

after the fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, in lieu of the duties hereby made to cease and determine, there shall be raised, levied collected and paid unto His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon importation of the several articles enumerated or described in this Schedule of Duties to this Act annexed, into any of the said possessions in America, from any foreign place in America, or from Europe, or from any place in Africa, the several duties of Customs, as the same are respectively set forth in figure in the said Schedule: Provided always, That no greater proportion of such duties (except the duty of one shilling the gallon on brandy, imported into Canada, Nova-Scotia, New Brunswick or Newfoundland) shall be charged upon any article subject also to duty under any other Act heretofore and still in force, or under any colonial law, than the amount; if any, by which the duty charged by this Act shall exceed such other duty or duties.

And be it further enacted, That the duties imposed by this Act shall be levied, raised, applied and abated under the same management, and in the same manner, and by the same powers and means, and under the like penalties and forfeitures, as the duty imposed by the two Acts hereinbefore mentioned, would be levied, raised, applied, and abated under the provisions of those Acts respectively, except so far as the same may be altered by this Act.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to export from any of the said free ports to any foreign country in Europe or Africa, in any ship belonging to such country, from any of the British possessions in America, any goods being of the growth, production, or manufacture of such possessions, and any goods which have been legally imported into the same.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by order in council to time when and so often as it shall be judged expedient to prohibit the trade and intercourse authorized by this Act with any country in Europe having possessions in America or the West Indies, if it shall appear that the privileges granted by this Act to foreign ships or vessels are not allowed by such country to British ships or vessels in trade or intercourse with the possessions of such country in America or the West-Indies.

And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intitled, "An Act to make more effectual provision for permitting Goods imported to be secured in Warehouses or other Places, without payment of Duty on the first entry, thereof as articles that certain goods and merchandize mentioned in a Schedule (marked B.) to that Act annexed, warehoused under the provisions of that Act shall not be exported from the warehouse to any British colony, plantations, territory or dominion in America or the West Indies, nor be imported into any such British colony or plantation, unless and until all duties as well of Customs as Excise payable in Great-Britain or Ireland respectively on such goods and merchandize for home consumption shall have been paid, shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

And whereas it is expedient to constitute and appoint the Port of Kingston in the Island of Jamaica, and the Port of Halifax in Nova-Scotia, and the Port of Quebec in Canada, and the Port of St. John in New-Brunswick, to be free warehousing ports for all goods which may be legally imported into the said ports respectively; and it is also expedient to empower His Majesty to constitute and appoint from time to time any other ports in any of the said British possessions in America or the West-Indies, to be in like manner free warehousing ports for such goods as may be legally imported into such ports respectively; and it is therefore necessary to make regulations for the appointing of proper warehouses at such ports, for the lodging and securing of goods therein; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the several Collectors and Controllers of the said Ports of Kingston, Halifax, Quebec and St. John respectively, by power in writing under their hands, to appoint from time to time such warehouses at such ports respectively as shall be appointed of by them, for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Act, and also in such notice to declare what sort of Goods may be warehoused; and also by like notice to revoke or alter any such appointment or declaration; Provided always, that every such notice shall be transmitted to the Governor of the place, and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the importer of any such goods into the said ports to warehouses so appointed without payment of any duty on the first entry thereof, subject nevertheless to the rules, restrictions regulations and conditions hereinafter contained.

And be it further enacted, That all goods so warehoused shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse, and in such manner as the Collector and Controller shall direct; and that the warehouse shall be locked and secured in such manner, and shall be opened and visited only at such time and in the presence of such officers, and under such rules and regulations, as the Collector and Controller shall direct; and that all such goods shall after being landed upon importation be carried to the warehouse, or shall after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation, be carried to be shipped under such rules and regulations as the Collector and Controller shall direct.

And be it further enacted, That upon the entry of any goods to be warehoused, the importer of such goods shall give bond with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the Collector or Controller, in treble the duties payable on such goods, with condition for the safe depositing of such goods in the warehouse mentioned in such entry, and for the payment of all duties due upon such goods; or for the exportation thereof, according to the first account taken of such goods upon the landing of the same, and with further condition, that no part thereof shall be taken out of such warehouse until cleared from thence, upon due entry and payment of duty, or upon due entry for exportation, and with further condition, that the whole of such goods shall be so cleared from such warehouse; and the duties upon any deficiency of the quantity according to such first account, shall be paid within two years from the date of the first entry thereof; and if after such bonds shall have been given, the goods or any part thereof shall be sold or disposed of, so that the original bond shall be no longer interested in or have control over the same, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to admit fresh security to be given, by the bond of the new proprietor or other person having control over such goods, with his sufficient sureties, and to cancel the bond given by the original bond of such goods, with his sufficient sureties, and to cancel the bond given by the original bond of such goods or to exonerate him to the extent of the fresh security so given.

And be it further enacted, That upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused, the proper officer of the Customs shall take a particular account of the same, and shall mark the contents on each package, and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; and no goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse, except upon due entry and under the care of the proper officers for exportation, or upon due entry and payment of duty for home use; and whenever the whole of the goods warehoused under any entry shall be cleared from the warehouses, or whenever further time shall be granted for any such goods to remain warehoused, an account shall be made out of the quantity upon which the duties have been paid, and of the quantity exported, and of the quantity (to be then ascertained) of the goods still remaining in the warehouse as the case may be, deducting from the whole the packages (if any) which may have been abandoned for the duties, and if upon such accounts there shall in either case appear to be any deficiency of the original quantity, the duty payable upon the amount of such deficiency shall then be paid.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller, under such regulations as they shall see fit, to permit moderate samples to be taken of any goods so warehoused without entry and without payment of duty, except as the same shall eventually become payable, as on a deficiency of the original quantity.

And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller, under such regulations as they shall see fit, to permit the Proprietor or other person having control over any goods so warehoused, to sort, separate and pack, and repack any such goods and to make such lawful alterations therein, or arrangements and assortments thereof, as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale, shipment, or legal disposal of the same; and also to permit any parts of such goods to be separated, to be destroyed, but without prejudice to the claim for duty upon the whole original quantity of such goods, Provided always, That it shall be lawful for any person to abandon any whole Packages to the officers of the Customs for the duties, without being liable for any duty upon the same.

And be it further enacted that all goods which have been so warehoused shall be duly cleared, either for exportation or for home consumption, within two years from the day of the first entry thereof; and if any such goods be not so cleared, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller, to cause the same to be sold, and the produce shall be applied, first to the payment of the duties, next of warehouse rent and other charges, and the overplus (if any) shall be paid to the Proprietor: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to grant further time for any such goods to remain warehoused, if they shall see fit so to do.

And be it further enacted, That upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse, the person entering the same shall give security by bond in treble the duties of importation on the quantity of such goods, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Collector or Controller, that the same shall be landed at the place for which they be entered outwards, or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector or Controller.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time to appoint any port in His Majesty's Possessions in America or the West-Indies to be a free warehousing Port for the purposes of this Act, and every such port so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing Port under this Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as the ports of Kingston, Halifax and Quebec, are free warehousing ports appointed by this Act.

And be it further enacted that this Act, may be amended, altered and repealed, by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

The Schedules alluded to in this Act will be published in our next.
