

BOSTON, JUNE 10.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.—By the arrival at this port yesterday of the ship Lucilla, Capt. Candler, 25 days from Liverpool, London papers to the 11th May and Liverpool to the 13th have been received. Some interesting articles of ship news will be found in the marine department.

The Liverpool Advertiser of the 13th contains the following articles.

ALGIERS.—On Friday last his Majesty's bomb, Terror, Captain A. D. Y. Arbuthnot, sailed from Portsmouth, for Algiers, taking despatches for Vice Admiral Sir Harry Neale, (whom he expects to find in that bay) informing him, it is presumed, what has been the final determination of Ministers with respect to the Dey of Algiers. It would appear from the nature of the preparations made and ordered, that it is not intended to make an attack upon Algiers by a united force of ships; but if the Dey should still refuse to accede the necessary, but what may be deemed coercive terms, attacks will be nightly made upon the town and defences of Algiers, by the employment of bombs and mortar vessels. To announce this intention we believe the Terror has now proceeded; and it appears probable that Capt. Arbuthnot, will in the first place, land at Algiers, and endeavour to bring the Dey to a sense of what is due to the offended government of our King from his past conduct in violating the Exmouth treaty, and of the situation in which his capital will become, by a pertinacious rejection of all amicable means of reparation. The same terms of reconciliation and of security for the future, will probably be proposed to the Deys of Tunis and Tripoli but there is scarcely a doubt of their acquiescence.

From Africa.—A passenger in the Phoenix, arrived at New-York on the 3d inst. from St. Thomas, informed the editors of the New-York Mercantile Advertiser, that the French schr. Porpoise had arrived there in a very short passage from Goree, Africa. The captain stated that hordes of natives from the interior were overwhelming the settlements on the coast—that they had taken possession of and burnt St. Marys, on the Gambia, and destroyed much property. The white inhabitants fled to Goree. They also had made several attacks upon Sierra Leone, and the inhabitants were preparing to leave that place.

According to the report, the Porpoise must have left Goree subsequent to the 1st May.

The British Dispatch vessel Frolic, which had waited some weeks for dispatches from Washington, succeeded in getting to sea on Saturday morning, and was the first and almost the only vessel that sailed for four days.
