LONDON, Nov. 13.

The private business of the approaching session, it is already calculated, by the bills for Companies, &c. that are preparing, or have had notice of them given, will exceed, in number and importance, any preceding years. It is expected that there will be upwards of two hundred private bills before the Parliament for Joint Stock Companies, Loan Companies, Oil Gas Companies, Clean Washing and pure Water Companies, and the various Road, Engine, and Turnpike Measures.

It appears by the Gazette of Tuesday, that Lord Granville is at length formally appointed his Majesty's Ambassador at the Court of France. The Gazette also announces that Sir Charles Bagot, now our Ambassador at the Court of St. Petersburg, succeeds Lord Granville at the Hague; and Sir Charles himself will probably be succeeded by the Right Hon. Strafford Canning.

On Monday a consultation was held at the Colonial Office, between Mr. Horton, and the Crown Lawyers on the one part, and Mr. Gault, and the Canada Company's Council on the other, concerning the granting of the Charter to the Company, when it was agreed that it should be completed forthwith, and it is now probable that the Commissioners will sail for America about the beginning of January.

A gentleman who came passenger in the Tiger, delivered dispatches on Wednesday morning at the Foreign Office from the British Commissioner at Mexico.

Dispatches dated the 1st September, have been received at the Colonial Office, from Sierra Leone. The Colony, we are happy to say, continued in a healthy state.

The intended Spanish expedition to South

America, according to the Etolle, cannot sail these six weeks. The Union Regiment is mentioned as one of those which are destined for that Service.

THE NORTHERN EXPEDITION.

Captain Lyon of his Majesty's ship Griper, arrived unexpectedly at the Admiralty on Thursday morning. His return has been partly occasioned by his having been unable to get into Repulse Bay, though he got off the entrance of Wager River. The Griper had experienced the most extraordinary continuance of bad weather ever remembered by any seaman on board. They had but five fine days during the whole voyage, and one of the five was Monday last. They have lost all their anchors, and their boats were all stove in. We are happy to learn, however, that no lives have been lost.

Captain Lyon reports, that the whale fishery, from the badness of the weather, has been very unproductive. The whalers he spoke of had been all unsuccessful.

We (Country) subjoin a letter from our Correspondent at Portsmouth: "We have just received a letter from our Correspondent at Portsmouth: 'This afternoon came into harbour, without anchoring at Spithead, his Majesty's ship Griper, Captain Lyon, from the Northern Expedition, last from the Southampton Islands, in six weeks. His ship is in great distress, and appears to have suffered dreadfully. She had reached us within six hours of the mouth of Repulse Bay, when a most tremendous gale came on, which continued for several days with unabated fury; and after the crew had suffered in a dreadful manner, Captain Lyon was obliged to bear up for England, to refit the ship, having lost all her anchors and cables among the ice, besides having been on shore, and sustained damage in her bottom.'

They heard of Capt. Parry, who was at a great distance from them, had written in the Griper was to have wintered in the ensuing summer, an overland expedition, to endeavour to meet Capt. Parry."

LONDON, Saturday Evening.

We have received a file of Calcutta Government Gazettes to the 8th of June. Official reports had been received from Grahame of the 22d of May, from which it appeared that the Burmese, who had taken up a stockade position at Hautbur, on the South bank of the Kullung evacuated it on the advance of Lieut. Col. Richards, and retired to the Rungle Gur, where they had a strong stockade, about eight hours march from Kallibur. "On Lieut. Col. Richards proceeding with a small guard, to examine, and give orders for the destruction of the stockade at Hautbur he was informed, on his arrival there by a villager, that about sixty of the enemy had returned to it. He, in consequence, immediately returned to Captain Horsburgh's camp, and ordered Lt. Richardson to repair, with the Russala of cavalry, and a company of Infantry, to endeavour to surprise them. In this he succeeded. The enemy had only time to fire a few shots from the stockade, which did not take effect, and ran off to the rear, right upon the cavalry, who had been previously detached to intercept them, and who killed twenty of them, and a Phokun (Commandant) all real Burmese. The name of the Phokun killed, is supposed to be Tamee, and he is reported to have been the second in command to Boogly Phokun, and to have had the chief management of the enemy's camp."

The private letters say, that the resistance of the Burmese on the Assam side of Ava was becoming more obstinate, and would probably protract the war. All fears of any attempt on Calcutta from the Chittagong side had subsided, and it was believed the Burmese had fallen back from Ramao to their own territory.
