NEW-YORK, FEB. 2.

By the arrival of the Candace at Boston, we have been furnished with the following intelligence from Peru. Although the dates are much later from Lima than those we gave last week, nothing decisive yet occurred to decide the fate of the country, but affairs were at an interesting crisis. We are indebted to a commercial friend for the following

Extract of a letter, dated,

"LIMA, OCT. 10.

"We should be happy were our advices continued under more agreeable circumstances, or that the energies of the country were united against our common enemy; but unfortunately, this object is impeded by a civil war. Riva Aguera, who held the Presidency previously to the late occupation of this place by the enemy is contending for that honour with his successor Torre Tagle, subsequently appointed by the Congress. He is in possession of the northern provinces; and notwithstanding the mediation of Gen. Bolivar, will not relinquish his pretensions. In consequence Bolivar, who has recently arrived and was immediately invested with power to prosecute the war, has since been authorized to employ peaceable or coercive measures in support of the resolutions of Congress; but we apprehend it will be difficult to reconcile the parties, and that this will prove a troublesome and tedious business. The Spaniards have left all the country on this side of the Apurimac river unpossessed, and marched to Upper Peru against Gen. Santa Cruz, with the Peruvian army at La Paz, and Gen. Sucre with the Colombian division at Arequipa; and we are in great anxiety for result. Should the Spaniards lose one field of battle, it will put end to the war; but should it be lost by the Patriots, the contest will be prolonged for another year, unless the armistice agreed upon at Buenos Ayres should take effect; but we have every confidence in the valour, talents and experience of Gen. Bolivar that he will conclude the war in a brilliant manner."

LATEST FROM PERU.

The ship Candace, Bertody, has arrived at Boston in 110 days from Lima. The Editor of the Boston Centinel has sent us the following intelligence brought by this vessel.

The following is a statement of the political situation of the country, furnished by an intelligent American on the departure of the Candace.

The Royalists have left unpossessed all the country on this side of the river Apurimac, and marched for the recovery of their territories in Alta Peru, which, during their absence has been taken possession of by the Patriots, and include some of the richest provinces, Gen. St. Cruz, with the Peruvian liberating army consisting of 4000 effective troops, has penetrated as far as La Paz, where he encountered the Spanish army under the famous Valda, and broke the charm of invincibility. Since this action the Royalists have retired towards Potosi, and are accompanied by the Vice Roy La Serna.—Gen. Sucre, with the Colombian division of veterans, according to the last accounts, was at Arequipa, in the progress of his march to form a junction with Santa Cruz. The inhabitants of the country are universally in favour of their deliverers; the cry of liberty is heard from the mountain summit, and echoed from the valley. One victory of the Patriots in a general action, would settle the long contested question of sovereignty, and conclude the history of tyranny in the territories of Peru; but to our mortification the sword of civil discord is unsheathed, and threatens disappointment to all our fair prospects. Riva Aguera, who held the Presidency of the Republic previous to the late occupation of this place by the enemy, and whose want of popularity entailed him to dismission, and in whose place the Congress appointed Torre Tagle, is now asserting his pretensions, nor will he relinquish them, notwithstanding the mediation of Gen. Bolivar. He is in possession of the northern Provinces, having his head quarters at Truxillo with an army of 3000 men, Bolivar who is fully empowered to conduct the war according to his own views, will make this his first object, and having added the conquered to his own army, with all possible promptitude, march against the Spaniards; and conclude their more obstinate opposition.

Capt. Storer, of the brig John, who arrived here yesterday, in 25 days from Alvarado, makes the following statement:—

"Hostilities still continue between the castle of St. Juan de Uloa and Veracruz, and no prospect of an accommodation. The city of Vera Cruz was almost in ruins from the bombardment. The Mexican fleet was in Alvarado, and the castle of St. Juan de Uloa received its supplies from Havana without any obstruction."

New-Orleans papers to the 4th of Jan. contain intelligence from Mexico, of an alliance between the Republics of Colombia and Mexico. The governments agree to support each other in their independence, and engage to use their good offices to obtain the co-operation of all the South American States for the same object. The 17th articles binds the contracting parties not to accede to any demands of indemnification, tribute or exaction which the Spanish government or any nation in its name or behalf may set up for its loss of the ancient supremacy of the mother country. They also bind themselves not to enter into any treaty with Spain, or any other nation to the prejudice of their independence, but that they shall sustain on all occasions their mutual interests, with a dignity becoming a people free and independent; friends, brothers and confederates.

The same paper contains the report of a Committee of the people of Mexico on the subject of a proposed Constitution for that country.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

The packet ship James Cropper, Capt. Marshall arrived last evening from Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 17th Dec. By this arrival the Editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received copious files of London papers to the 15th, and Liverpool List to the 17th, with Lloyd's and Shipping List. Our latest London Price Current is of the 9th of Dec.

SPAIN.—The most important article that has met our notice, is the change in the Spanish Ministry.—This event took place on the 2d of Dec.—The Marquis Casa Irujo, is appointed prime minister; Heredia is appointed minister of Justice; Don Josef de la Cruz, minister of War; Don Luis Lopez Ballasteros, minister of Finance; and Vilella, President of the Council. It is but a short time since we announced the appointment of Saez to the office of prime minister. Ferdinand has sent his beloved confessor back to the Bishopric of Tortosa. Casa Irujo, although a man of more talent, yet his principles it is said, are not more liberal than the "reverend statesman" who preceded him.

Some disturbance had taken place at Madrid at the close of Nov. between some French and Spanish soldiers. The French were roughly handled; the guard coming up, on hearing the noise, took all to the guard-house, where a sergeant commanded. Soon after a detachment of Spanish Lancers came to demand the release of the prisoners, uttering imprecations against the French in general; the people joined them, and the post was on the point of being forced, though the sergeant defended himself bravely, when it was reinforced by a detachment from the nearest post; which had been informed of what was passing by a soldier who made his way through the crowd with his bayonet. General Bourmont being informed of this disorder, ordered the drums to beat to arms and the garrison assembled; which cleared the streets. There were two persons killed and several wounded. Order was soon restored; but to prevent the recurrence of similar scenes. Gen. Bourmont has ordered all the Spanish troops to quit Madrid. The letters from Madrid of the 27th say, that the number of persons wounded in the above mentioned affray, was 24; three are dead.

A letter from Bayonne, of Dec. 4th, in alluding to this affair, says that seventeen of the persons concerned have been shot.

Letters from Madrid of the 30th of November speak of the organization of the army. The King has ordered, that all subalterns and privates who are married, as well as those who enlisted voluntarily for the time that the war should continue, shall be sent to their homes. Madrid is still in a state of fermentation. An order has been published prohibiting the inhabitants from conversing on political subjects.

The latest accounts from the Capital of Spain are the 6th of Dec. On the 6th the Deputation of the Kingdom of Navarre sent a mission to felicitate Ferdinand in its own name, as well as in the name of its faithful subjects. "The Navarrese, Sire, who have followed every event, have inscribed their names in the Temple of Fidelity and Heroism, have not been deaf during the disastrous revolution which threatened the liberty of their King."

The brother of Lopez Banos, has been arrested at Cadiz, and sent to the Castle.

The French troops which have entered France through Bayonne, from Spain, during Nov. form a total of 561 officers, 9,488 soldiers, and 4,315 horse or mules.

Accounts from Madrid of the 1st. Dec. state, that "all the Ambassadors have remitted a note to our Government, to demand that all the capitulations concluded by the French with several corps of the Constitutionalists and the various garrisons, shall be punctually executed. It is also said that their Excellencies expressed a wish that Spain should be a Representative Government." The same letter adds, that the Empecinado, has been set at liberty.

Ferdinand is said to have pronounced the project of the Law of Amnesty, (the chief articles of which, are to bring to trial all persons who held any office during the Revolution,) too rigorous!

It is stated that on the 6th, the birth day of the Queen, a decree of general amnesty would be issued.

There is still more hesitation about re-establishing the Inquisition. The King of
