YORK GENERAL SESSIONS, JUNE 1825.

RULES and REGULATIONS made and established by the Justices of the General Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of York in General Sessions assembled, for the lading and unlading of Vessels or Boats and for the government of all Carman, Waggons and Truckmen within the Parish of Fredericton, and for establishing and fixing the Rates and Fares to be taken for the Truckage of Goods, Wares, Merchandize and other articles within said Parish, between the Creek next below the Rev. Mr. BEST's, Southward, Phillis' Creek, Northward, and the Alms House Westward, in pursuance of the power and authority vested in the said Justices by an Act of the General Assembly made and passed in the present year of His Majesty's Reign intituled "An ACT to authorize the Justices of the Peace in the County of York, to make regulations respecting Carman and Waggons, and the lading and unlading of Vessels or Boats in the Parish of Fredericton."

I. That every Carman, Wagoner, or Truckman who Carts Goods for hire, shall cause to be marked or painted, on the near or left hand side of every Cart, Wagon, Truck, Sled, or other Vehicle used by him in his said occupation a certain number, which he shall cause to be recorded by the Clerk of the Parish, (which shall be different from any previously recorded number) and which shall be marked or painted in fair and legible characters, of not less than two inches in length; and every person who shall neglect to mark his Carts, Waggons, Trucks, Sleds or other Vehicles as is herein directed, shall for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of Twenty Shillings.

II. That every Carman, Wagoner or Truckman shall be ready to demand and receive for the Truckage of any articles, and for carefully housing the same when necessary, the several rates and fares set forth in the Scale hereunto annexed; and any person who shall demand and receive a greater rate or fare than is therein allowed, shall for every offence forfeit and pay the sum of Ten Shillings.

III. That all Carmen, Waggons, and Truckmen, shall be ready with their Teams at all seasonable times, to convey such Goods, Wares Merchandize, or other articles within that part of the Parish of Fredericton as aforesaid, as may be required of them, and any such person who shall refuse or neglect upon the first requisition to attend and convey Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or other articles within the Parish of Fredericton aforesaid, (not being actually employed elsewhere in his said occupation) shall for each and every offence, forfeit and pay the sum of Ten Shillings.

IV. And whereas great delay frequently happens in the unlading of Vessels or Boats, by reason of the Carmen, Waggons and Truckmen not remaining to complete the unlading of such Vessel as they have commenced with, It is therefore ordered that whenever any Carman, Wagoner or Truckman shall have commenced to unlade any Vessel or Boat he shall continue, and shall not proceed to any other employment until the Cargo of such Vessel or Boat be discharged (unless it can be shown that the Master of the Vessel was in fault) under the penalty of Twenty Shillings for each and every offence.
