A PROCLAMATION. IN Pursuance of the Powers vested in me by an Act of Parliament passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty intituled "An Act to Regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad," I have thought fit, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, to appoint and I do hereby, by and with the advice and consent aforesaid, appoint the Town of Fredericton and the Parish of Woodstock in the County of York, as Places of Entry for the entry of Goods brought or imported from any adjoining Foreign Country pursuant to the Provisions of the said Act...

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the first day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six and in the Seventh year of His Majesty's Reign. By His Excellency's Command, WM. F. ODELL.

BY His Excellency Major General Sir HOWARD DOUGLAS, Bart. (L. S.) Lieutenant-Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c. HOWARD DOUGLAS.

WHEREAS by an ordinance establishing fees to be taken in the Province of New-Brunswick, made and passed by His Excellency THOMAS CARLETON, Esquire, Governor of this Province, in Council, the second day of March one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, there are allowed and established among other fees the following, that is to say:

For Attornies in the Supreme Court, Travelling charges per day 10s. For Counsel in the Supreme Court, travelling charges the same as Attornies, and no more than one Counsel to be allowed in taxing Costs.

And whereas in the present circumstances of the Country, it is expedient and proper that the said fees for travelling charges to Attornies and Counsel in the Supreme Court should be abolished, I do therefore, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, ordain and declare that the said fees for travelling charges herein before specified, be and the same are hereby abolished.

And I do further by and with the advice and consent aforesaid; ordain and declare that henceforth any Judge of the Supreme Court before whom a cause shall be tried or after being entered for trial, shall by rule of Court be referred to arbitration, may allow to be taxed in the Bill of Costs in such cause, a Counsel fee at his discretion; in no case to exceed five Guineas.

BY AUTHORITY. IN COUNCIL, 27th MAY 1826. WHEREAS Applicants for Land have been in the practice of selling the Allotments made to them without having taken out their Grants, notwithstanding they are required to make Oath that they have not bargained for the sale of such Lands: Notice is hereby given that this practice is strictly forbidden, and all Bargains made for the transfer of Land under the like circumstances, after this date, will be holden to be absolutely null and void; and the purchasers thereof will not be considered as having any claim to a confirmation of their Title.

Extract from the Minutes. WM. F. ODELL.

Several cases of Desertion from His Majesty's Forces, having recently happened here--we have deemed it advisable to publish the following Letter addressed to the Magistrates of the several Counties in this Province; and we doubt not that the exertions of His Majesty's loyal and faithful Inhabitants, in their respective stations, will be used to put a stop to so serious an evil. Fredericton, 3d June, 1826.

GENTLEMEN SEVERAL cases of Desertion from His Majesty's Forces, having recently happened here, and the delinquents, excepting in one instance, having escaped; His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor has thought proper to call the attention of the Magistrates of the several Counties, to this serious, and, as it is to be feared, growing evil. Soldiers are never permitted to travel in any part of the Province without a Pass, so signed and authenticated as not to be mistaken, and, although Deserters will always assume a disguise, yet a little vigilant attention will easily discover them; and beside the pecuniary reward given for their apprehension, there are powerful motives which should operate upon the mind of every faithful subject, and prompt him to lend his aid to detect and prevent these offences. His Excellency therefore relying upon the zeal for the Magistrates, requests that they will, in their several districts, not only use their own best exertions, but also make known the subject of this Letter, and call upon the Inhabitants at large, who from their well known Loyalty, will, His Excellency is convinced, need no further stimulus to excite them in their respective stations, to use their best endeavours in the discharge of so important a duty, which they owe to their King and Country.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient humble servant, WM. F. ODELL.
