Signed in the name and by appointment of the Corporation of Saint Andrews Church, in the City of Saint John, this seventh day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

GEORGE BURNS, D. D. Moderator.

To which His Excellency was pleased to make the following reply:—

To the Minister and Elders of the Church of Scotland, in the City of Saint John.

GENTLEMEN,
I RECEIVE with much satisfaction the congratulations which, representing a large and important part of the community, you offer on my arrival in this Province.

The Ecclesiastical Constitution of our native land, as established and recognised by Law, authorises me to consider the Scottish National Church, as an established Religion in a Colony, the common resort and residence of persons from all parts of our Empire. In this view, I regard, with attention, the claims of the Presbyterian Religion here, in this remote Dependency, as in the Mother-Country; and I shall not fail to extend my favourable regards to the Church over which you preside, in measures connected with the Parent Church of England, so far as may be consistent with those sacred obligations which my duties and persuasions oblige me to observe.

SAINT ANDREWS, Sept. 13.

Lieutenant-Colonel ALLEN, Inspecting Field Officer of the Provincial Militia, inspected one division of the First Battalion Charlotte Militia, under the command of Col. CAMPBELL, here, on Thursday, and another division at Saint Stephen, on Saturday. He expressed himself highly satisfied with their performances.—Herald.
