

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, March 12.

The House resolved itself into a Committee of Supply.

Mr. LUSHINGTON moved that £100,000 be granted as part of the Civil Contingencies of 1824.—Ordered.

£3287 was voted for the Civil Establishment in the Bahamas.

£600 for Dominica.

Mr. BENNET protested against the grant; which was defended by Mr. WILMOT.

The CHANCELLOR of the EXCHEQUER said, that Dominica was one of the most distressed spots in the world.—The Resolution was agreed to.

£8229 for the Civil Establishment of Upper Canada.

Mr. BENNET was of opinion, that the colony should maintain its own establishment. The church establishment there was a curse rather than a blessing; and the lands belonging to it were in a state of complete barrenness, amidst surrounding fertility.

Mr. W. HORTON stated, that the Militia Pension List in Upper Canada amounted to £4,000, from the expenses of the war.

Mr. BRIGHT thought that the colony should be fostered as a balance to the power of the United States. He should support the vote.

Mr. HUME would recommend, that within ten years the Canadas should be declared independent: but would not press a division, as the sense of the Committee appeared to be against him.

£9197 was moved for the Civil Establishment in Nova Scotia.

Mr. BENNET opposed the grant; and complained of the expence of the Episcopal Establishment in that Colony.

Mr. HUME thought that the grant for a Governor should not be paid by the people of England.

Mr. W. HORTON defended the grant. Mr. HUME said that the West-India Colonies had been put under very unfair restrictions to foster the Canadas and Nova-Scotia.

£2194 for the Civil Establishment of New-Brunswick; the vote last year having been £6770.

Mr. HUME stated, that the inhabitants of New-Brunswick had offered to defray their own expences, if they were permitted to have the appointment of their own Officers.

M. HORTON stated the subject to be under consideration.

£3318 for Prince Edward's Island.

£15,294 for New South Wales.

£22,594 for the Expences of Sierra Leone.

£4351 for the island of Newfoundland.

£42,956 for the Settlements on the Gold Coast.

£9827 for the island of Bermuda.

£150,000 for the Civil Contingencies of New South Wales.

Mr. HUME objected to the manner the account of which this item was made up and kept. It appeared to him that £80,000 of this account was voted last year.

Mr. LUSHINGTON explained the mode in which the account was kept.—Agreed to.

£3442 for such Colonial Officers as were formerly paid out of the Army Extraordinaries.

£25,532 for defraying the charges of the Establishment for propagating the Gospel in Upper and Lower Canada, Nova Scotia, New-Brunswick, Prince Edward's Island, and the Cape of Good Hope.

Mr. HUME contended that the Colonies should pay for their own religious instruction, and they would do it if there was not such a disposition to throw money away.

There was Halifax, for instance, a large, populous, and "manufacturing" place; could not they pay their own Minister? Why should the people of "Aberdeen" be taxed towards paying a salary of £400 to the Rev. Mr. Inglis, for religious instruction given by him to the people of Halifax?

Mr. BUTTLEWORTH, so far from diminishing this Vote, would most readily increase it.

Mr. C. BENNET was no enemy to religion nor religious instruction.

Mr. GOULBURN defended the grant. The Hon. Member for Aberdeen was mistaken, if he supposed the Clergy in the Colonies were entirely supported by this country. No; on the contrary, they had large tracts of barren land assigned to them, for their maintenance by the Colonies. (A loud laugh.)

Sir M. W. RIDLEY wished to know whether this money was applied to the doctrine of the Established Church, or to the spreading of those enthusiastic doctrines which had done so much mischief.

Mr. COULBURN said, it was applied to the Church of England Establishment only.

Mr. HUME said, this was the strongest argument he had heard against this Grant.

Mr. BENNET moved, as an amendment, to leave out the words "to defray the charges of this Society." This would leave the money in the hands of the Governors.

The Committee divided—For the original Resolution 98—For the Amendment 19—Majority 79.

£17,245, to pay the salaries of the Commissioners appointed to prevent the illegal traffic in Slaves.

£5,000, for the Refuge for the Destitute.

£62,000, for the Extraordinaries of the Army for 1824.

The House then resumed—the Chairman reported progress, and obtained leave to sit again on Monday, on which day the Report of these resolutions was ordered to be received.

NEW-YORK, MAY 8

His B. M. Packet Frolic, Lieut. Barron, arrived as the Quarantine ground yesterday morning, in 30 days from Falmouth. The commander came up to town in his gig, and delivered to the Agent a bundle of Despatches, which were immediately forwarded to the British Charge des Affairs at Washington by a special messenger. It is presumed that these Despatches are in relation to the proceedings of the British Government for the suppression of the Slave Trade, in which our Government are to co-operate, a treaty to that effect having been recently signed at London.

The Frolic having been employed as a Despatch vessel, did not bring the Mail, which we understand was to be forwarded by the Eclipse Packet, to leave Falmouth on the regular day.

Latest News.—We are indebted to Lt. Barron, for a Truth Paper of April 3d, and London Papers to the evening of the 1st ult.

The Slave Trade Bill had passed both Houses of Parliament, and received the King's Assent.

The Rochefort, 80 gun-ship, had arrived in England, from the Mediterranean, with information that the differences with Algiers were amicably settled.

Mr. Peel has announced in the House of Commons, that the manuscript of Milton, recently discovered, the nature of which is to furnish proofs of the truth of the Christian religion, was about to be published under the auspices of the King.

Advices from Madrid, state that an order has at length been published, granting a general pardon to all the military of the Constitutional armies, with an exception that none of them are to reside at Madrid, not to inhabit the royal palaces. A civil amnesty was said to be under consideration.

An account was received by way of Odessa, that Ali Pacha, the enterprising Vice Roy of Egypt, has declared himself independent of the Turkish Government. Great consternation prevailed in Constantinople by this intelligence. The news was not believed in Paris. The Vice Roy was said to have furnished 10,000 troops for the war against the Greeks.

At Constantinople, Feb. 24, extensive preparations were going on for the campaign against the Greeks. No progress had been made in the negotiations with the new Russian Minister, and it is said a Turkish army is assembling at Sophia to act against that power.

It is stated that Coron surrendered to the Greeks on the 18th of Feb. They had also succeeded in taking the outworks of Lepanto.

Don Juan Martin, the distinguished patriot, known as the Empecinado, is stated to have been assassinated at Roa, in Spain by a party of Royalists.
