

Female Society.—Nothing is better adapted to give the last polish to the education of a young man than the conversation of virtuous and accomplished women. Their society serves to soothe the rough edges of our character and to mellow our tempers. In short the man who has never being acquainted with females of cultivated minds is not only deprived of many of the purest pleasures, but also will have little success in social life; and I should not like to be connected by the bonds of friendship with a man that has a bad opinion and speaks ill of the female sex in general.

The Philadelphia Gazette states that flour is now so cheap that it is used for horse food from motives of economy. It ought certainly to be put on record, that while the manufacturers of Great Britain are suffering for want of food, the people of Pennsylvania are feeding their horses with flour.

PHENOMENON.—As Mr. John Bolton of Smapside, was lately making his supper of boiled eggs, he was much surprised at the white of an egg being discoloured. On examination, to his astonishment of all present, a moderate sized horse bean was found inclosed, and had actually put forth a sprout, as is usual in a early state of vegetation.

There is a man living in the County of New London Con. who was born on Sunday, married a woman that was born on Sunday, and had a child born on each day of the week—the first on Sunday morning and the last on Saturday night.

Lady Richardson, of George street, Hanover Square, was last week brought to the Police office for giving one of her servants a severe trashing with a saucepan! Her Ladyship compromised the affair by a douceur of two sovereigns.

Two men handcuffed, in a gig, and under escort were driving from the neighbourhood of Newport, Pagnell, to the county gaol, charged with stealing turnip tops!—Lon. paper.

According to Parliamentary return, England and Wales contain 1,1687 brewers and 46,113 victuallers; of the latter 22,598 brew their own beer. Scotland contains 237 brewers, and 5,625 victuallers, and of the latter only 249 brew their own beer.

An Irish play bill, announcing a variety of feats, performed by a clown (at the Circus), for his benefit, states, that in the course of the evening, he will take a 'leap over a stage coach, full of outside passengers.

CLASSICAL SWEARING.—The style of swearing at Florence, is most laughably classical. I hear the vagabonds in the street, adjoining Venus and Bacchus; and my shoemaker swore by the aspect of Diana, that he would not take less than ten paolas, for work worth three—yet was the knave forsworn.—Lit Gaz.
